Chamber of Commerce Opens Torrance Employment Bureau; Local Industries Co-operate

With all Torrance industries co-operating, the Torrance Chamber of Commerce today announced that starting today it will conduct an employment bureau for Torrance residents.

The factories here will notify the Chamber of Commerce when men are needed and the chamber will endeavor to supply the men from among Torrance residents.

Local men and women out of employment are requested to file applications for work with the Chamber of Commerce.

Carl L. Hyde has for some time been placing workmen in some Torrance industries. The opening of the new employment bureau marks a systematic and comprehensive Torrance employment system, however. All local industrial executives are elated with the plan.

Old-Fashioned Quilting Party

An old-fashioned quilting bee was held at the home of Mrs. Fars of 22607 Vermont avenue, Keystone, last Friday.

At the close of a busy afternoon Mrs. Fars had the men folks in, and all enjoyed a delicious supper of sandwiches, cake, ice cream and coffee. Mrs. Fars was presented with some beautiful flowers. Those present during the afternoon were Mrs. Edward Lynch, of Torrance; Mrs. Tunston and daughter, of Wilmington; Mrs. W. Wells, Mrs. Charles Jones and daughter, Mrs. Frank Coswell, and Miss Constance Keller, of Keystone.

Grover C. Whyte of Marcelina avenue was a holiday visitor in San Francisco.

New Phone System Installed Here

Increase in traffic has warranted the installation of the same method of telephone operation here that is now in use in all towns that are much closer to Los Angeles.

The installation of direct number service has made necessary a change in the boards and method of operating, and has resulted in no little confusion. The addition of two new operators, one from Santa Fe, N. M., and the other from Wichita, Kan., has added its bit to the general confusion.

However, both old and new girls are becoming accustomed to the new system, and if telephone users will remember that a direct number call means considerable less delay than a special party call, the usual good service will be quickly assured.

Mrs. W. Harold Kingsley and son William, of Engracia avenue, left Tuesday for a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Kingsley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, of Nashua, N. H.

BALLAD OF THE HUSBANDS

Since ladies like their husbands stout,

With triple chins and hanging cheeks,

Then trot the rich corn-fodder out,

Trot out the butterbeans and leeks;

Make them to fill their shirts and breeks;

Bring on the spud and butter-pat,

With fat lard every joint that squeaks,

Since ladies like their husbands fat.

The lanky style is put to rout,

Gone lantern-jaws, gone skinny beaks;

Pig jowls, pig-tails, pig-ears, pig-snout,

Give man the embonpoint he seeks.

Out on emaciated geeks!

Out on the bird built like a slat!

Say farewell to the lanky shells,

Since ladies like their husbands fat.

"Let pouter pigeons proudly pout—"
The female of the species speaks—
"Let fatted Berkshires lie about,
Our eyes are fixed on fatter peaks,
And we are gaining through the weeks!"

Who can combat such vim as that?
Eat, brothers, till we look like freaks.

Since ladies like their husbands fat.

Envoi

Ladies, though lampooned in critiques,

With wheezy breath we tell you flat,

We'll eat till joist and stairway creaks,

Since ladies like their husbands fat.
