Elks' Musical Comedy Set For Aug. 18, 19, 20

'Who's Who' Will Be for Benefit of B. P. O. E. Charity Fund

There is plenty of interest manifested in Torrance in 'Who's Who,' the musical comedy that is being given by Redondo Beach Lodge No. 1378, B. P. O. Elks, not only because reports from this show are to the effect that 'Who's Who' is a wonderful musical comedy, but also in that so many prominent Torrance men are members of Redondo lodge of Elks. The play will be given Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Aug. 18, 19 and 20.

The Elks' ticket committee in Torrance consists of R. R. Smith, Sam Rappaport, H. S. McManus, Sam Levy, Floyd E. Gill, Ben Rappaport and S. J. Rappaport. This group of hustlers are each 'armed' with ten tickets to sell, and several of them have already sold out and have taken on a second set of ten tickets, which assures that Torrance will be mighty well represented among the who's who at 'Who's Who.'

Mrs. Emma Baxter Buried Saturday

Funeral services were held Saturday in Long Beach for Mrs. Emma Baxter, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Gibson, of Sierra Madre. Mrs. Baxter was known to many local residents who met her during her visits to her daughter's home when Mr. and Mrs. Gibson lived on Carson street. Mr. Gibson was formerly a member of the local postal force.

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE

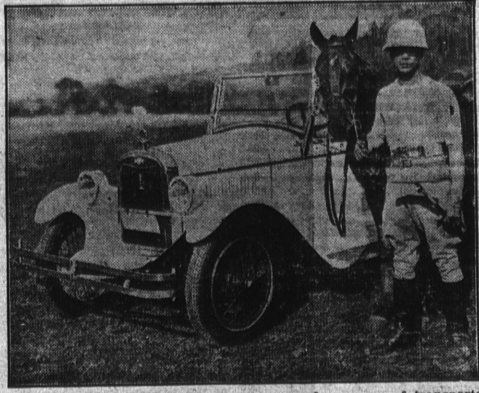

F. H. Seeley of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted expert, will personally be at the Rossmore Hotel and will remain in Santa Ana Thursday and Friday only, Aug. 19-20. Mr. Seeley says: "The Spermatic Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Being a vast advancement over all former methods—exemplifying instantaneous effects immediately applicable and withstanding any strain or position no matter the size or location. Large or difficult (rolling operations) specially solicited. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatments or prescriptions.

CAUTION—All cases should be cautioned against the use of any elastic or web truss with understraps, as same rest where the lump is and not where the opening is, producing complications necessitating surgical operations. Mr. Seeley has documents from the United States Government, Washington, D. C., for inspection. He will be glad to demonstrate without charge or fit them if desired. Business demands prevent stopping at any other place in this section.

N. B.—Every statement in this notice has been verified before the Federal and State Courts.—F. H. SEELEY. Home Office 117 N. Dearborn St. Chicago.

39 Musical Instruments PIANO BARGAIN—One of our high grade pianos at present stored in Torrance will be placed at extreme sacrifice for quick disposal. Look this over and make us offer. MOTOR AKIN TO SPORTS

In days gone by the horse was the everyday means of transportation; motoring was a sport. Not so now. The horse figures almost exclusively in the element of sport, while the automobile is the common carrier. Winslow B. Felix, Pacific coast painter, is shown here with his blooded polo pony and his Chevrolet roadster.

OBSERVATIONS

Senator Shortridge, incumbent, voted for the World Court. He is aligned with the ultra-conservative wing of the Republican party. His interests are in the north. It is only fair that one of California's senators come from the Southland.

THE two southern candidates are Robert Clarke and Walter Lineberger of Long Beach. Lineberger left Washington in the midst of the Colorado River agitation. He came home to campaign for himself for United States senator. He left Washington without a congressman from Southern California, for Capt. Fredericks was absent because of sickness.

Lineberger's record has been a record for Lineberger. He came to California to talk about the Colorado River when he should have been on the firing line in Washington. We should have a senator from the south. And assuredly that senator should not be Mr. Lineberger, but Mr. Clarke.

of San Pedro, and Miss Reva Hodge. TORRANCE NOTES A. L. Bond and son Dee are on a fishing trip in San Diego County.

Samuel Wilson, who left Tuesday for Oklahoma City, was a dinner guest Sunday at the home of his nephew, S. F. Webb. Other guests during the day at the Webb home on Cota avenue were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Shafer and children, of Pasadena, and Mrs. Benjamin Tomkins of Whittier.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Henderson of Spauldin Court were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Westfall of Glendale.

Mrs. E. N. Tomkins and her house guests, Mrs. Doyle and family, enjoyed a picnic at Hermosa Beach Sunday.

Miss Marion Veith is enjoying a two-weeks vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Westfall of Glendale.

Mrs. George Greaves of Andro avenue and Mrs. Ross Van Voorhis and children of Huntington Park are at Catalina for a week's vacation.

A Sunday picnic luncheon in Genesta Park, Pomona, was an enjoyable affair for Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hannebrink and family and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ritchie, of Andro avenue.

A pot-luck supper was given at the Harbor City M. E. Church Wednesday evening, followed by a prayer meeting and a short musical program. The program included songs by Morris McEwen, Harbor City, Joe Robert, Terminal Island, and Miss Mildred Hopkin, San Pedro; a short talk by the Sunday School superintendent, George F. Hopkins; a reading by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Semmes; and a splendid sermon by Rev. J. S. Lindsey. The evening closed with the pound party that had been arranged as a surprise to the pastor. Each guest brought a pound of something, and a little of everything was the result. This was one of the best-attended meetings of the church for some time.

Boy Scouts Troop No. 1 motored to Brighton Beach Tuesday evening for a wiener roast. Swimming and games, with lots to eat, made up the evening entertainment. Present were Scouts Stanley Asplittle, Wallace Higgs, Richard Jones, William Shephard, Jesse Pettit, Walter Myerscough, Elmer Higgs, and Scoutmaster J. S. Lindsey.

The social and surprise party held at the Campfire Girls' cabin Wednesday evening was a delightful affair. Games and songs made up an interesting program. During the serving of refreshments Edna Higg, scribe of the Kimamona group, in a graceful speech presented Miss Reva Hodge, assistant guardian during the vacation, with a beautiful Campfire pin, on behalf of the group. Miss Hodge in a few well chosen words expressed her appreciation and surprise. Among those present were Edna Higg, Helen Johnson, Ruth Todd, Mary Ows, Christina and Phyllis Myerscough, Cora Sedemier, Meryle Panky, Ida and Orpha Evans, June and Virginia Turner, Dorothy Hughes, Viola Hawthorn, Mrs. Sedemier, Miss Jessie Cole

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hickman of Weston street returned Sunday from a few days' vacation at Big Bear.

Torrance Voters Boost Traeger; Club Is Formed

Flocking to the standard of Sheriff Bill Traeger, a group of Torrance voters this week organized a Traeger-for-Sheriff Club and started an active campaign here on behalf of the incumbent.

Directors of the club are as follows: George Steadman, president; George P. Shidler, vice-president; Tom Foley, treasurer; W. Harold Kingsley, secretary; A. H. Bartlett, James L. King, John Dennis, William Gascoigne, Tom T. Gardner, Ed. McDonald. Traeger headquarters have been opened at 1405 Marcelina avenue. About fifty members constitute the membership of the club.

A statement issued by the directors yesterday lauds the record of Sheriff Traeger and urges his continuance in office "in order to avoid the expense of making a change throughout the sheriff's department and to insure law enforcement in Los Angeles county."

Five New Babies Join Center Group

Five new babies were among the 16 tots present at the last session of the Mothers' Educational Center. The mothers, who come from Long Beach, Wilmington, Redondo Beach, Lomita and Torrance, and the workers at the Center, are deeply appreciative of the assistance rendered by the local Chamber of Commerce.

Next month Dr. R. W. Stellar, mind and character building, will be added to the staff of physicians at the Center. Dr. Stellar, a Harvard graduate, is a member of the staff at the General Hospital in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Thomas Alton left last Sunday for a month's visit with relatives in Oklahoma.
