On to Paris, Is Rally Cry of A.E.F. Veterans

California Leads All States In Number of Reservations For Trip.

San Francisco—Although the sailing date for the second A. E. F. to France is months away, California World War Veterans lead the rest of the United States in the number of reservations made for the American Legion's journey abroad next September for its national convention in Paris.

George J. Hatfield, U. S. attorney here, and chairman of the "On-to-Paris" committee of the Legion in California, reports that one-third of the number of reservations allotted to California have already been taken up and that this state has made more reservations than any other state. Legion officials, according to Hatfield, hope to limit the total number going abroad for the annual American Legion meeting to 30,000.

Hatfield has received word that the sessions of the convention of the American Legion Auxiliary, the women's group, will be held in the beautiful Continental Hotel ball room, one of the show places of the French capital.

was picked up, the side finishing first being winners.

Three men on stick horses and driving an egg before them with a paper fan was the stunt of the fifth or Oriental hour. The associate matron, Lillian Shriner, was in charge.

Emma Briney lead in the community singing during the music hour.

The seventh hour was the hour of reckoning when all who had in any manner criticized the entertainment by word or action as discovered by Minnie Brooks, chaplain; Emma Thompson, marshal; Hermine Oetken, secretary, or Mabel Andrus, treasurer, were called up on the carpet and told to perform some stunt or wear a band of crepe the rest of the evening.

The Star Points, some of them dressed as gypsies with red or yellow sashes and turbans, served cake, orangeade and candy at the eighth or refreshment hour.

Merry Gathering of Eastern Stars Friday Night

Local Chapter Pleases Members With Unique Entertainment.

Time, the old Gypsyman, has promised to stay and put up his caravan while the Eastern Stars play. Come on the chosen nite, through snow or showers. And share our delight in Time's golden hours.

was the wording of the notices sent members of Torrance chapter, O. E. S., bidding them attend the meeting of the chapter on Thursday evening, January 27.

After the closing of the chapter all went up stairs to the dining room where an entertainment had been prepared. John Wilson, patron of the chapter, who was to have taken the part of Father Time, was unable to be present, and Charles Mueller, past patron of the chapter, took his place and marked the hours on the large clock that hung on the wall.

The warden of the chapter, Clara Mowry, had charge of the first or exercise hour and she had all in the hall join in callisthenic exercises.

The second hour or fashion hour was in charge of Mabel Boynton, conductress, who had fifteen couples fashion ties and headbands out of crepe paper. The men making the head bands for the women and the woman making ties for the men.

Lola Mae Tompkins, worthy matron, had charge of the third or study hour. And by the answers to the questions she asked the members showed how well they had learned the lessons taught by the Order of Eastern Stars.

During the "Lost" hour grains of corn placed in eight rows, fifteen to a row, represented the sixty golden minutes lost somewhere between sunrise and sunset. Choosing two teams of four members each, Virginia Watson, associate conductress, had the first one in each team must walk backwards across the floor picking up the grains of corn as they went. Then they returned, still walking backward and passed the corn to their next neighbor as quickly as possible. The walk backwards continued till all corn on both sides is something you take for granted—a protection every property owner should have.

But don't take too much for granted. Don't think that you can take out Fire Insurance and forget it except when premiums are due. You must ask yourself every year if your protection is still adequate, if changing property values, improvements and additions in your property, new equipment, etc., have not affected the efficiency of existing policies.

We will gladly help you take inventory of your risks.
