SCHOOL NEWS

HIGHER SCHOOL. Principal Wood announced that the afternoon adult millinery class will be abandoned unless there is an immediate increase in enrollment. This class affords instruction in the making of hats, flowers, lamp shades, and other works of art. Another class is under the instruction of Mrs. Edna Bane Day.

Miss Esther Montgomery, an expert librarian, has assumed charge of the library at the Torrance High School, and will instruct pupils in the proper use of the library, methods of study and reading, and in research. Miss Montgomery comes to Torrance from several years' work in the central circulating library of the Los Angeles city schools.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL. Carl Egan Moore, an Kennelwood College man and recently of the University of Southern California, has been chosen to fill the post of horticultural instructor at the Torrance Elementary School, replacing Mr. Hoover, who resigned to go to another state.

Torrance elementary grades, manual training classes from the third grade up, are getting ready for a kite tournament to be held March 25. Kites to be judged are artistic construction, special form geometrical kites, box kites, small geometrical kites, box kites, small kites, model airplanes, and gliders. The tournament is being supervised by Mrs. Buckley and C. A. Kerton, the manual training director. The winner will take part in the general tournament to be held in April, probably in Torrance. A 20-minute talk on kites and their making was given at Wednesday morning assembly by Mr. Miller, assistant director.

Mrs. E. V. Blackwell returned to Torrance last Sunday, after spending two weeks in Hollywood, Venice and Los Angeles with old-time friends.

One Profit Merchandise

It is the policy of Piggly Wiggly to take advantage of every economy, enabling us to supply foodstuffs to our customers at the lowest possible prices. Where the mill-dinner performs no service, we cut him out. Much of our fresh foodstuffs are delivered by the growers to our warehouse, there re-assorted and sent by Piggly Wiggly trucks to our stores. No middlemen to help boost the price to you. Our aim is ONE-PROFIT MERCHANDISE.
