LEGION NEWS

SAN FRANCISCO—Twenty Los Angeles musical organizations founded by American Legion posts will be included in the California contingent which will make the trip to Paris, France, in September to attend the national convention of the World War veterans' organization. Included in this number will be the Canters, an American Legion glee club composed of veterans from all the posts of Los Angeles County.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Notice of the by Department Adjutant Fiss.
Commander Shlvich is particularly well fitted to serve in this capacity, having been chairman of the California state child welfare committee for a period of two years, preceding his election to the office of department commander.

office of department commander.

SAN FRANCISCO:—Every one of the 360 posts of the American Legion will make special efforts to see that Mothers' Day, May 8, will be a day of remembrance for those mothers who gave their sons in the defense of their country during the World War.

Every Gold Star mother in the state will receive flowers on this day from the 4-sejon post in the community, and in many places special exercises dedicated to the Gold Star mothers will be sponsored by the Legion.

SAN FRANCISCO.— American Legion posts throughout California

SAN FRANCISCO.— American g Legion posts throughout California, have been asked to adopt additional Boy Scout troops and furnish scoutmasters wherever needed, according to a bulletin sent out by Dr. John F. Slavich, state commander of the World War veterans' organization.

In Southern' California the twelfth regional executive committee of the SO Scouts of America has created a special national field scout commissionership for those who are rendering conspicuous service among the 45,000 scouts of the district. Commander Slavich has asked the Legion posts to make Scout work a major endeavor in their programs of community service for the year.

SAN FRANCISCO—Longs made

SAN FRANCISCO.—Loans made to World War veterans by the United States Veterans' Bureau on adjusted compensation certificates have gone over the $3,568,584 mark, according to word received by James E. Fisk, state adjutant of the American Legion, from Washington officials.

The loans have been made to more than 35,000 veterans scattered over the United States.

SAN FRANCISCO. — Favorable

SAN FRANCISCO.— Favorable consideration for the establishment of Armistice Day, November 11, as a legal holiday in California, has been given by the State Legislature. The bill to add Armistice Day to the list of holidays is a part of the legislature program of the American Legion, and was introduced in the Legislature by the war veterans in the Legislature.
