Getz' Friends Hear His Radio Whistle

Mrs. Emma M. Burgess, 87, died

City Trustees Act

On Annexation of

A cheery and familiar whistle from radio station KFON Long Beach, was heard Sunday night by many friends of John Getz, a member of the Torrance Herald and Lomita News force.

Mr. Getz, before the microphone, mocked the tune of the mocking bird and gave several bird note imitations. He also warble-whistled several songs, including "Home, Sweet Home."

On Friday evening, June 24, Mr. Getz will whistle for the Boy Scouts of Torrance, Troop No. 3.

there is success, and if we have the success that I am sure will slow and sure in our judgments,

ready and quick with our mercy,
and above all, let us have understanding and tolerance.
