She Watched Vons Grow

Mrs. S. Rahn, 6629 Bonsallo Ave., Los Angeles writes: "Why do I trade at Vons and why do I intend to continue? This question has been asked by my friends and neighbors and answered by me many times when occasion arose to send to the store for an item in a hurry. Whether the distance was one block or ten blocks I prefer Vons, because I know my children will be treated with as much courtesy as myself—even more, it possible. Also, I know there will be no necessity for sending back because of price or substitution. I have lived here I5 years and have watched Vons grow. I attribute your expansion to these reasons."

one of the biggest costs on

So. Calif. Fair Directors Get Down to Work

Fifteenth Annual Exposition at Riverside to Include New Features

Riverside, August 18.—Directors of the newly formed 46th Agricul-tural district, having received their commissions from Governor Young, have taken up their duties as execfeir to be held here September 27 to October 2.

Due to an appropriation for the fair authorized by the last legislature, the organization of the committee had to be changed somewhat, with directors of the agricultural district in charge, of the fair. Oscar Crowell, widely known in Southern California, succeeds J. E. Wherrell as president. Mr. Wherrell was compelled to relinquish the post when elected to the legislature.

Other directors are August Rohrbacker, Nuevo, vice president; Cecil N. Funk, Riverside; C. L. McFarland, Riverside; A. S. Cooper, Riverside; S. R. McDougall, Riverside; R. E. Dillon, Beaumont; W. F. Eldridge, Corona, president of the Farm Bureau. It is expected that Harry G. Wells will be elected treasurer of the fair to succeed La Roy Simms, who has been compelled, by the urgency of private affairs, to sever his connection with the association.

Cecilia G. Cravens, who has been with the fair for a number of years, remains at her post as secretary.

The division superintendents are: Horses, F. L. Hall; Cattle, G. W. Thomas; Swine, F. A. Langdon; Sheep, John T. Hammer; Goats, Frank Mitchell; Junior Fair, M. A. Klpf; Aplary, R. Powell; Agriculture and horticultural, H. A. Lynn; Child's Welfare, Riverside County Clinic; Domestic Arts and Crafts, Mrs. W. M. Hoagland; Fine Arts, W. W. Riddell; Educational, E. E. Smith; Poultry, pigeons and rabbits, E. I. Hammond.

The fair dates have been arranged this year so that there is no conflict with any other exhibition in Southern California.

Announcement is expected to be made within a few days of the complete program, which will include, probably, several features that heretofore have not been included in the fair program. An effort is being made to have several persons of international interest prosent at least one day during the fair.

Extensive repairs and improvements have been made on the fair.
