District Deputy President Lida District Deputy President Lata Stevens, assisted by Mrs. Edna Newman, murshall, and Past Frest-dent Mrs. Alice Pearce conducted a school of instruction last Wed-nosday evening, on the occasion of Mrs. Stevens official visit to Trio Evening High School *

The work in the new millinery class, Mrs. Evelyn Stout, teacher, will consist of frame making, draping, and trimming. Pupils will be trained for positions if desired.
Thirty-one persons qualified for the new class in Americanization. All but one or two of these are subjects of Great Britain. C. C. Kelso, director, came down Tuesday trained for positions of the class.

Newman, marshall, and Past Presider Ment Mrs. Affec Pearce conducted a school of instruction last Wednesday evening, on the occasion of Mrs. Stevens' official visit to Trio Rebekah Lodge.

The dinner served at 6:30 was well attended and thoroughly appreciated.

Trio Rebekahs are planning a Haloweien dance for Saturday evening, october 29, that promises to clipse all previous affairs. Mrs. II. C. Anderson is chairman of arangements.
