Laura La Plante picks prize-winning Avocados

By G. N. P. A. Service

Prize avocados of many varieties are to be featured in the horticultural division of the Southern California Fair, which opens at Riverside September 25 for a six day celebration.

SOCIETY

Readers are requested to telephone their social items to Mrs. Waldo Darnell, society editor, phone 494.

SCOTS ENTERTAINED AT CAFE HERE

Scots were entertained at their regular social meeting by a dinner at Earl's Cafe last Thursday evening.

There were about 40 present at this time. Several petitions were read and accepted.

MISS MASON WEDS COMPTON MAN

The marriage of Elizabeth Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mason, to Darrel D. Feels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Feels of Compton, was solemnized at the Methodist Episcopal church at 8 o'clock Friday evening.

Reverend Joseph E. Holgate of Redondo performed the ceremony, the setting of which was made by baskets of pastel colored asters, ferns and dahlias.

Miss Marion McIntyre sang "At Dawning," followed by Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Glendena Jessup.

Little Zella Feels, frocked in blue tulle, and carrying a basket of pink and white carnations, was the flower girl.

The bride was lovely in a gown of green georgette, and carried a bouquet of white roses and maidenhair fern.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Phyllis McIntyre of Gardena, wore lavender georgette, and carried pink sweet peas.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Feels left for a wedding trip to Santa Barbara, and after their return they will reside in Hollywood.

W. B. A. MEMBERS HONOR PRESIDENT
Miss Carolyn Stroh, president of the W. B. A. was delightfully surprised Tuesday evening, when the members presented her with a lovely water set and two baskets of flowers.

At the close of the regular meeting, which was held at the Women's club, Miss Stroh was led to the banquet hall, where she found a delightful "spread" awaiting her and the lovely gifts.

Many of the W. B. A. members were present, and also Mrs. May Weatherill of Los Angeles, health superintendent, who had made a talk earlier in the evening.

MISS DAVIS BECOMES A BRIDE
Edna Ruth Davis and Claude Hector Montgomery were united in marriage last Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. by the Reverend B. H. Lingenfelter.

The ceremony was held at the new home of the bride and groom at 1966 Plaza Del Amo, with only the immediate family present.

MISS MAXWELL RETURNS FROM VACATION

Miss Esther Maxwell, superintendent of the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital has returned from her vacation in Alaska. Enroute to Alaska, she and Mrs. Jared Sidney Torrance attended the national convention of the American Hospital Association in San Francisco for a week.

Miss Maxwell was gone a month.

MOORE-BURKHOLDER NUPTIALS

Elsie Burkholder of Pasadena and Dr. Marion Moore were married before a large gathering in the patio of the Forsythe Memorial school in Los Angeles at 7:30 Monday evening.

The party formed a beautiful setting for the ceremony with the blooming flowers, and shaded lights.

Before the ceremony, "Because" was sung. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played for the entry of the bride and her attendants.

The bride was lovely in a period style dress of white crepe satin and tulle. She wore a close fitting cap shape veil beaded with pearls, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

After the ceremony, a reception for the guests was given in the foyer where the bride and groom received the congratulations of their friends.

They then departed for a honeymoon in parts unknown. Upon their return they will reside in Inglewood.

Mrs. Moore is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Burkholder, and lived in Torrance until very recently, when they moved to Pasadena.

Edward Clarkson is rapidly recovering from a recent operation, and will soon be able to leave the hospital.

Mrs. Ivy Grace, 1521 Cedar, is improving rapidly.

Miss Virginia Watson is leaving Saturday for Los Angeles to register for her senior year at U.C.L.A. Miss Watson is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority there.

Two Little Girls Concert Artists to Appear Here

Two tiny geniuses, the little Misses Halanick, will entertain at the Kiwanis Club Friday noon, and at the Methodist Episcopal church at 7:30.

Miss Joan, "The miracle violinist" is but 9 years old, and Miss Jeanne, "The baby nightingale" is 3. Both of these children are prodigious artists, each one in her individual capacity.

Jeanne is acclaimed the youngest girl virtuoso in concert work. She sings with perfect diction, unctious and understanding in six languages.

Joan and Jeanne have a repertoire of over 70 compositions each. It has been said of Joan "This child is another Kubelik, another Czech artist—the tone she draws would be a credit to a performer three times her age."

Their appearance at the Kiwanis Club luncheon and at the M. E. church will be the first in Torrance, and many people are planning to hear them.

Local-Writer Receives Award

John Tweeddale, who is well known to Torrance Herald and Lomita News readers by his editorials and short stories, received the special cash premium award and the second prize offered by the Orange County Newspaper Association for the best story submitted to the Department of Creative Arts, Orange County Fair.

A number of well known writers entered the contest, Kathleen Scott being awarded first prize. The story which won second place for Mr. Tweeddale was written for the Torrance Herald and the Lomita News and appeared in the editions of June 21. It was entitled "A Stranger in the Forest."

Rev. Young Home from Trip

Members of the Methodist Episcopal church honored Reverend R. Young Sunday morning on his return from a month's trip in the east with a Sunday morning breakfast at the Hotel Rosslyn in Los Angeles. When Reverend Young stepped off the train, he was welcomed by the delegation and taken to breakfast.

While in the east, he held revivals at Hallsville, Texas, and Waynesboro, Mississippi. Before his return he visited with his parents in Charleston, West Virginia.

SCOUT NEWS

The Scout swimming classes at the Anderson plunge in San Pedro will be resumed Monday evening, September 17, 1928. Classes will include instruction in swimming for beginners, the side, breast and crawl strokes, life saving and speed swimming. The use of the plunge is given to the Scouts exclusively on Monday evenings of each week and competent instructors provided for each of the classes. There is no charge for the instruction provided, the only charge being that of ten cents for admission and the use of a towel. Bathing suits will be provided for those Scouts not bringing their own, at an additional cost of five cents. These opportunities are made possible through the action of the Playground Commission operating the plunge and the co-operation of Dud Shumway, swimming director.

The Boy Scout Board of Review formerly called the Court of Honor, for the purpose of considering merit badge application, will be conducted at the Scout building on Tuesday evening, September 18th, starting at 7:00 p. m. Because of the fact that no meetings of the Board have been held during the months of July and August, each first class Scout is entitled to present as many as nine merit badge applications for consideration.

Union Ice Co. Employees Picnic at San Clemente

With over 225 employees in attendance, one of the most successful picnics in the history of the company was held Sunday at San Clemente by the Union Ice company.

Plenty of excitement, with the keenest appetites to enjoy the bounteous refreshments, and a thrilling baseball game between the Torrance team and Frank Holbrook's nine, made the day one long to be remembered. The live-liner members of the party enjoyed a plunge in the early morning in the San Clemente club's plunge and later a dip in the sea.

Responsible for the success of the annual outing were Chief of Police E. J. Eaton and W. Cotton of San Clemente, who lent assistance, and the committee in charge of the refreshments which were served throughout the day.

Knights of Columbus officers elected Monday night are: Carl J. Gramling, grand knight; Thomas L. Cassidy, deputy grand knight; W. McMaster, chancellor; Charles Tansy, warden; Thomas Havlin, recording secretary; Ted Wertz, treasurer; Anthony Jessome, outer guard; E. V. Anderson, inner guard; J. V. Murray, trustee.

Organize Gym Classes for Women

"All work and no play" has a pernicious effect on others than Jack. No one wants to be a "dull boy."

Healthful, refreshing exercise and games counteract that "dull feeling."

The evening high class in Physical Education for women offers two hours, twice a week, of pleasant lively exercise, including elementary clog dancing.

Classes will be held at 7 o'clock, Tuesday and Thursday evening at the girls' gym.

Bowling Season Starts Next Month

Opening of the bowling season for 1928 is set for October 1st, says Joe Bender, proprietor of the American Bowling alleys. Many improvements in the equipment have been made and plans are getting under way for a spirited program of contests.

Some of the winning combinations of other seasons will be seen in action, and very likely there will be enough new bowling talent to give the leaders some competition. Bowling fans will find plenty to interest them when the first ball crashes the pins October 1.

Prowlers Enter Burmaster Home

Prowlers entered the home of Mrs. Anha Burmaster at 1321 E. 1st last Sunday evening, and ransacked the dressing room, scattering the linens. They entered by forcing open the upper part of one of the windows.

Mrs. Burmaster and her daughter Kathleen returned from the theatre shortly after 10 and evidently interrupted the trespassers, for upon investigation, nothing seemed to be missing.

The chair was equipped with scooters.

LOCAL MAN HURT

J. J. Boatman received deep cuts and bruises about his eye, and cuts on both hands, when the chair on which he was standing to repair a window, slipped from under him and he crashed through the casement and the plate glass to the ground, some 5 1/2 feet below.

The chair was equipped with scooters.

Oil Well Burns on Del Amo Ranch

An oil well on the Del Amo lease, caught fire last Thursday, Sept. 6 about 1 p. m. The Torrance fire department was called, but not until it was too late to save the well, which was a total loss.

That a gas pocket might have ignited with sparks from an electric welding machine, was one of the theories advanced as to the cause of the fire.

The well is the property of the C.-C. M. O. Oil company, and represents a loss of $7,000.

FOOD SALE

The Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church will hold a food sale at the Quality Market on Redondo boulevard and Fortola, Saturday, Sept. 15 at 9:30 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Anderson were guests of Dr. L. H. Lawson in Pasadena Sunday.
