Prize Fruits at County Fair

They are going into cold storage—no, not the girl, but the peaches. That earlier varieties may be shown, they are picked weeks in advance and kept perfect by refrigeration.

“Mademoiselle from Armentieres” Doughboy Song Film Coming Here

Of all the martial songs that have gone to make history, those gay, lilted tunes sung by the American doughboy and English Tommy are, perhaps, the most famous and the most noted of that famed number is, undoubtedly, “Mademoiselle from Armentieres.” Many of these songs of the camp and march have been incorporated in the various motion pictures dealing with the war, but it remained for the Gaumont Company, Ltd., of England to produce a film founded solely on one of them and that one the most popular of them all. This is “Mademoiselle from Armentieres,” wonderful and vivid drama of the great war which comes to the Torrance Theatre, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 13 and 14, released by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Based upon this far-sung melody, British screen artistry has achieved a real triumph that ranks with other masterful productions that have used the war theme as their motif.
