18 Batsmen Bite the Dust

Tanseymen's Big Smoke Artist Has Indian Sign on Visitors

Ed Tansey's Torrance ball tossers and the Educational Studios battled 11 innings to a tie Sunday at the C. C. M. O. Park in one of the fastest games of the season. The score stood 3 to 3 when the game was called on account of darkness.

lar performance the big smoke artist gave his mates a holiday in the field and set the opposing batsmen down with 18 strike-outs. Ferguson was ably assisted by the well-known Bucky Harris, formerly of the Sacramento Coast league team who appeared behind the bat for the first time in a Torrance uniform. With a battery of the caliber of this pair, the Torrance team is due to cause a lot of worry to their opponents.

Not all the credit for a hot game can be passed out to the battery however, as the rest of the team were trying hard all the time for a win. Frost, Ducazu and Claypool came through with three hits each, while Atwood, the speedy shortstop contributed a put-out and two assists to cut off possible scores by the Studiomen.

On next Sunday, Nov. 11, Torrance will meet Reginald Denny's All-Star team in the opening game of the Bay District League.

Following is the box score of Sunday's game:

Casaba Squads Start Practice

Marine League Opens Season with First Games on Dec. 7

Torrance high school basketball season will officially open December 7. Meanwhile, Coach Nylander is shaping his team with interclass games and eliminations.

In the interclass season, the Sophomores were leading until Monday, when the Sophomore squad played the seniors and the frosh played the juniors.

At this time there were two upsets, the seniors taking the game from the sophs, and the frosh outdubbing the juniors.

Interclass standing to date:

	W	L	Pct.
Seniors	3	1	.750
Sophs	3	1	.750
Juniors	2	2	.500
Frosh	2	2	.500

Last evening the Frosh played the Seniors and the juniors battled the sophs. Tonight the frosh and sophs meet, also the juniors and seniors.

These are the last games and if a decisive victory for one class has not been made, the two competing teams will meet and play off the tie.

Tuesday evening the fleawrights and the Midgets play at Ingewood in a practice game. Thursday evening the Varsity team will clash with Ingewood in a practice tilt.

Hartley Carr is the newly appointed basketball manager. The schedule of games for the season of 1928-29:

- Class A and B
Dec. 7—Narbonne at Torrance.
Dec. 14—Torrance at Jordan.
Jan. 4—Bell at Torrance.
Jan. 11—Riis at Torrance.
Jan. 18—Torrance at Washington.
- Class C and D
Jan. 25—Gardena at Torrance.
Feb. 1—Torrance at Banning.

Narbonne Down J. Riis Huskies

Gauchos Still Contenders for Top Berth in Marine League

Narbonne's galloping Gauchos breezed in to an easy 32-6 win over Jacob Riis on the latter's field last Friday afternoon. Narbonne played great ball the first half and ran up a 25-6 score while Riis never threatened until they recovered a fumbled punt on the two yard line and plunged it across on the final try.

Many of Narbonne's second string were in the game at the time or the Gauchos would undoubtedly have kept their goal uncrossed.

In the second half Narbonne started out with a rush and put the ball on the ten yard line but poor headwork on the part of one of the backs lost 35 yards and the rush was halted.

Late in the fourth quarter Narbonne scored again when J. D. Stitts turned in a brilliant exhibition of line plunging and open field running. His last run of 15 yards netted a touchdown.

All of the Narbonne team played good ball although Santich, Morginson, Captain George Robinson and Stitts showed best offensively. Dorell Wolverton at quarter ran the team in nice style and also played well on defense. West and Ables at ends, Buck and Frownfelter at tackles and Powers at guard were the best players on the line.

Hirshman worked fine but was not in long due to injuries. Chesley Jeter who replaced Odell Clayton at center also played a nice game. Odell was going great until he was injured in the second quarter. Randles, Robb, Whitacre, Stumps, Holman, Ruggart and Eugene Jeter all saw plenty of action and gave a good account of themselves.

Injuries to Darrel, George, Robert and Cyril will seriously cripple the team for the coming game with Gardena.

Tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. the Gauchos tangle with their old rivals, the Gardena Glants in a game that will decide whether Narbonne will still remain in the race for the championship.

Line-ups:
Narbonne: Jacob Riis, Chutuk, Buck, It, Murray, Powers, lg, Depolna, Clayton, c, Sparks, Haslam, rg, Ivonor, Frownfelter, rt, Sams, West, q, Sartura, Wolverton, re, Torrence, Robinson, rh, Williams, Morginson, rb, Brown, Santich, f, Gradnego.

Torchbearers Are Trounced Again

Light Line Falls to Hold Plunging Washington Team

On Friday, Nov. 3, the Washington "axe wielders" defeated the "Torch Bearers" by a 14-0 count. Eckerth and Boone put over the touchdowns for the red and blue in the first and second quarters. Doons and Greenwood converted for the extra points. The Washington touchdowns were made on steady line plunging, because of the weakness of the Torrance line. However, in the last half the crimson and silver line worked to perfection and the backfield functioned better. T. H. S. failed to score in the last half and so lost to Washington. Great praise should be given to the axe wielders for their ability to pass and plunge the line.

Night School Beats San Pedro

Narbonne's night school gym class team triumphed over San Pedro's fast team in a closely contested game Monday night in the Narbonne Gym. Narbonne led at half time 17-12, but Pedro tied the score in the third quarter 18-18 and then sank a foul to make the score 19-18 in their favor. Then Glen Hammack sunk one to make it 20-19 favor of Narbonne and from then on Narbonne was never headed. Captain Reuben John and Max Scholz were the outstanding players for Narbonne and also high point men. Gorman made most of San Pedro's points and was easily the star. MacPhail at guard also turned in a great exhibition and Montgomery, Straight and Hammack all worked in good style. Fred Griffith playing for the first time in weeks proved to be a valuable man for Narbonne.

Come on Down Town Saturday; Watch Ollie Tote Jaw

High Student Election

That little bet between Ollie Stevenson and Jawn Stroh over who's gonna be the next president is going to be paid in full next Saturday afternoon—scheduled time 3 o'clock, if they don't change their minds like Howard McClellan (the paryshute jumper) did.

Ollie, as well you remember was strong for Al Smith—and because he picked the wrong loss in the race, he will have to lend a little of his strength in totting Jawn's bulk around town in a wheelbarrow.

Jawn wants to sit in the carry-all so Ollie will have about a ton and a half weight to lift, and Ollie tells him if he does that he may as well prepare for a big spill.

So if you really want to know how it is all going to come out, try and manage to be somewhere near the "line of march" which will be from the police station down Cravens to Cabrillo, down Cabrillo to Sartori, Sartori to Marcelina, down Marcelina to Cravens and then return to the fire station.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lepkin visited friends in Los Angeles Sunday.
