MME. BILLINI GRACIOUS HOSTESS AT SOIREE

One of the most delightful social events of the year was the soiree of Mme. Edie Tefft Billini, talented Torrance pianist at the Legion clubhouse last Saturday night. A group of distinguished artists, including Mme. Billini, entertained the guests with a pleasantly informal but unusually engaging program.

Miss Binola Kucker, Inglewood soloist, was the guest of honor. Her selections were superb. Miss Kucker combines a rare quality of voice with an exquisite personality and superb interpretation. Her generosity with encores was deeply appreciated.

Marie and Mary MacFarland, internationally known, sang a number of duets and solos, which were inexpressibly delightful.

Miss Virginia Paxton of Torrance brought forth roars of laughter and applause with two of her always splendid recitations. Her burlesque of an Oscar heroine was first class mimicry.
