Thrill Club Is Well Received

First National Movement Gets Hearty Response From Torrance Lads

The First National Bank's latest contribution to public service has taken well, as was shown by the first meeting of the Thrift Club. All who attended this meeting carried away a spirit of enthusiasm as well as enjoying a good meal.

Bankers assume that a community can progress only as its citizens progress. The youth no longer enjoys a long play time but is turned on into the business world early in life. America's leadership in almost every line of endeavor is not a mere accident. Alertness, special training and the ability to take up new ideas has given us this leadership.

The Thrift Club has filled a need especially for the young man. It will teach him the value of systematic saving, give him a thorough knowledge of stocks and bonds, and other investments, and teach him to do his own thinking.

A speaker from the First National Bank outlined the idea of a Thrift Club. The club is a group of young men who meet weekly to discuss the value of systematic saving, and other investments.

Buddy Rogers in Fast New Film

"Someone to Love" Will Show at Torrance Sunday and Monday

"Someone to Love" Charles Buddy Rogers' second starring picture for Paramount, will open at the Torrance theatre Sunday for a two days' run. This picture is winning instant success wherever it is shown and is reported to surpass in some respects the enjoyable love drama of college life, "Varsity," which opened Rogers' starring career.

Mary Helen, the leading lady of "Varsity" plays opposite the star again in this story of a magic story salesman who falls in love with a wealthy girl and turns his talents and attention to building up a failing girls' school. His efforts in this direction meet with success and he wins the girl as a result.

In "Varsity," the famous comedian, Chester Connally, had an important part and in "Someone to Love" Rogers has the support of two other well-known comedians, Jack Oakie, who won instant success with Clara Bow in "The Flamingo" and William Austin, the comic character "Fenchester" James Keenan, the dramatic actor who cost in this production.

Johnson Is Jailed For Non-Support of Wife's Complaint. Mrs. Lillian Johnson of Lemont, Cal., is a patient in the Los Angeles hospital.

COLLISION ARREST. A collision between a truck and a car on the Los Angeles boulevard resulted in the arrest of the driver of the truck.
