GEORGE WASHINGTON was a very careful buyer of personal things as is shown by a notation on the reverse side of an order sent to London, which read:

"On the other side is an invoice of clothes which I beg the favor of you to purchase for me," he wrote his nephew. "As they are designed for wearing apparel for myself, I have committed the choice of them to your fancy, having the best opinion of your taste. I want neither lace nor embroidery. Plain clothes, with gold or silver (if worn in genteel dress) are all I desire."

"Do not conceive," he told his nephew in 1783, "that fine clothes make fine men more than fine feathers make fine birds. A plain genteel dress is more admired, and obtains more credit than lace and embroidery, in the Eyes of the judicious and sensible."

HENCE THE MERCHANTS OF TORRANCE OFFER THESE SUPER-VALUES, WHICH MEAN A GREAT SAVING TO YOU . . . THE LAST TWO DAYS OF EACH WEEK.
