The good lines of this house show what can be done on a narrow lot when the house is properly designed.
The "box" type house one associates with the narrow lot is not a necessity.
The arrangement of the floor plans shown herewith will appeal to the housewife, the layout is complete, compact and livable and the attached garage is an added feature as is also the large wardrobe space over it.
A cellar extends under the main portion of the house.
The treatment of the chimney, the brick trim of the front and the entrance door all add much to the artistic effect, and but little to the cost.
The complete work plans and specifications of this house are available for a nominal sum from the Building Editor. Refer to House A-164.
