

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Dolley and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levy attended the performance of "Dracula" in Los Angeles Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Neelands left this morning for their cabin at Big Bear, where they will remain until Sunday.

SAVE WITH SAFETY AT THE JEXALL STORE

New Comfort—New Protection

Gauzets Box of One Dozen 49c

Two exclusive Gauzets features guarantee you more comfort and protection than you ever received from a sanitary napkin before.

Buffed edges prevent irritation. Underlayer protects clothing. Aren't these worth a few cents more?

Sold only at

Dolley Drug Co. El Prado and Sartori Ave.

The Jexall Store

WALTERIA NEWS

The Walteria P.T.A. members met in regular session Tuesday afternoon. The following officers for the coming year were elected: Mrs. R. E. Lesley, president; Mrs. John Young, vice president; Mrs. O. B. Hamilton, recording secretary; Mrs. P. G. Lassen, treasurer; Mrs. R. B. Sage, financial secretary; Miss Jessie Lewis, art supervisor of the Los Angeles city schools, talked on "Art in the Home." It was a very interesting subject and very ably presented by the members. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. O. B. Hamilton and Mrs. A. Flint.

The Rangers of Walteria enjoyed a hike to the beach Tuesday through the Palms Verdes Hills accompanied by S. M. Jessup, head of the boys' clubs in Los Angeles. They took their lunches and made a day of it. They made an enthusiastic report of the trip and their appreciation of their guides.

Little Miss Bettie Ann Young celebrated her sixth birthday at a party given in her honor by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Young at their home on Park street Saturday. The dining room and table were beautifully decorated in pink and blue with a birthday cake bearing six candles as center pieces after they had enjoyed an afternoon playing games. The cake was cut and served with ice cream to Misses Margaret, Mary Jane and Joan Smith, Vivian and Loraine Thurman, Joyce McKinley, Bettie Sullivan, Dorothy and Margie Crowe, Audrey Mangus, Florence Conze, Florence Bryan, Clara Bingham, Gertrude Hymensen, Arlene Lupin, Akiko Kato of Walteria; Evelyn Young of Lomita; David Smith, Pat Huffine and Jackie Large of Walteria and Bud and Bob Young of Torrance.

P. G. Bennett, president of the Walteria Chamber of Commerce wishes to announce that Mr. Lawrence Overman, representative of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company will speak on a matter of vital importance to this community and urges everyone to attend the next meeting, Thursday, June 6.

A regular orgy of auto accidents occurred in Walteria the last of the week. No one was hurt but two Mexicans, quite intoxicated, were arrested by the local policeman, P. G. Bennett and haled into court in Torrance.

Mrs. C. S. Edmondson of Park street who has spent the past week visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Cadwell Mrs. C. F. Walker and family of Van Nuys, Miss Clara Upp of Des Moines, Ia., and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Edmondson of Walteria.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mangus and Mr. and Mrs. D. Getchel and George and John Fuller of Portland, Ore., spent the weekend at Mt. Baldy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bennett and son of San Pedro were Sunday visitors at the home of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Bennett of Nece avenue.

Mrs. Eva Kelley of Park street, left Sunday for Central, New Mexico, where she will join her brother, Dr. D. H. Williams on a motor trip to Dallas and Houston, Texas. She will visit her step daughter Mrs. J. H. Laing in the latter city. She expects to be gone two weeks.

The Edison company have set poles for the overhead lights in the unlighted districts of Walteria where most needed. This action was granted quite a few weeks ago by the Torrance city council.

A new school orchestra for the following term has been organized. The pupils are Loraine Jones, bells; Akiko Kato, piano; Tony Martinez, cornet; Mary Kean, Kathryn Lupin, Laverne Sullivan, Charles Conze, Johnny Osborne, Kyoto Wagon, Ernest Roberts, violin; Orin McGhan, trombone; Eugene Andrews, Raymond McLain, Wayne Cox, trumpet; W. L. Hadler of Torrance is the director.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tremaine and Mr. and Mrs. T. Buckingham of Nece avenue left on Wednesday for Big Bear Lake where they spent several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crowthers of Park street gave a farewell party in honor of R. T. Vorhis of Redondo boulevard who is leaving for Hammond Port, New York, to make his future home. The evening was spent in dancing. At a late hour luncheon was served by the hostesses to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. J. Crowthers, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Burton, Miss Birdie Crowthers, Don Cox and H. Deering.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Crowthers and children spent Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Popper of Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rudd and children and Mrs. Ray Sullivan and children were visitors in Long Beach Monday.

Mrs. S. D. Sexton and Kathleen of Park street accompanied by Neil Whitely and Raymond McLain spent Sunday afternoon at Cabrillo beach in San Pedro.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Breitfield of Hawthorne boulevard are the proud parents of a son born to them Friday at the Torrance hospital where the mother and baby are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blyden of Los Angeles were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lawrence of Redondo boulevard Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Goodrich of San Pedro were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crowthers of Park street Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Sanders and children attended the air part at Compton Sunday. Ida, Edward and Melton Follick of Los Angeles visited their sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. Joerg of Nece avenue Sunday.

Mrs. James Alexander of Salt Lake is visiting at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Potter of Hawthorne boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. McCluskey and Mrs. Laura Gauthier and Victor Bertrand of Los Angeles were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rudd of Nece avenue Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fenning of San Pedro were visitors at the home of his uncle and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Umeth of Nece avenue.

Mrs. Helen Hall of Olive View Sanitarium and daughter Dorothy of Los Angeles spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Adolph of Hawthorne boulevard.

Mrs. E. Sanders visited her brother Walter Payne Tuesday. He is confined in the Los Angeles county hospital with pneumonia.

Carol Thornton and mother, Mrs. Thornton, formerly of San Pedro have purchased a home on Madison street where they now reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sage and Billie Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Sage of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hay of San Pedro were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Sage of Madison street Sunday.

A. C. McLain of Madison street is suffering from neuritis in his left arm, but is better now.

Mrs. Guy Sage of Long Beach visited at the home of her niece Mrs. Geo. Coates of Redondo boulevard Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lehman of Madison street visited Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wieranch of Long Beach Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. Crowthers and Mrs. J. Crowthers spent Monday visiting their daughter and sisters Mrs. J. Popper of Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Crowthers and Mr. and Mrs. R. Sullivan visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bateman of Long Beach Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George McKinley and Joyce attended a dinner party in Los Angeles Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lehman, accompanied by their daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Art Hayes of San Bernardino, visited friends in Los Angeles Saturday evening.

KEYSTONE NOTES

The Senior High School Girl Reserves of Keystone, their leader, Mrs. George Koehler, and Mesdames Thomas A. Cowan, T. G. Cunningham and Mrs. Henry C. Wicheheart all motored on Monday evening to Triton Beach where they held a beach party. They report a very enjoyable evening.

George Nahmens of Carson street who is the custodian at Carson street school was one of the members of the janitors' engineering graduating class from the Frank Wiggins Trade school in Los Angeles on Saturday night which was held at the Chamber of Commerce building in Los Angeles. There were five hundred head janitors from the Los Angeles schools graduated at this time. At the banquet which was a feature of the graduating exercises many of the notables from the Board of Education were present including Mr. and Mrs. Bouelle. An orchestra composed of 40 pieces from the business department of the board of education gave many musical numbers during the evening and speeches concluded the program.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Tannehill of Dolores street were guests of friends in Riverside on Wednesday.

Mrs. Con Lyons, mother of Mrs. J. D. Tipton of Amelia street left on Monday for her home in Pocatello, Idaho, accompanied by another daughter, Mrs. Charles M. Baird of Los Angeles. Mrs. Lyons has been visiting in the south for the past three months.

Mabel Wicheheart, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Wicheheart of Amelia street celebrated her seventeenth birthday anniversary on Sunday with a chicken dinner party. Present were the Messrs. Pearl Bludorf and Vernon Osterman, and Arthur Clark of Southgate, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Goode of Willow street, and the honoree Mabel, her sister, Allene, brother Sylvester and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wicheheart.

Mrs. R. C. Whitson of Amelia street celebrated the eleventh birthday anniversary of her daughter Dixie on Friday with a birthday party. A beautiful birthday cake was served with other refreshments following the games which were enjoyed by Charlotte and Richard Tipton, Roland and Shelby Sampson, Thomas Cowan Jr., all of Keystone and Charlotte Larsen of San Pedro.

Ruth Nahmens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Nahmens of Carson street appeared Monday evening in a piano recital given by Mary Eliza Hoffman of San Pedro at the Y. W. C. A. building on Ninth street. Ruth, with Miss Helen Michaels, played "Hungarian Dance, No. 4" a duet for two pianos. Ruth was heard later in the evening playing two numbers, "Largo" (from the New World Symphony) and "Poupee Valseante," which showed considerable talent. Vocal numbers were sung as a closing number on the program by Mrs. Jean Colwell Houghton, soloist. Mrs. Houghton and Miss Hoffman also sang a duet very beautifully. Attending the recital from Keystone were Mr. and Mrs. George Nahmens and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Howe and family and Audree Roque.

Mr. and Mrs. George Koehler of Wilmington street motored on Sunday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Mosely in Encinitas and later in the day motored to Fall Brook.

Walter Phillips of Carson street left on Wednesday for Lake Elsinore where he will spend a two weeks' vacation.

Dental Clinic in Schools Is Aim

Executive Committee of P. T. A. Names Members to Get Data

W. M. Bell Jr. and Mrs. Nettie Steinhilber were appointed a committee to investigate the feasibility of establishing a dental clinic at the elementary school at a meeting of the executive board of the Elementary P. T. A. Tuesday afternoon.

At the regular meeting of the P. T. A. following the executive board meeting the officers for the ensuing year were elected. Mrs. J. E. Hitchcock, president; Mrs. W. M. Haydon, first vice president; Mrs. Charles Edward, second vice president; Mrs. R. E. Hodge, recording secretary; Mrs. J. Keenan, treasurer; Mrs. N. A. Leake, historian; Mrs. J. R. Jensen, auditor; Mrs. B. C. Condon, pianist; Mrs. J. F. Stone, parliamentary.

Mr. Bell announced that a candy sale would be held at the school next week to raise funds for the purchase of music for the Glee Clubs. This music is not included in the purchases of the school board.

The program was on thrift and consisted of the singing of thrift jingles by the pupils of Miss Holt's room; dialogue by David Clark and Dick Hutton; thrift songs by the pupils of Miss Murphy's room and a play, "We Learn to Live." The characters were Geraldine Maxwell, Mrs. Dollar; Jack Piper, Mr. Dollar; Penny, Audrey Harry; Nickle, Dorine Willets; Dime, Dick Clutter; Quarter, David Clark; Mrs. Thrift, Jean Peterson; Mrs. Spendthrift, Mildred Hitchcock.

The girls of the A6 grade held a fashion show in which they showed the new wash dresses that they had made.

Miss Pamela Tyler, assistant supervisor, division of school savings, told of the origin and growth of the school saving system which now has 63,000 depositors with deposits reaching $1,400,000. This system, instead of making money for the bank is really causing them to lose it, as each new deposit costs the bank $1.25, which goes to the budget for the maintenance of the system.

Lomita Pioneer Expires Monday

Mrs. Bengta Herlein Dies of Heart Failure at Lomita Home

Mrs. Bengta Herlein died Monday at her home at 3150 Pepper street. Death, caused by a heart seizure, followed an illness of only a few hours.

Bengta Larsen was born in Sweden 69 years ago. With her family of small children she came to the United States early in 1899, and in April of the same year was married at La Salle, Illinois, to John Herlein. The family came to Lomita in 1914 and have since lived at the Pepper street address.

Mrs. Herlein, an unassuming woman of lovable disposition, leaves many friends to mourn her passing.

Survivors are the widow, John Herlein three daughters, Miss Joanna Olesen of Lomita, Miss Molly Olesen of Hollywood; Mrs. Victor Rodin of Oglesby, Illinois; and one son, Lars Olesen of Lomita.

Mrs. Herlein's funeral was held Friday at 2 p. m. in Redondo Beach. Interment was at the Roosevelt Memorial Cemetery.

Sheet Metal Co. Opens on El Prado

G. and F. Schuske announce the opening of their new sheet metal plant at 1224 El Prado. It will be known as the Torrance Sheet Metal Works, and is equipped to do all kinds of sheet metal work.

Mrs. Crossmyer Is Taken by Death

Mrs. Julia Crossmyer, a resident of Torrance for seven years and widely known here as an active and popular member of the Order of the Eastern Star passed away Wednesday morning at the California Lutheran Hospital.

She was born Feb. 16, 1868 at Trenton, Ill. She is survived by her husband, Wilbert E. Crossmyer, 1548 Marcelan avenue. The funeral was held Friday morning from the Lutheran church. Burial was at the Angeles Abbey Mausoleum.

Mullin-Hayes Co. Purchase Former Haynes Lumber

Both Members of New Firm Experienced Lumbermen

Announcement was made this week of the purchase of the Haynes Lumber company by the Mullin-Hayes Lumber company, a new company formed to enter the lumber and building material business in Torrance.

While the Torrance company has just been organized, the members of the firm have given their lifetimes to the lumber and building trades. Arthur D. Hayes, who will be the active manager, for the past Six years has been in the retail and wholesale department of the L. W. Blinn Lumber company of Los Angeles. Previous to that time he was associated with the Mullin interests in Jerome, Arizona, for over seven years. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes and their two children, Jane and Jack expect to move to Torrance as soon as the school year is completed.

Photo by LaPlante. ARTHUR D. HAYES

Wayne Mullin, the other member of the firm, has conducted a lumber business in Los Angeles for the past ten years. His father, J. E. Mullin, is well known to the older residents of this district as a partner in the former Montgomery-Mullin Lumber Company. The Mullin family now have extensive lumber interests in the Southern California area.

The Mullin-Hayes Lumber company are now re-stocking and remodeling the former Haynes yard at 1723 Border avenue, and state that they will offer the building public a number one yard with a complete line of lumber and building material and supplies, including: builders hardware and nails, sash and doors, sheet metal, cement, plaster, lime, felt, wire, stucco, wallboard, roofing and roofing materials.

The new company are offering attractive prices on several overstocked items, such as dimension lumber and odd sizes of sash and doors.

Mrs. Rose Long and two daughters of Los Angeles, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis of Arizona street.

Mrs. Pat Donegan of Narbonne avenue wrenched her ankle while descending the stairs at the Community church Sunday morning.

Lomita Flower and Gift Shop

MRS. HELEN MONROE 1101 Narbonne Ave. "Say It With Flowers"

Are You Guilty?

Do you have stored away in the attic or basement articles that you no longer have use for? And do you know that there are people who want those very things if they only knew where to get them?

Why not list these stored-away items now in a wanted in this paper.

LIST YOUR WANTADS NOW—DON'T WAIT

OUR WANT ADS Bring Results—Quick!

Accident Insurance

One important form of accident insurance is automobile collision insurance which pays for the damage done to your car after the smash. By a new plan, we can give you the maximum of protection at the minimum cost.

Paul Vonderahe INSURANCE At 1911 Carson Just Phone 64 "My Policy Is Your Protection"

DINTELORUS THE CHEF

The Proof of the Pudding!

The proof of the pudding is in the eating, goes an old saying. Earl's Cafe will prove itself a superb place to eat long before you get to the pudding. "And when you taste the pudding, you will be more than convinced," says Bill O'Faro.

Mandarin Dishes Served from 5 p. m. Until 2 A. M.

Earl's Cafe and Coffee Shop

ALWAYS OPEN Seats 100 People 1625 Cabrillo Ave. PHONE 761

Feen-a-mint The Laxative You Chew Like Gum

No Taste But the Mint

Lomita Pioneer Expires Monday

Mrs. Bengta Herlein Dies of Heart Failure at Lomita Home

Mrs. Bengta Herlein died Monday at her home at 3150 Pepper street. Death, caused by a heart seizure, followed an illness of only a few hours.

Bengta Larsen was born in Sweden 69 years ago. With her family of small children she came to the United States early in 1899, and in April of the same year was married at La Salle, Illinois, to John Herlein. The family came to Lomita in 1914 and have since lived at the Pepper street address.

Mrs. Herlein, an unassuming woman of lovable disposition, leaves many friends to mourn her passing.

Survivors are the widow, John Herlein three daughters, Miss Joanna Olesen of Lomita, Miss Molly Olesen of Hollywood; Mrs. Victor Rodin of Oglesby, Illinois; and one son, Lars Olesen of Lomita.

Mrs. Herlein's funeral was held Friday at 2 p. m. in Redondo Beach. Interment was at the Roosevelt Memorial Cemetery.

Sheet Metal Co. Opens on El Prado

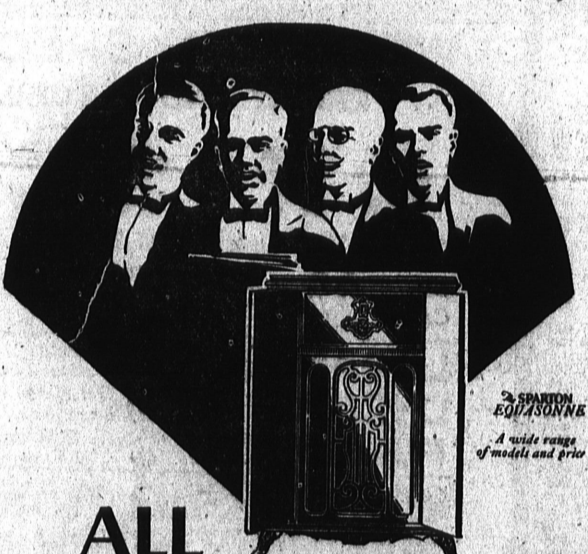

G. and F. Schuske announce the opening of their new sheet metal plant at 1224 El Prado. It will be known as the Torrance Sheet Metal Works, and is equipped to do all kinds of sheet metal work.

Mrs. Crossmyer Is Taken by Death

Mrs. Julia Crossmyer, a resident of Torrance for seven years and widely known here as an active and popular member of the Order of the Eastern Star passed away Wednesday morning at the California Lutheran Hospital.

She was born Feb. 16, 1868 at Trenton, Ill. She is survived by her husband, Wilbert E. Crossmyer, 1548 Marcelan avenue. The funeral was held Friday morning from the Lutheran church. Burial was at the Angeles Abbey Mausoleum.

DeBra Radio Co.

ALL who hear it MARVEL

Amazing is the absolute Tone Truth of the new Sparton EQUASONNE, but still more amazing is its tone completeness. All the rich overtones... all of everything that is in the original music is in this perfect reception as well. Hear the EQUASONNE and you, too, will marvel.

SPARTON RADIO

"The Pathfinder of the Air" Console Models $199.50 up Complete

DeBra Radio Co.

"EVERY CUSTOMER A FRIEND"

Post Avenue at Cravens

TORRANCE, CALIFORNIA

Telephone 370-W