TORRANCE GIRL WEDS AT SAN BERNARDINO

Miss Geneva Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holland of 938 Sartori avenue, and Harold King Jr., son of Mrs. E. P. King of San Bernardino, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock Saturday evening in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives.

Reverend P. A. Zeller of San Bernardino read the ceremony in a setting of banked seasonal flowers in the living room of the lovely Spanish home of the groom's brother, James E. King of San Bernardino, formerly of Torrance.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Oscar Carlson, cousin of the bride sang "Oh Promise Me."

The wedding party entered to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Hazel Bradshaw of Los Angeles, the bride on the arm of her father, who gave her away.

A piece of the bride was flown to the bride's home in a basket in the path of the wedding party. She was dressed in pale pink crepe de chene.

Little Claude Eugene Young, dressed in white satin, carried the ring on a tiny white satin pillow.

The bride wore lovely in a gown of embroidered white net over crepe, made with a tight bodice and bouffant skirt. A coronet of silver and white adorned her hair. She carried a shower bouquet of lily of the valley and maiden hair fern.

Mrs. William Burgener, matron

DR. BISHOP WEDS LOS ANGELES GIRL

Miss Edna Butterfield of Los Angeles and Dr. R. F. Bishop of this city, were united in marriage, Saturday, June 1st, at the St. James church in Wilshire boulevard in Los Angeles.

The bride was charmingly gowned in peach chiffon with pale blue picture hat and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

After the ceremony the guests proceeded to the Mary Helen Tea Room on Sunset boulevard in Hollywood for the wedding breakfast.

The guests at the wedding and breakfast included: Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bishop and son Cecil, Miss Anita Bishop, Mrs. Mabel Collett, Mrs. Mary Warner, Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Lind, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scott, Mr. George Probert, Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Heder, Miss Amy Sattler and Mrs. Allen.

Dr. and Mrs. Bishop left immediately by motor for San Francisco, Portland, Oregon, Billings, Montana, Yellowstone Park and Salt Lake City, Utah and will be at home to their many friends after July 1st, at the Sunset Court, Sartori avenue, Torrance.

LISONI-ZUVER WEDDING A SURPRISE

Coming as a surprise to their friends is the announcement of the wedding of Miss Loni Zuver to Mr. Louis Lisoni junior at 8 o'clock Monday evening at the home of Justice of Peace S. D. Patterson in Lomita.

Miss Mary Lisoni, sister of the groom and Mr. Elvin Neil attended the bride and groom.

The bride wore a blue taffeta frock with a hat of matching shade, and carried a bridal bouquet of roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaid wore white georgette.

Mrs. Lisoni is a graduate of Torrance High School, class of 1928. Both the bride and groom are employed at the Union Tool.

During the summer they plan to go on a belated honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lisoni will reside at the Ledy Homes.

MRS. LEONA ANDERSON IS GIVEN A SURPRISE

Friends and relatives of Mrs. Leona Anderson surprised her at her home at the Erwin hotel Monday afternoon to celebrate her birthday.

She was showered with armloads of beautiful gladiolus and sweet peas. Guests brought food for a huge dinner and presented Mrs. Anderson with a large cake.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mos of San Pedro, Mrs. Dan Clemmer and daughter Ione of Anaheim, and Mr. and Mrs. James Craig of Fullerton.

School Notes

HIGH SCHOOL

Home Economics Department will hold their annual fashion show in the patio at the high school Wednesday, June 12, from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m. The name that has been selected for the event is "Fiesta Del Patio" meaning festival of the patio.

Garments made by the students who have received a grade of A or B for the work will be modeled by the girls who made them.

Aprons will be on sale at the patio, and students of the cooking classes will sell jams and jellies.

Invitations to the affair have been designed by Joe Townsend.

After the show, there will be a program.

Several girls of Torrance high will attend the Girl Scout camp at Big Pines, the Los Angeles recreation camp in the San Bernardino mountains.

A camp here has been set aside for all Girl Scouts in the district. The Torrance American Legion has offered money prizes to the two girls who rank highest in their work for the year. This is to enable the girls to attend the camp.

Miss Cooper of U.S. C. is in direct charge of the camp, with counselors, a nurse and a dietitian under her.

Graduating seniors of T.H.S. received their senior hats last Friday. They are natty little yachting caps of red and gray, the school class colors, with $29 on the band.

Work on the new addition to be built at the high school this summer got under way May 27 and is expected to be finished for the beginning of the school term in the fall.

The wing will house the home economics and science departments. Art rooms will be located at the present science department rooms when they move to the new addition.

Ten students with the able assistance of Miss Mills, took charge of the Memorial Day program at Torrance High when they learned that the speaker that had been engaged could not come.

The program opened with a salute to the flag, followed by interesting readings and poems read in honor of those who "went west."

Mr. Wood gave a short talk, telling of the Rotary meeting that he'd just left. He spoke of the interesting speakers at the club, and mentioned in particular one old soldier who had fought in the Civil war.

Moving pictures showing the disabled veterans making poppies were shown, the pictures being loaned by the American Legion.

Interclass hard ball games are now being played as the finish of the athletic season draws to a close. Winners will be announced soon.

Richard Burr and Marion Minton are the contenders for the horse shoe championship of the high school, and will play it out sometime the first of next week.

Dale Howe attended the Southern California finals of the Junior Olympic Games in Los Angeles Saturday, and obtained the autograph of every celebrity present, including Douglas Fairbanks, Frank Woolf, Charlie Paddock, and others.

Baseball letters will be awarded in assembly some time next week. The final game of the season will be played with Gardena tomorrow on the local field.

Mrs. W. C. Darnell spent the latter part of last week at Mocking Bird Canyon.
