Fontana Maids Strive for Crown At Town's Birthday Circus Fete

Fontana's comely Fontana girls—these samples are shown above—have entered the race for the crown that is annually bestowed on the most popular maid during the birthday celebration of the community. This year the celebration has been extended over three days, June 6, 7 and 8. Many entertainment features have been planned for the three days which will culminate in the crowning of the queen. The proceeds of the fiesta and circus will be used for the completion of Fontana's new community swimming pool.

"Desert Song," in Song and Sound Shows Here Two Days

In no other picture has there been so convincing a demonstration of the possibilities of the Vitaphone as in "The Desert Song," which comes to the Torrance Theatre on Sunday and Monday, and which will go down in screen history as the first musical play to be transferred in its entirety to the motion picture screen. "Other 'all-talking' pictures had already been made by Warner Brothers, and also many which included singing, but when they undertook the production of "The Desert Song" they were confronted with a new problem—the inclusion of a large chorus for the ensemble numbers, with its members grouped all over the settings which constituted the scenes of the play. How well they met this situation is indicated by the fact that the chorus consists of one hundred men and women, and that they bring to the screen's first opera, the most glorious ensemble work ever heard in America. Many of the singers were soloists who had never before worked in chorus, or who had graduated from that estate into principal parts, and so great was the number of those that the ensemble of "The Desert Song" might almost be described as a chorus of principals. Sigmund Romberg's fitting music is played by the Vitaphone Symphony Orchestra. The all-star cast includes John Bole, Carlotta King, Louise Fazenda, Johnny Arthur, John Millan, Myrna Loy, Jack Pratt, Marie Wells, Edward Martindel, Robert E. Gorman, and many others, and was produced under the direction of Roy Del Ruth. Harvey Gates adapted the book of the opera to the screen. The desert scenes are exceptionally beautiful. In order to accommodate the crowds waiting to see this outstanding sound picture, arrangements have been made to give continuous performances beginning at 2 o'clock Sunday and Monday.

Rippy Sentences Peace Disturber

Rippy Monday morning and charged with disturbing the peace, for which he received a fine of $100 or 180 days in the county jail, plus 5 days in jail.
