Thanks, Col. Forbes!

The following lyric on the change of editorship of the Torrance Herald and Lomita News was submitted by Col. J. E. Forbes, popular station operator, at the corner of Carson and El Prado:

I see our home town paper At last has made a change, And Grover Whyte now owns it Both stock and fence and range.

I hope he ropes some maverick With a different line of news, That knows the art of going out And getting real live news.

Don't give us silly stories, Let's forget about the war; Of society and home town golf I think you go too far.

Let's have some real home town news That has a real live kick; Forget about Nebraska and The famous Iowa hick.

Fill up your inside pages, Put the ads all in the back, Let's have a sure nuff paper, Show us all you have the tact.

Go out along the highways, Don't let a thing get by, You can sure fill up the paper If they go right out and try.

Put in a little fiction; Make it sound just like real news; Interview the whole blamed country From the Irish to the Jews.

Bring on a great sensation, This is what we like to read; Show these other small town papers That Torrance has the speed.

So put out a real live paper, One that sure has plenty pep; And we'll all stick with you Grover, And you soon will have a rep.

Editor's Note:— You got the spirit, Colonel, And we like your line of verse. Let's rejuvenate the dead ones, Then go and burn the hearses.

—COL. J. E. FORBES.
