Greater Movietone Season

LEWIS STONE PLAYS HERE SUN. & MON.

"Wonder of Women" is Another M-G-M Triumph in Dialogue and Sound Showing in Torrance Aug. 25-26. Lewis Stone, famous in "Madame X", "The Trial of Mary Dugan," and other outstanding play successes, enacts a German musical composer in his latest role, in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Wonder of Women," which comes Sunday and Monday, August 25 and 26 to the Torrance theatre, with dialogue and sound. It is a Clarence Brown production, based on Hermann Sudermann's "The Wife of Stephen Tromholt," with Stone, Peggy Wood, the New York stage star, Lella Hyams, Harry Myers, George Fawcett, Sarah Padden and others of note in the cast. Stone speaks and sings in the picture—and it is said, that the last time he spoke German was in France, when as a major in the American army, he interviewed prisoners. Other outstanding all-talking pictures are on the bill for next week.

At Fox Hermosa

The Fox Hermosa theatre is serving a delicious entertainment dish to celebrate its participating next week in the Greater Movietone Season. Friday, August 23, the Fox Hermosa brings Nita Asther with Rob Hoper, veteran heavyweight, in eight scenes of "The Single Standard" a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer feature. Other stars in this picture are Greta Garbo and Johnny Mack Brown. Sue Carol flashes on the screen in the opening sequence of "The Hatted Flapper," her latest Fox Films picture coming to the Fox Hermosa on Sunday and Monday, Aug. 25 and 26. Three-year-old Davey Lee was the first player to be chosen for Al Johnson's second super-special, "The Singing Fool" coming to the Fox Hermosa theatre on Tuesday, Wednesday, August 27 and 28. In this selection Master David triumphed over one hundred and eighty screen children who were being considered by Warner Bros. for the part. On Saturday, August 31st, Raymond Griffith, the inimitable silk hatted comedian who, after a two-year retirement, is returning to the screen as super-detective in Fox films "Irene's Last Case," showing at the Fox Hermosa for the one day only. Others in the cast are Raymond Hatten, Marceline Day, Donald Crisp and Nicholas Soussanin.

At Fox Redondo

Every effort has been made to make the coming week a banner one at the Fox Redondo theatre, which has brought several exceptional sound pictures for the second week of the Greater Movietone Season. "No girl should be permitted to marry before she is 35 years old," is the opinion of Ruth Chatterton, star of Paramount's talking picture, "The Sign of the Cross," which is booked at the Fox Redondo for Friday and Saturday, August 23 and 24. On Sunday, Aug. 25, the Fox Redondo shows "Protection," directed by Benjamin Stoloff, famous di-
