VISIT BEACHES
Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCulloch and their niece, Miss Agnes McLeod of Alhambra, drove to Newport and Balboa Sunday, returning for dinner to the Christie apartment, 1417 Marcellina.

B. C. Higginson, Santa Fe agent in Torrance, writes us from New York where he is vacationing. He says the East is very nice, but that he has seen nothing as yet that beats California.

HOSPITAL NOTES
Mrs. Mary Richardson, 1814 Cabrillo, entered the hospital this week.
Births: to Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Harris, R. R. No. 1, Lomita, a baby girl, August 28. To Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson, 716 Amapota avenue, a boy, August 27.
Mrs. May McKinley and son Forrest were guests of Mrs. McKinley's sister, Mrs. Fred Bowen, in Alhambra Monday.

SOCIETY

Women's Club Charming For Big Double Wedding

The Women's Clubhouse was the scene of an impressively beautiful double ceremony last Saturday evening when Miss Helen Ellizabeth Reeve of Torrance became the bride of Leon E. Broce of Los Angeles and Miss Elinor E. Lamb of Los Angeles the bride of Walter Scott Ahlbrandt also of Los Angeles. Rev. B. H. Lingenfelter, former pastor of the First Christian church, was officiant.

Tall palms, ferns and potted begonias made a beautiful background for the improvised altar, which was outlined by baskets of flowers, palms and lighted candles in tall candelabra. Green-entwined standards bearing clusters of garden flowers marked the center aisle.

The brides wore gowns of white satin and Irish brocade; their veils of tulle were caught with tiaras of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquets were of white roses and sweet peas. Miss Reeve was given in marriage by her father, Herman E. Reeve, and Miss Lamb by her uncle, Ralph R. Howe.

Miss Katherine Wyatt was maid of honor for Miss Lamb. Both wore décolleté gowns of white tulle and carried pink roses.

The bridesmaids wore chiffon voile and tulle, with bandeaus of tulle and ribbons. They carried sweet peas of matching shades. Miss Loden Banks, in orchid, Miss Beulah Vincent, in yellow, Miss Dorothy Coleburn, in green, attended Miss Reeve, and Miss Lamb's bridesmaids were Miss Phoebe Harshaw, in peach, Miss Mildred Lawrence, in blue and Miss Bernice Barker, in peach and blue.

The dainty little flower girls were Jean Howe and Jane Harshaw. They were attired in pink organdy and scattered rose petals in the path of the bride couples.

Dewey Wyatt acted as best man for Mr. Broce and Charles Burkensfield performed that office for Mr. Ahlbrandt. The ushers for the Reeve-Broce party were Edgar Reeve, Lester Coleburn and Alex Burkensfield, and for the Lamb-Ahlbrandt party, Jack Reeve, Robert Harshaw and W. E. Vincent.

Proceeding the ceremony, "One, Alone," and "All for You," were festively rendered by G. F. Trusey of Venice. Miss Nyla Tansey played the wedding march. Ray Berge acted as master of ceremonies and the hostesses were Miss Marie Steinback of San Francisco, Miss Mildred Morrison of Pasadena and Miss Lucy Harshaw.

Mrs. Broce is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Huron E. Reeve, pioneer residents of Torrance, and Mr. Broce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Broce, 228 West 98th street, Los Angeles. They will make their home at 2940 Ohio street, Southgate. The groom's father, incidentally, is the inventor of the Motor X-ray machine.

Mr. and Mrs. Ahlbrandt will reside for the time being with Mr. Ahlbrandt's mother, Mrs. Amy J. Ahlbrandt, 6311 Long street, Los Angeles. Both couples plan a belated honeymoon to Canada, after January 1.

Invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. Will Reeve, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Turner, Mrs. Lucy Reeve, Mr. and Mrs. Thelma Reeve, Mrs. Jack Reeve, Mr. and Mrs. William Leetz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vonderheide, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCormiskey, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Doley, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Theobald, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Millburn, Miss Lonia Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tansey, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stone, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Greiner, Mr. and Mrs. Al Harder, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Paxman, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Roberts, Mrs. B. H. Lingenfelter, Misses Ruth and Martha Lingenfelter, Mrs. R. R. Howe, Homer and Dale Howe, Dr. Minnie Proctor and indigestant, Mrs. Nettie Steinhilber, Frank Steinhilber, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levy, Mrs. Caroline Collins, Mrs. George D. Watson, Miss Caroline Stroth, Joseph Bradshaw, Richard Darling, Moe Reedy, Hans March of Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLeod, El Segundo; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Comstock, Mrs. M. C. Harshaw, Mrs. Edna K. Lynne, Lomita; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Peave, Redondo Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Otis Chandler, Moneta; Mrs. G. P. Price, Venice; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Whittier, Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Broce, El Segundo; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kalb, William E. Vincent, Hollywood; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gay, Inglewood; Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bean, Beverly Hills; Mrs. Joseph Broce, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gero, Mrs. Scott Ahlbrandt, Mrs. Lamb, Mrs. Lillian Westfall, Harvey Westfall, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parker, Mr. and Mrs. John Davis and houseguest, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lutkeneyer and daughter, Mrs. Mildred Corliss, William Cornell of Los Angeles.

At the reception following the ceremony, refreshments were served to over 50 guests, and the beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut by the brides and presented to the guests.

LOVELY WEDDING AT QUANDT HOME
In a lovely outdoor setting, Miss Edith Evelyn Quandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quandt, became the bride of Mr. George Philip Thatcher of Los Angeles, at 8:30 Sunday morning at the home of the bride's parents in South Torrance.

Tall shrubs in the corner of the garden formed an impressive background, and a miniature white fence, ornate with ferns and greenery, made an enchanted garden of the enclosure thus formed. An aisle, on either side of which the guests were seated, led to a double gate.

Proceeding the ceremony, Grace Davenport Walper of Altadena sang "Sweet Mystery of Life" and "I Love You Truly."

At the first strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Carl Quandt, the ushers, Mr. Carl Quandt and Mr. Louis Quandt, came down the aisle and opened the tiny gates for the bridal party to pass through.

The bride chose a sheer chiffon gown in the traditional white, made with a fitted bodice and long fitted sleeves. The skirt was three tiered and reached the knees in front and the ankles in back. Her hair was encircled with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lily of the valley. Mrs. Charles Quandt, mother of the bride, was her matron of honor, and wore a tulle gown in a soft rose shade. She carried rose sweet peas and maiden hair fern tied with rose tulle.

The next meeting of the organization will be held at the Seckler home on Sun street.

BENEFIT DANCE FRIDAY, SEPT. 13
Torrance Women's club is the setting that has been chosen for the dance to be given by the Torrance Memorial Hospital Association Friday evening, September 13.

The dance is being given for the purpose of buying a new radio set for the hospital. Every room has a head set connection to the radio which is installed in the office, and as the present set is antiquated a new one is much needed.

On the floor and music committee for the dance are Sam Levy, Chas. Curtis, R. J. Deining and Harry Doley. Publicity and advertising are being taken care of by Harold Kingsley, Don Findley and W. E. Partridge. On the punch committee are George Peckham, L. G. Barkidull and Mike Fix.

Ticket sales are being promoted by the Torrance Police department, Torrance O. E. S., A. L. Bond, William Gascoigne, Alfred Gouder and W. E. Huddleston.

Patronesses for the dance are Mrs. Jared Sidney Torrance, Mrs. Brian K. Welch, Mrs. J. S. Lancaster, Mrs. A. P. Stevenson, Mrs. George Nell, Mrs. R. R. Smith, Mrs. J. W. Ford, Mrs. George P. Shidler, Mrs. L. G. Torrance, Mrs. Katherine Peachy, Mrs. Harold Kingsley, Mrs. Florence Welch, Miss Esther Maxwell, Mrs. Isabel T. Henderson, Mrs. Sarah Oimstead, Mrs. Laura Post, Mrs. Frank Sammons, Mrs. Jeanie G. Welch, Mrs. Jeannette Woodburn, Mrs. Torrance G. Welch, Mrs. Susie Conner and Mrs. Helena C. Notmeyer.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER
Mrs. Fred Gilson entertained with a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. John Stroth, Tuesday evening at her home on Plaza Del Amo.
