direction of Mr. Waddingham, the science teacher. These officers were elected: President, Toshlake Stinson; vice president, Fred Myers; secretary-treasurer, Harold Stevenson.

There must have been some special attraction in Long Beach for Bill Barnes and Charles Falkner Friday evening, because they didn't stay with the seniors who went to the theatre.

The Gloom Chasers had a merry time last Wednesday at the home of Ethel Ward.

Dorothy Wacker was a visitor at the school last Tuesday. She has now completed four months of training for a nurse at the General hospital.

Among the scriptural citations were verses from the first chapter of Genesis, as follows: "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth."

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" presented these words of Mary Baker Eddy: "The Scriptures inform us that man is made in the image and likeness of God. Matter is not that likeness. The likeness of Spirit cannot be an unlike Spirit. Man is spiritual and perfect, he must be so understood in Christian Science."

HI SCHOOL HI LIGHTS

By MURIEL BELL. The girls in the glee club always get hungry during their glee club period. Because that is just before midnight they must find a way to get together after this period and decided to have a picnic the next day.

The men who were working in the new cafeteria last week were entertained by Miss Lingenfelter who came into the new building singing joyfully about the "last of these too many times."

The senior girls have won the interclass championship in basketball. All the class teams played hard, but the team determination of the seniors couldn't be beaten.

Jack Hendricks, a former student of the high school came back Friday for a little visit. When Jack was here before he was usually in some mischief and the time-keeper of a gang of boys.

Probably the boys of the winter class were as determined to win as the girls, because they also won the interclass championship in basketball.

A new club was organized under the direction of Mr. Waddingham, the science teacher.

A Northern Type With a Roomy Second Floor

THE ARDILA—DESIGN A630

BUNGALOWS with second floors are becoming increasingly popular in the North and East as some very attractive adaptations of the California types have been evolved and built at little more cost and with a distinct advantage in living room. This one has the usual first floor layout of the smaller types, but on the second floor...
