BLUES TAKE REVENGE ON PACIFIC CREW

Shut Out Champs in Dazzling Exhibition at Hollis Field Sunday

Torrance took a sweet revenge for the 3 to 2 defeat handed to them a week ago by the Pacific Steamship's champion team, when they shut out the Steamboats on their own grounds at Hollis Field, San Pedro, on Sunday, by a score of 3 to 0. And all this at the expense of Mr. J. Marti, former Hollywood pitching ace. Marti was in trouble in the very first inning, when he hit Frenchie in the back with a fast ball that went wide. Frenchie went to second on Wolfe's spanking single, and both men advanced on a sacrifice by Young. Goodman was called out on strikes, but Perez let the third one get away from him and it rolled to the backstop while Frenchie sprinted for the plate. Pearl slammed one to the outfield for three bases scoring Wolfe. Ducazzau was out to Ruttman at first. Two hits, two runs.

The Blues' third run came in their half of the second inning. Atwood flied out to left field. Goldman singled and stole second. Oswald struck out. Frenchie was passed and likewise Wolfe. Young helped out with his second blow of the day, his hit going safe, scoring Goldman. Goodman hit a long fly to center, retiring the side. Two hits one run.

Marti was relieved at the close of the fourth inning by Joe Storti, who held the Blues to three scattered hits and no more runs. Extra base knocks were scarce on both sides, only one man on each team getting more than a single, and flashy fielding robbed batsmen of hits time after time. With Mazzio perching on third after his long fly to deep center, Atwood stabbed a slicing liner from Joe Storti for an out, holding the Pacific shortstop on third. Blenkiron was passed and Hubbel hit to short and was thrown out at first. Johnny Ducazzau got a hand from the bleachers on his one-handed, running retrieve of Hubbel's rifle-shot hit in the fifth. With two men on base Hubbel's hit would have turned in some scores, but for Johnny. Pearl, at third, also made a great one-handed stop of Menzies' drive in the eighth.

Perfect fielding on the part of both teams made this game a pretty one to watch, said to be the best game played on Hollis field this year.

Oswald, pitching for the Blues, went the entire route in good shape and was not in serious trouble at any stage of the game. Two hits were all that the Steamship men could claim off the Torrance twirler, who pitched a smart steady game.

Baseball Sunday

On Sunday, Dec. 3, the Torrance Blues will go to Hollis field.

San Pedro, for the third game of their series with the Pacific Steamship champion team. Torrance lost to the champs on November 24, but shut them out in the return game last Sunday on their home grounds, with every man on both teams displaying stellar ability.

Next Sunday will see them primed for a whale of a battle. Torrance fans who wish to see this game will find Hollis field located at the left of the highway entering San Pedro where it turns east at the foot of Pacific avenue near the drydocks.
