TORRANCE HIGH

High school students will be privileged to hear the Cotton Blossom singers at a special aud call tomorrow. This program is to be presented through the courtesy of Rev. R. A. Young and the Kiwanis club. The Cotton Blossom singers will be guests of the Kiwanis club at luncheon tomorrow noon.

Mr. H. S. Wood attended the Marine League luncheon held at Narbonne high school Tuesday noon. Basketball cups were awarded and other business important to the league was transacted. The new codification of all rules and regulations of the Los Angeles city athletic leagues was discussed.

The Girls' Athletic Association held their regular meeting Monday at 1:15 in the gymnasium.

At the Key club luncheon Tuesday, the club talked about sponsoring a movement among the students for better study habits.

Aud call Tuesday was under the auspices of Coach Sig Nylander and the Varsity club.

L. E. Austin was the speaker at the Boys' League meeting Wednesday. He talked about the opportunities for young men in the automotive lines.

It is planned that a faculty member or some outside speaker will give a vocational talk at each meeting.

The annual football-basketball banquet was held last night in the school cafeteria.

CHILDREN GET STREETS

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia. (UP)—The city council, acting on motion of Commissioner Starman, has set aside four streets for children of the city to use for coasting. The streets will be closed to traffic and will be used exclusively for youngsters as coasting hills.

This Week We Feature
Our Nationally Advertised
PORCH
FROCKS

$1.79

This year our Porch Frock Event is of special significance to every woman, for in addition to their utility around the home, the styles and fabrics are so smart and new as to make these frocks appropriate for almost any occasion. Thrifty-wise women will be seen wearing them to market, to the country club and to parties, all Summer long.

You may choose from many patterns and designs—each one absolutely fast color—neither soap nor brilliant sunshine will dim their fresh beauty. Seams are closely stitched and hems turned and finished—not basted. And their generous length follows the line of all smart new dresses—well below the knee.

Party frock . . . porch
ensemble . . . ALL IN ONE

Choose the porch frock you like best. Make a bright little jacket to wear with it—we have many pretty prints very reasonably priced. Then with a clever little hat and a pair of our 98c full-fashioned silk hose, your costume is complete and it costs much less than you have often paid for a dress alone.

KEYSTONE NOTES

John Russell of Figueroa street is now employed at the Livermore Water Company in Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Leavers of Los Angeles were guests on Sunday of their son J. E. Leavers and family of Figueroa street.

An interesting program in celebration of Founders' Day of the Congress of Parents and Teachers has been arranged by Mrs. Charles M. Forrest, president of the Carson street Parent Teacher Association for the local association on Tuesday, Feb. 18. The party will be held in the kindergarten room at the school at 2 o'clock and every member and friend will be welcomed. A tea will follow the program.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Con Lyons of Pocatello, Idaho, mother of Mrs. J. D. Tipton of Amelia street. Mrs. Tipton left for Idaho several weeks ago following the receipt of the news of the serious illness of her mother, and was with her at the time of her death. Mrs. Tipton has made several trips to Idaho within the past year and a half, owing to illness in her mother's family and during that time has lost her sister and mother. The sympathy and understanding of neighbors and friends of both Mr. and Mrs. Tipton have gone out to them during this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Elle LeBlanc and son Elle Jr., of Figueroa street were guests recently of Mrs. LeBlanc's mother, Mrs. L. Milliron in Gloria Gardens, on the occasion of Mrs. Milliron's birthday. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Krizan of Terminal Island and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Harris of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sampson of Amelia street were hosts at a farewell party on Sunday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dotzauer and three children of Howard, South Dakota, who have been visitors in Southern California for the winter months and will leave this week for their home. Others present at this farewell dinner party were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dotzauer and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dotzauer and baby Virginia of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Inglett of Lynwood, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Eyres and daughter Darlene of Sioux City, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. Sampson, the hosts, and three children. Another event was also celebrated at this time. Little Heverly Jane Sampson's first birthday was the occasion of much merriment. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sampson who were hosts of the evening.

A joint meeting of the senior and junior group of Girl Reserves and their leaders, Mrs. George H. Koehler and Miss Margaret Brooks, respectively, is scheduled for Monday evening, Feb. 17 at the home of Miss Marjorie Sault on Amelia street. Plans for the presenting of a play in the near future will be the main subject of the evening of the two groups.

Miss Geneva and Gwynell Baldwin of Long Beach were weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Tannehill on Dolores street.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Koehler of Wilmington street and Mrs. Vaughn Kaplanian of Los Angeles motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Loustalot in Puente on Sunday.

WHAT THE GIRLS LIKE

PINDLAY, Ohio (UP)—Boys who dress neatly, are athletic, honor their parents and are not addicted to promiscuous necking are the ideals which Findlay college co-eds are seeking, according to the results of a recent survey made by Miss Martha Lucy, president of the Y.W.C.A.
