PRIZE HOUSE-ARMING PARTY

Girls from the Hawthorne Telephone exchange surprised Mr. and D. W. Pearson Tuesday evening when they dropped in for a warming at the Pearson's home on Beech avenue. Cards furnished the diversion of the evening.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Perry of Hawthorne, Mr. and Mrs. L. Geery, Ruby and Ruth Geery and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Geery of Redondo Beach, Miss Fannie Clark, Mrs. Lillian Rountree, Mrs. Kennedy, Miss Dorothy Geary, Mrs. Norman, Mrs. Green and Mrs. G. Danford.

MRS. GEO. SIMPSON HONORS VISITORS

Jointly honoring Mrs. Amy Bodell of Bluefield, West Virginia, and Mrs. John Wynn of Ventura, who are houseguests of Mrs. May McKinley, Mrs. George Simpson entertained with a lovely bridge breakfast at her home Wednesday.

The Simpson home was profusely decorated with masses of joyfully yellow acacia blossoms, and yellow was the color theme used in decorating the tables.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. May McKinley with second to Mrs. Harry Alcorn and consolation to Mrs. R. R. Smith.

Present were Mrs. Marshall Galimore, Mrs. W. C. Andrus, Mrs. Frank Mineck, Mrs. May McKinley, Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. R. R. Smith, Mrs. Harry Alcorn, Mrs. P. L. Parks, Mrs. A. W. Johnson, Mrs. L. L. Fordice, Mrs. W. Fred Bowen of Los Angeles, the two honored guests, Mrs. Bodell and Mrs. Wynn, and the hostess, Mrs. George Simpson.

MRS. LESLIE IS HOSTESS

Mrs. Ray Leslie was hostess to her bridge club yesterday when she entertained with an attractive bridge luncheon at her home on Arlington avenue.

Green formed the color motif for the luncheon tables and was carried out in the green dishes, glassware and favors.

Honors for high score at bridge were captured by Mrs. George Probert, and consolation to Mrs. L. G. Danford.

Present were Mrs. R. E. Budge, Mrs. Ellis Harder, Mrs. H. M. Haynes, Mrs. Scott Ludlow, Mrs. George Probert, Mrs. Clara McCormick, Mrs. Luther Pierce, Mrs. I. G. Danford, Mrs. A. P. Stevenson, all of Hawthorne.

son, Mrs. O. E. Fossum, Mrs. Leta Larsen of Wilmington and the hostess, Mrs. Ray Leslie.

ROTARY ANNS MEET WITH MRS. MURRAY

Mrs. E. C. Nelson and Mrs. Len Murray were co-hostesses Tuesday evening when they entertained the Rotary Anns at the Murray residence on Anapola avenue.

Following the usual business meeting, five tables of guests enjoyed an evening of bridge. Honors for high score were awarded to Mrs. Don Baxter.

MRS. MCKINLEY GIVES TWO DELIGHTFUL PARTIES

Mrs. May McKinley was hostess at two delightful parties given at McKinley Inn last Thursday in honor of her houseguests, Mrs. Amy Bodell of Bluefield, West Virginia and Mrs. John Wynn of Ventura.

The first was a charming and attractively appointed bridge luncheon. Decorations followed the St. Patrick motif, with shamrocks and greenery about the luncheon tables and clay miniatures as favors. Bowls of spring flowers formed the floral motif.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. John Wynn, second to Mrs. J. O. Moore and consolation to Mrs. John Dennis.

Present were Mrs. Wynn and Mrs. Bodell, guests of honor, Mrs. W. H. Stanger, Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mrs. L. Fordice, Mrs. R. R. Smith, Mrs. A. W. Meiner, Mrs. George Simpson, Mrs. John Dennis, Mrs. Paul Kasper, Mrs. A. W. Johnson, Mrs. O. W. Hudson, Mrs. V. L. Maxwell, Mrs. P. B. Dilley, Mrs. W. C. Dolley and the hostess, Mrs. May McKinley.

In the evening, Mrs. McKinley's houseguests were again honored guests at an evening of bridge. Green prevailed in the decorations and in the menu of the two courses night.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. John Wynn and Mr. Joe Stone, with consolation awards to Mrs. Joe Stone and Mr. J. H. Pegg.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pegg, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stone, Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Fossum, Mrs. Francis Johnson, Mr. Jerry Roovart, Mrs. John Wynn, Mrs. Amy Bodell and the hostess, Mrs. May McKinley.

GIRLS WILL HAVE SILVER TEA

Mrs. E. N. Tomkins' Sunday school class of girls will be hostesses at a silver tea on Monday afternoon, March 17, at 2:30.

The tea will be given at the First Methodist church.

Spring flowers were used attractively about the house, and St. Patrick's decorations, with amusing Irish favors, decorated the luncheon tables. A two-course supper was served at midnight.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Dewey Quigley and Mr. Charles Vonderahe, second to Mrs. R. F. Bishop and Mr. W. C. Darnell; consolation to Mrs. Roland Sanderhoff and Mr. D. A. Murphy.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Roland Sanderhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Quigley, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vonderahe, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Darnell, Mr. and Mrs. James Scott, Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Murphy and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schlick.

DINNER AND BIRTHDAY PARTY

The birthday of Mr. Clay Suttle was the occasion for a dinner and birthday party given by Mrs. Suttle at their home on Redondo boulevard Sunday evening.

Shamrocks and Irish emblems decorated the dinner table, which was centered by a birthday cake decorated in green and lighted by green candles. Tall green tapers in nests of green crepe paper were used by the hostess to light the table.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Masterson of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. William A. McKee of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. B. Suttle, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Suttle, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Green and Mr. and Mrs. Clay Suttle and baby son.

DINNER PARTY FOR MRS. SHRINER

Mr. and Mrs. John Dennis entertained with a dinner party at their home on Anapola avenue Saturday evening honoring Mrs. A. Shriner of Los Angeles, who recently returned from a trip to Kansas City. The table was decorated with artistic simplicity, a bowl of deep red carnations forming the centerpiece.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. A. Shriner of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pegg and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. John Dennis.

WILLING WORKERS MEET AT DINNER

The Willing Workers Sunday school class of the Methodist church met at the home of their teacher, Mrs. L. L. Fordice last Monday evening for a pot-luck dinner and meeting.

BETSY ROSS STAR CLUB

Betsy Ross Star club will entertain Tuesday bridge dinner next Monday evening at 6:30 at the Masonic Temple. The dinner is open to the public. Admission 50c and 35c. For reservations, phone 286-V.

The Betsy Ross Star club will hold their regular meeting and pot-luck luncheon Monday noon.

HOSTESS AT AFTERNOON BRIDGE

Mrs. Paul Kasper was hostess to the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club at her home on Eldorado this week at an attractively appointed bridge luncheon.

Green carnations centered the luncheon tables, and St. Patrick's favors were placed at each plate.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. L. L. Fordice, second to Mrs. J. H. Pegg and consolation to Mrs. J. O. Moore.

MRS. HUBER GIVES DELIGHTFUL PARTY

One of the most delightful parties of the St. Patrick's season was given last Friday when Mrs. R. A. Huber entertained sixteen guests at a bridge luncheon at her home on Post avenue.

Luncheon tables were attractively decorated in green and white.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. P. G. Briney, second to Mrs. Thomas Buchanan and consolation to Mrs. Scott Ludlow.

WALTER SCHLICK HAS BIRTHDAY

The birthday of Walter Schlick was the occasion for a delightful affair given Monday evening when Mrs. Schlick invited a number of friends for an evening of bridge at the Schlick residence at the Castle apartments.

Spring flowers were used attractively about the house, and St. Patrick's decorations, with amusing Irish favors, decorated the luncheon tables. A two-course supper was served at midnight.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Dewey Quigley and Mr. Charles Vonderahe, second to Mrs. R. F. Bishop and Mr. W. C. Darnell; consolation to Mrs. Roland Sanderhoff and Mr. D. A. Murphy.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Roland Sanderhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Quigley, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vonderahe, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Darnell, Mr. and Mrs. James Scott, Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vonderahe, Mr. and Mrs. Max Rohring, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schlick of Los Angeles, Miss Helen Kagle, Miss Velouria Smith of Los Angeles, Mr. Clifford Simpson, Mr. D. A. Murphy and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schlick.

BARBARA IS NOW "GOING ON FOUR"

Barbara Lee Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Watson, celebrated her third birthday last Saturday with a birthday party at her home at 1915 Andros avenue.

Irish emblems symbolic of St. Patrick's Day decorated the house and the tables. The birthday cake was topped by three lighted candles.

TORRANCE BRIEFS

Mr. Cash Wolford of Los Angeles and Mrs. Len Salsbury of Santa Barbara were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Fordice Monday evening.

Mrs. Dewey Quigley spent last week visiting at the home of her father, Mr. C. R. Patton in Beverly Hills.

BRIDGE COMMENT

By TED FRENGER

TED FRENGER

After announcing the games that are to be played (?) in this column for certain desired results, I decided that it was time to go into a huddle with the principals—but could only find Sue at the club. At first, she didn't take to the idea—sort of smelled a rat, thought I was making a "mistake" out of her—but it intrigued her and at last she gave her consent to participate and promised to work on Eve.

Bridge Editor Ted Frenger approached the offside or male adjuncts to the opposing partner teams. I am writing this in the office just off the telephone booth. Sue has just put in a call for Eve (all a-fluster) so I am going to let you in on it: "Lo Eve—just a moment now—perk up and give me all the attention you can muster. Just been talking to that grinch, Ted. He has some sort of wild idea about our playing. Oh! Will and you as one team and Ned and myself as the other. Ted claims that this club is in a bad way with regard to the little conventions of the game and that we will get a black eye or cast asparagus on the club if we take our little mannerisms with us when we go out to play in the tournaments. Now here we go—he wants us to play demonstration games; he is to criticize us for the benefit of and before the club. Of course it will only be one or two hands or rubbers at a time—what?—don't be silly, of course you will and you will love it. Oh no! He is going to put us up to doing certain things in fact will give us instructions on paper. He is hitting at a bunch of our clever players who are always taking the little advantages that are just inside the laws. As Ted says, 'telling the players directly is about as safe as the best friends' and 'hallows' gag.' Then he also said that laws are not drafted to prevent dishonorable practices—for they can't—carelessness and certain petty offenses against the ethics of the game are not subject to penalties. We want to be charitable and believe that in most cases it is ignorance—sort of hangover from other games where considerable license was permitted. So—we will bring out these faults—bad points—call them what you will. Ted will stop us; come and explain the offense and why it is an offense. Then ignorance will cease to be an excuse and our committee on memberships can take hold of chronic offenders. Or else it will be a case of ostracism, we must just refuse to play with people who take unfair advantages. Don't say that. Eve, you know Will just loves the lime-light and will act it up. No, that is not the case, it will be thoroughly understood that we are to be asked to make the mistakes, and say! I have one that won't keep—now get this: Mrs. Regner stopped to tell me about a hand she played here in the start off: 'My partner was sitting across the table from me and one adversary was on my left and one was on my right'. What—all right—you go ahead and tell yours. This is what came over the wire. 'You know, Sue, I am taking lessons in Contract and when I arrived for my last lesson a foursome of very pretty girls was leaving. One doesn't dare claim to be as good a player as she really is for her big boy friend is one of the know-it-all players—big and blustery—so Eve being a diplomat must act as a fall-be conservative in bidding and save Big Boy Bill's hide without getting army valor medals. You will like Eve. She is the type of player we all like—honest, dependable and elude full of brains.

Now you have met Eve—just by wire as it were—it might be in order to give you a line on her. Eve is real pretty, a demure a la Janet Gaynor style. Plays a fair hand of Auction and is going to be a real good Contract player. She doesn't dare claim to be as good a player as she really is for her big boy friend is one of the know-it-all players—big and blustery—so Eve being a diplomat must act as a fall-be conservative in bidding and save Big Boy Bill's hide without getting army valor medals. You will like Eve. She is the type of player we all like—honest, dependable and elude full of brains.

? Contract Bridge ?

Why not play Contract Bridge at home and about—it is economical—that seems to be the slogan at present. Bridge is entertainment but Contract is entertainment-plus. Learn it at the price of one dinner-theatre party!

Why not start taking lessons while I still have time to take your foursome!

Why certainly I can teach you in six lessons (if you are not a moron)!

Why wait to see if you won't be sorry in the near future when they segregate the Contract Players!

Why don't you invest $10.00 in learning the game and take perpetual satisfaction dividends of 100% at every party!

Why yes, I can teach Auction—am doing it—like it, for I insidiously teach Contract at the same time!

Why I can't teach one without teaching the other. Phone Redondo 1887.

Why of course I teach at home—the house, corner Hawthorne Blvd. and Redondo Blvd.—or elsewhere.

Why of course this is an advertisement and you are going to help me pay for it.—or—I wonder.
