"When Baby Needs New Shoes He Makes Them"

By C. N. P. A. Service

Amado Acosta, the Zapatero of the Mission Play, fashions a pair of moccasins for Paula, tiny star.

(By C. N. P. A. Service)
Millionaires can afford to have shoes made by hand but few theatrical companies can equip forty members of a cast in the product of an old-time leather artisan.

bearing in the famous pageant drama. Acosta is also an actor and oftentimes makes repairs on his handiwork between acts.
