Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. The Golden Text will be from Hebrews, "Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord." One of the Scripture selections in the Lesson-Sermon, chosen from Paul's first epistle to the Corinthians, includes assurances as follows: "For other foundations can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. . . . Every man's work shall be made manifest. . . . If any man's work abide that which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss; but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire." A correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," presents the following statements by Mary Baker Eddy: "The old man with his deeds must be put off. Nothing sensual or sinful is immortal. The death of a false material sense and of sin, not the death of organic matter, is what reveals man and Life, harmonious, real, and eternal."

Crowds Fill Churches on Easter Day

Easter services at Torrance churches attracted great crowds of worshippers, both at the early morning service and at the regular meeting hours later.

At the sunrise service sponsored by the young men's class of the First Methodist Church, a beautiful cross of Easter lilies, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Forbes, was an unexpected addition, and in itself an inspiration to the hundreds who had gathered for the dawn devotionals.

Sunrise service at the First Christian Church drew many of the members, and at the later service at 11 o'clock when communion was offered the church was crowded to capacity.

At each Torrance church the same conditions were noted, the congregations in every case filling to overflowing the auditoriums of the various edifices. Beautiful reverential programs of music, prayer and pastoral admonition made this Easter day one of deep religious happiness to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen and family spent four days in San Diego last week.
