NEWS AND NONSENSE
IN THE P. E. SHOPS

Edited by Carleton B. Bell

Frank Demery is getting quite a reputation as a weather prophet. It has not been discovered whether or not he has a system that will compare with Father Ricardo's, but anyway it has been good enough to make most of his prophecies good this year and his fellow watchmen hold him in very high regard as a consequence. Maybe by another winter his reputation will be good enough to warrant us in applying some distinctive title as "Watchman of the Rains" or something of that sort. Frank don't sign his forecasts, either.

If you notice large bumps on the craniums of our Shop Foremen do not think they are the results of brains. They are just the natural result of a rapidly developing bump of knowledge. In this case mathematics. Mr. Strawn, the chief magician with the slide rule, is imparting some of its secrets to his Foreman Saturday mornings, hence the bumps.

Roy Colburn is a hard-working man. He holds down two full sized jobs. He does a man's work here at the shop and then when he leaves here he becomes a dirt farmer, with horses and everything. The other night when most men are resting, Roy was out in the front yard with a big plow, faithful Dobbin, and his wife to show him where the plow should go; and the way that soil was turning over wasn't slow. What are you going to plant, Roy? Spuds and beans, or have you joined the ranks of the flower fans and intend to grow

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McGuire left Friday for a business trip to Oregon.

"PARDON ME, OFFICER, I DIDN'T KNOW YOU WERE A COP"
Young Francisco Mayoral of Los Angeles, was casually riding his motorcycle up Western avenue the other day. Out of the corner of his eye he saw a car nose up and attempt to pass him. Now Francisco rides a fast motorcycle, and he hates to have cars pass him on the road, so he stepped on the gas and shot down the avenue.
The car gave pursuit. A race! Francisco was thrilled and rode faster and faster. 89 miles an hour the motor was topping when he came to some dips in the road and had to slow down. Now the car had caught up with him. Imagine his embarrassment when a siren blew. He pulled over to the side of the road and was confronted by Chief G. M. Calder and Officer Dalton.
Francisco apologized in numerous languages and many times, but Officer Dalton wrote out the ticket. "Sorry son, but we HAVE to give you a ticket," said Chief Calder.
When the chap came before Judge C. T. Rippey, he was fined $25, but Chief Calder interceded and got the fine suspended for one year.
Francisco decided that racing wasn't such a fascinating sport after all!
