Chorus Girl Routs Reformer In Swift-Moving Comedy at Torrance Theatre Sunday

"Dumb-bells in Ermine." Warner Brothers latest Vitaphone comedy shown at the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday is an uproariously human chronicle of the difficulties experienced by a handsome young pugilist and a pretty tied-to-mother's-apron-strings girl in overcoming objections of said mother, and eliminating the blue-nosed gentleman whom she has chosen for the girl's mate.

Robert Armstrong, who has portrayed many prize-fighting roles, plays the part of Jerry Malone, the pugilist, who falls in love with Faith Corey, played by Barbara Kent. Faith's foxy grandmother and her outrageous old uncle—who are having a rather rheumatic romance of their own—do their best to help the youngsters. These parts are gloriously interpreted by Deryl Mercer and Claude Gillingwater.

Arthur Hoyte as the blue-nosed, becomes engaged to Faith and plans to take her to the Congo as a missionary. The plans of the plot hypocrite are comically upset by one of a crowd of visiting showgirls whom he has had arrested. This more-or-less-dumb belle sends him vamoosing with coat-tails rampant. Julia Swayze Gordon, Mary Foy and Charlotte Merriman are also prominently cast.

The up-to-the-number dialogue was written by James Geason, the playwright, who also plays Mike, the fighter's cocky trainer. John Adolf directed.

BLONDES ARE FAVORITES AT FOX REDONDO

Five gorgeous leading ladies make things mighty sweet for Charles "Buddy" Rogers in his newest picture, "Safety in Numbers," which comes to the Fox Redondo theatre on Monday and Tuesday, June 9 and 10. Kathryn Crawford is the one "Buddy" falls for the hardest. She is a brunette. She sings and dances very well, and she is very easy on the eyes. Others are Josephine Dunn, former New York show girl; Carol Lombard, Pathe star; Geneva Mitchell, formerly with Ziegfeld Follies; and Virginia Bruce, Paramount's new blonde "find." "Safety in Numbers" is a musical comedy-romance with an engaging plot, fast action, and laughs galore.

Acclaimed "the most beautiful blonde on the screen," Catherine Dale Owens plays the society girl heroine, opposite Edmund Lowe, in John Ford's newest Fox Movietone offering, "Born Reckless," which comes to the Fox Redondo theatre Wednesday and Thursday, June 11 and 12.

Friday and Saturday this week, the Fox Redondo brings Wilfred Lucas back to the footlights in Warner Baxter's new Fox Movietone, "The Arizona Kid."

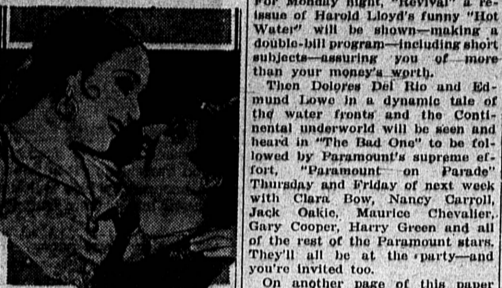

Sunday, Lillian Gish makes her talking picture debut in "One Romantic Night" at the Fox Redondo.

Fox Plaza Pictures Come Bigger and Better Weekly with out Dolores Del Rio... Still they come to the Fox Plaza—bigger and better pictures. The feature picture for Saturday, one day only, stars Walter Connolly, Lee and is entitled "The Big Party." An "Our Gang" comedy, a cartoon, a novelty and a current news reel complete a full three-hour show. For Saturday the management announces that any child under the age of twelve will be admitted for five cents—this special inducement to see a $1.00 show is for this Saturday, June 7th only. Saturday shows are always continuous.

Gary Cooper, popular idol—director of the Paramount picture, "The Texan," starring Gary Cooper, will close its three-day engagement tomorrow night.

Saturday only will find William Powell, Helen Kane, Fay Wray and "Sleets" Gallagher in Paramount's song and dance production "Pointed Heels." The story is unusual in plot, gripping pathos, rib-racking humor and ear-tickling songs. The play is based on a story which was published recently in the "College Humor" Magazine. Make it a point to see "Pointed Heels," you will like it.

Ruth Chatterton and Hoot Gibson will be seen on the double program to be presented Monday and Tuesday.

Ruth Chatterton is co-starring with her husband Ralph Forbes in "The Lady of Scandal," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture. The plot concerns the amusing situation which results when a music-hall actress consents to marry the son of a British Peer, much to the horror of both families. The picture is truly delightful and needless to say Ruth Chatterton has never appeared to better advantage.

Our hard riding friend Hoot Gibson will supply the thrills in the program to be presented Monday and Tuesday when he out-tricks himself in "Trigger Tricks," his latest all-talking Universal production.

Edmund Lowe and Dolores Del Rio will be seen and heard Wednesday and Thursday in "The Bad One." This picture played at the United Artist Theatre where it created favorable comment from critics and fans alike.

Fox Movietone News or Hearst Metrotone News, comedy, or cartoon will be presented in conjunction with every feature picture.

Portland's Famed Rose Show Revived; To Be Held in June

BY BEN E. TITUS
United Press Staff Correspondent

PORTLAND, Ore., May 15.—Portland's famed Rose Festival, given up for dead last fall, has been resurrected and will be given again this year, June 12 and 13, through subscriptions of thousands of individual men, women and children.

When means of financing the carnival, which had been smaller and smaller each year, apparently ceased entirely after the 1929 festival, the then directors decided to give up the idea. It was picked up again, however, and will be put over through memberships which will run for $1 to grownups and 50c for children.

The carnival has been shortened to two days with the exception of the rose show itself, which will last for a week. On the first day a children's pageant in which 10,000 school children will participate will be held at Multnomah Stadium. On June 12 a combined floral and "run" parade will be held; street dancing will occupy the evening; there will be fireworks, boat races and evening whoopee; Chinatown will be held open house; and a general festive spirit will pervade the city.

The Rose Festival, founded in 1907, and held annually since except during the war years, has met many vicissitudes in the past few years. Prohibition, automobiles, changed codes of living, and increased cost—all have been blamed.

Organized just two years after the Lewis and Clark world fair, and only a few years after it had been discovered that nowhere in the world do roses develop to such offhence of bloom and color as they do here, the Rose Festival was a great institution in its early days.

It used to open on Monday and continue full tilt until it wound up with a grand finale on Saturday night. On Monday night there was an "extravaganza and enlightening historical tableau parade." Drayn, by spanking boys and dapple grays, the huge drays on which the floats, depicting "Sagajawea" and the "Coming of the White Man," the "Birth of the Gods" and all the other folk tales of the Oregon country, wound about the city, lighted by flares carried by robed men who looked like gnomes.

On Tuesday night there was the "grand electrical pageant"—floats built on street car trucks which usually had electric lights—and pretty girls—on them. Followed the "vehicle parade" on Wednesday, the "automobile parade"—there was a spectacle for you—on Thursday, the children's parade on Friday and the grand finale when the electrical parade was repeated on Saturday. In between were fraternal parades, military parades, water parades and what not. It was a veritable week when the populace went without sleep or rest and people

Teachers Not Troubled By Unemployment

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI)—California school teachers are not troubled by the unemployment problem in their profession.

With a steady stream of ambitious young instructors coming from the state's many training schools, the superintendent of public instruction, Kersey, reported.

Los Angeles county schools hired 900 of those embarking on the business of instructing the younger generation, the superintendent's survey indicated.

"Prospective teachers should carefully study the supply and demand in the various fields of the profession," Kersey declared.

"We have compiled a report intended to help them in this effort, outlining the situation as it exists."

"The combination of subjects most in demand during the past year were as follows: English and foreign languages; English and social studies; science and junior mathematics; social studies and foreign languages; physical education and social studies; physical education and science.

"Demand for teachers in elementary schools, junior high schools, high schools, and junior colleges, varied widely. In elementary schools there was a deficit of teachers, totaling 148; in junior high schools an excess of 778 existed; while in high schools there was an excess of 636 instructors. Junior colleges reported a deficit of 18 teachers for their needs."

From this resume Kersey concluded that persons eligible to teach in elementary and junior colleges were needed, while English, foreign languages, social studies, physical education and science instructors were required, with the proper combination of these subjects.

State institutions turing out accredited teachers were reviewed in the survey, the University of California at Los Angeles leading the list, with 687 graduates certificated to teach. University of Southern California was second with 436; University of California, 361; and Stanford 145.

Washington led all other states of the union, in sending 78 teachers to California, who had had experience in that state. Following were Oregon, 61; Iowa, 58; Illinois, 48; Colorado, Kansas, and Missouri, 46 each; and Idaho, Minnesota, and Montana, 42 each.

A DANGEROUS TUMBLE

WILLIAMS, Ind. (UP)—Mart Smith suffered only cuts and bruises when he fell from a rock ledge at a quarry west of Williams and rolled 40 feet with a three-gallon bucket filled with dynamite. Sticks of dynamite were scattered in all directions as Smith rolled, but none exploded.

Recipes

ORANGE SYRUP SAUCE
1 cup orange juice
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 cup sugar
Juice 1 lemon
Grated rind 1/2 lemon
Put ingredients into saucepan, and boil fifteen minutes. Skim, strain and pour into sterilized glasses. Use as a sauce on vanilla ice cream or on baked rice pudding. This sauce when sealed in sterilized glasses, will keep well, and will be found convenient to have on hand for emergency in the summer.

CHICKEN TIMBALES
2 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup stale bread crumbs
1/2 cup milk
1 cup chopped cooked chicken
1/2 tablespoon chopped parsley
2 eggs
Salt and pepper
Melt butter, add bread crumbs, and milk, and cook in double boiler five minutes, stirring constantly. Add chicken, parsley, and eggs slightly beaten. Season with salt and pepper. Turn into buttered individual molds, having molds two-thirds full, set in pan of hot water, cover with buttered paper, and bake twenty minutes. Serve with cream sauce.

WINTER SQUASH IN THE SHELL
1 Hubbard squash
2 tablespoons butter
1 egg
Salt and pepper
Milk
Part of a second squash may be used to make the shell full.
Cut off the top of a small Hubbard squash, remove seeds and stringy portion. Place in a pan to bake or steam (about 2 hours), until tender. Remove pulp from shell, being careful to keep shell intact, mash pulp and season. Return mixture to shell. Smooth the surface to a dome shape, score with a knife, brush over with milk and beaten egg. Add bits of butter and place in oven a few minutes to brown.

Community Players Present Play for Children's Benefit

Presenting one of the most popular of modern comedies, the "Florodora" Community Players of the Crescent Bay are concluding their season of plays with "Lombardi, Ltd.," which will be given at the Fox Hermona theatre on July 6 and 7. For the benefit of the Children Convalescent Home in Hermosa Beach.

Bill Murphy, a young man who has created for himself a large following of fans, will be seen in the title role as Lombardi. It is a well known and temperate personality that the entire play revolves. Lombardi is a famous artist, a designer of gowns and a fiery individual.

The Community Players Association is an outgrowth of the extensive interest and activity in dramatics on the part of the people of this district. It includes so far, the communities of Palms Verdes, Hollywood Riviera, Redondo, Hermosa, and Manhattan.

As they desire to be of benefit to the community in a philanthropic as well as artistic manner, the board of directors has voted to give the entire net profits of the production to the Convalescent Home for Children in Hermosa. The home is for children who are well enough to have been discharged from the Children's Hospital but who have not yet regained strength and sturdiness enough to withstand the inclement conditions that many of them would have to face in their poverty-stricken homes.

STEAL SHRUBBERY
Police are looking for the person who is transplanting shrubbery that was stolen from the house at 1226 Beech avenue. Report was made at the station Sunday morning, and it is believed that the shrubbery was taken some time Saturday night.
