CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." This verse from the Gospel of John will be the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "Reality," Sunday in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The Responsive Reading, includes another promise of Christ Jesus: "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."

One of the Scripture selections contains the following verses from the Gospel of Matthew: "And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, he said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose."

A passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, states: "There is but one way to heaven, harmony, and Christ in divine Science shows us this way. It is to know no other reality—to have no other consciousness of life—than good, God and His reflection, and to rise superior to the so-called pain and pleasure of the senses."
