Headlines--and Names

Remember those screaming black headlines flung over the front pages of every newspaper, large and small, daily and weekly, heralding the end of the World War 12 years ago next Tuesday?

Remember the riotous scenes of rejoicing at the close of that sanguinary conflict? -- the breathless moment when the news came of the ending of four years bloodshed, nerve-racking suspense and high-pitched hysteria?
An echo of the tumultuous events of Monday, November 11, 1918, still rings in a yellowed and dog-eared copy of a newspaper preserved as a memento of those hectic days by Mrs. Thomas A. Cowan, of Amelia street, Keystone.

World War Over!
Armistice Signed!

That's the big black headline that preceded the story in large type, "Washington, Nov. 11--The war will end this morning at 6 o'clock, Washington time, 11 o'clock Paris time. The armistice was signed by the German representatives at midnight. This statement was made by the State department at 2:50 this morning. The announcement simply said: "The armistice has been signed."

Kaiser and German Staff Flee to Holland; People in Revolt

Berlin Occupied By Revolutionist Force
Saturday Afternoon

Bulletins followed with details of the taking of the German capital by forces of the Soldiers and Workmen's Council and of the garrison going over to the new government. The late Friederich Ebert, then vice president of the Social Democratic party in Germany, was named to carry on the chancellorship.

More headlines declared:
New Germany Rises Formation of Polish With Kaiser's Fall Republic Announced

War news still occupied a prominent place in the paper owned by Mrs. Cowan, because news of the Armistice was too brief to take up the whole front page. This information from the battle lines in France carried the headings:

BRITISH VIGOROUSLY
HAMMERING GERMANS

Possibility of Peace Causes No Diminution of Energy in Pounding Enemy

RETREAT OF GERMANS
IS MORE PRECIPITATE

Americans Launch Attack
Over Wide Front Well
Into Lorraine

All this was "front page stuff." But further inside the paper, treasured by the Keystone resident, is more sobering material--more vital to many and--more tragically interesting. It is a long list of names--just names--names of men from Moody, Texas; Urban, Ohio; Fulton, Kentucky; Long Beach, California-- hundreds of cities, towns and hamlets.

American Casualty List

"Washington, Nov. 10.--The casualty list issued by the War department today includes the names of 153 killed in action, 162 died of wounds, three died from accident or other causes, one died from airplane accident, and 26 died of disease, besides those wounded and missing."

This is the story that will remain in the hearts of those whose sons, brothers, husbands, fathers and friends were killed as long as those left behind remain. This is the reason for Armistice day--this is the day the nation will reverently observe next Tuesday.

AMERICANS ADVANCE
30 MILES IN 8 DAYS were soon forgotten--that news did not remain. It is that simple heading and that list of honored dead that should be a heritage of great inspiration to us today.

American Casualty List

Names, names, names--we pause next Tuesday to salute your memory!

Miss Joan Neelands Weds at Beautiful Ceremony

One of the loveliest weddings of the year was solemnized last evening at the Central Evangelical church when Miss Joan Neelands, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. J.
Neelands, became the bride of Mr. William Maxey Grey, son of Mrs. Nellie Grey, of Gardena.

The church was transformed into a veritable tower of flowers for the occasion. A profusion of pink and yellow chrysanthemums shaded the rostrum, before which Rev. G. O. Schindl performed the ceremony in the presence of 125 guests.

The bride was lovely in a gown of cashmere satin, made with bolero effect and long sleeves. The bride's veil was of tulle, worn cap-style and caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower of pink roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Elizabeth Neelands, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Frances Grey and Miss Edna May--both of Gardena--were bridesmaids. They wore orchid, yellow and turquoise blue, respectively, and carried bouquets of narcissus and pink sweet peas.

Prior to the ceremony, Mr. Herman Kennedy sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Theodore Ockels.
At the first strains of Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus," the wedding party entered, the bride on the arm of her father, who gave her away.

The groom was attended by his best man, Mr. LeRoy Grey of Gardena, as best man, and Mr. Robert Pate of Compton, and Mr. Jack Brooks of Hermosa Beach, as ushers.

Following the ceremony was a wedding reception at the home of the bride's parents on Fairview avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Grey then left for Los Angeles, where they will reside at 4212 Cummings street.

Bridal Dinner
On Monday evening the bride entertained her wedding party at a dinner given at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Neelands, on Engracia avenue.

Flowers profusely decorated the home, and large baskets of pastel candy also adorned the three tables. The bride's appointments and places were marked for Miss Bobbie Lou Evans, Miss Edna May, Miss Frances Grey, Mrs. Nellie Grey, Mr. Byron Smith and Mr.
LeRoy Grey, all of Gardena; Mr.
Robert Pate, of Compton; Miss Gladys Bass and Mr. Jack Brooks of Hermosa Beach; Mr. and Mrs.
P. G. Briney and Elaine Briney; Miss Katherine Burmaster, Miss Elizabeth Neelands, Mrs. G. C.
Bath, Miss Mildred Neelands, Mr.
Charles Curtis, Mr. Herman Kennedy, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Neelands, Mr. William Grey, and Miss Joan Neelands.

Many lovely affairs have been given for the bride since the announcement of her engagement several weeks ago. The groom was honored Tuesday evening at a bachelor dinner given by Mr.
Richard Scull and Mr. Robert Pate of Compton.

ing that votes be cast in favor of proposition carried it would greatly benefit the Jared Sidney Tor-as the local hospital paid more than $800 in taxes last year.

N. F. Jamison were awarded honors for high scores at bridge.

ORIENTAL ART IS
LECTURE TOPIC
Miss Helena Whitford of Pasadena was the speaker at the Women's club Wednesday afternoon. Miss Whitford spoke on Oriental art, giving an interesting insight into art of Japan and China. The difference between the arts of the western world and the eastern world is caused by the difference in their symbols. All peoples work out their history and their religion in their art. There are two differences between the art of the east and west. These differences, according to Miss Whitford, are founded on the difference in their philosophy and technique. In the west man has been the center of art. The human figure has been used to express ideas. In the east man has turned to nature for his ideals and symbols. Landscapes are used to express the spiritual. The Japanese pictures strive to be a voiceless poem while a Japanese poem is a vocal picture. The Japanese never paint people posing. They are always painted doing something. Miss Whitford gave some of the rules of the eastern world for painting and showed paintings to represent each rule. She explained the making of wood block prints. Telling with what minute care each step in the work was made. Some of these prints take as many as 80 blocks of wood, while others take only 20 or 25. In explaining the difference between Chinese and Japanese art she said that the Chinese art had more subtlety than the Japanese.

Mrs. Russell Rudge sang two numbers, "The Gypsy Trail" and "A Japanese Sunset." Mrs. Juliette Johnson accompanied her upon the piano.

During the intermission between the luncheon and the club session, a display of Japanese prints which Miss Whitford had brought with her were exhibited.

Mrs. Sam Levy reported on the success of the costume dance, both socially and financially. Mrs.
Clara Curtis thanked the club for its support of the card party given Monday night for the Nurses' benefit.

The club has been asked to join era

PERHAPS your range was modern when four-cylinder cars were the rule. But how does it rank with this present eight-cylinder era? Kitchens are falling into line... becoming as modern in their equipment as the 1930 garage. Why not yours?
Hotpoint presents for 1930 kitchens a great group of entirely automatic electric ranges as new, as advanced, as marvelous in their way as the modern motor car... and as efficient and as economical.
There is a size, a style, a cost, exactly suited to your requirements. Your Edison office is showing it now. Edison is installing these modern ranges on a single moderate down payment, without installation charges or other extras. Edison is giving you the same time to pay, and even easier terms, than your husband was given on his new motor car. Your electric range will mean as much to you in every way... in comfort and convenience; in saving of time and labor; in pride of ownership. It will cost, of course, only a fraction of the price of the most modern motorcar.
See your new automatic electric range today. Then take all the time you please to make up your mind about buying it.
When you learn how easy it is to own, how economical it is to operate, you probably will not wait long.
