Because of the proximity of the holidays this meeting will conclude the chib work for the year 1930. Special Christmas features have been arranged, and the Christmas spirit will prevail throughout the afternoon. The program will be opened by the community singing of favorite Christmas carols. Plans are being completed by Mrs. C.-N. Curties, music chairman, to have instrumental numbers by several talented juveniles. Luncheon will be served at 12:30. Reservations may be obtained by phoning 341. Mrs. Wallace Gilbert.

The card party which was to have been given on the night of December 5 has been postponed until the following month.
