A. D. McLeod Company, certified public accountants of Los Angeles, recently completed a report on the financial affairs of the City of Torrance, and in writing their report on the result of the survey, they took the opportunity to thank City Treasurer Harry H. Dolley, City Clerk A. H. Bartlett and Deputy City Clerk L. O. Stevens for their cordial co-operation and assistance in the work.

The auditors make the following gratifying comment: "In regard to the city clerk's department, all cash collections were properly evidenced by pre-numbered receipts, and we are able to say that in this department all collections were properly transferred to the treasurer. The records of the city treasurer were examined and found to be properly kept. The fund balances were reconciled with the city clerk and the various departments."

McLeod & Company in concluding their report pay tribute to the accurate methods of the officials in charge of the city's financial affairs in this statement: "We believe the books and records of the City of Torrance to be well and properly kept and to reflect truly the transactions of the city government. . . . The control exercised by the city clerk over the funds in the hands of the city treasurer is such as to insure a proper accounting of all receipts and disbursements. If we have any suggestions to make it is that the general records be kept as simple as possible and as nearly on a basis of receipts and disbursements as is practical. We believe that this method is the most suited for a city of the sixth class."

McLeod & Company's audit comprised a complete check of all receipts and disbursements for all funds, an examination of bonds of officials and employees, insurance policies, and deeds to property, acquired during the period under audit, and a survey of the bonded indebtedness of the city.

Fear Complex Said Depression's Cause

 Torrance, Miss. Margaret Gensler, introduced the honored guests, Mayor John Dennis, Mrs. Dennis, W. R. Borden, Mrs. Borden, Sam Rappaport, Mrs. Rappaport, Sam Levy, Mrs. Levy, and Mrs. Caroline Collins, who responded with brief but cordial speeches of welcome to the new organization.

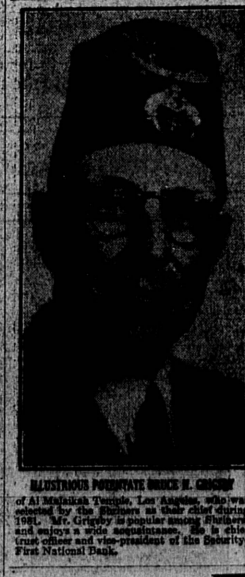

Miss Teala-Billini played two delightful numbers, and graciously responded to an enthusiastic encore. Lewis Dreyer, accompanied by Mrs. Ruby Mae Antis, sang a group of ballads. Mr. Dreyer also helped to lead the community singing with plenty of pep.

Officers are installed.

At the conclusion of Dr. Morse's talk to the club, Mrs. Mary Wiley Elsen, state organization chairman for the Southern District, and past president of the Los Angeles club, installed the new officers, using the beautiful and impressive candle-lighting ceremony of the organization. The assembly was adjourned with the reading of the club's motto.

Officers installed were Miss Margaret Gensler, president, Mrs. Faye V. Howard, vice president, Miss Lute Fraser, recording secretary, Miss Margaret G. Shell, corresponding secretary, Miss Elizabeth Maxwell, treasurer. Out-of-town visitors, included, members of Los Angeles and South Bay district clubs.
