

Torrance Bears, Pueblo Nine, Beat Candyman, 8 to 6, Sunday

The Torrance Osos (meaning "great big fierce dangerous Bears"), clawed the hides off the Christopher Candyman in a speedy game on the new baseball diamond near the pueblo last Sunday. The final score was 8 to 6 in favor of the Bears.

The Bears made their first appearance in their new uniforms and looked pretty snappy in the white outfits trimmed in blue. Due to the generosity of a number of fans, assisted by a small contribution from the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, the new ball club has been able to come on the field in a dressy uniform which attracts favorable attention. Sunday's lineup for the Bears included: Alvarez, 2b; Ponce, 2b; Rivera, lf; Renigo, 1b; Pizarra, ss; Cruz, cf; Peter, cf; Hernandez, c; Chabira, p; Angel, David and Pina, pinch hitters. The team gathered 11 hits, one a homer by Chabira.

Double-Header Sunday
The Christopher lineup was as follows: Dunn, 1b; Al, ss; Joe, 2b; Orville, cf; Frenchie, p; Vernon, on a good show. A collection taken up among the spectators in their means of paying the expenses of the games.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Rogers have taken over the residence at 1504 Post avenue, which they will renovate at once. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers were former Torrance citizens.

Lowest Prices But Same Fine Bill at Lomita

With a new price schedule of 10 cents for children and 15 cents for adults, the Lomita theater operators, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Doucet, believe that they are showing the best programs of all-talking pictures at the lowest price in the entire Harbor District.

"And we are not cutting down on the quality of our program one bit," they said this week. A study of their advertisement on this page proves that. However, in order to get an early showing date of Harold Lloyd's latest and funniest thrill-comedy, the Doucets were forced to pay a higher fee for the production programmed Tuesday and Wednesday. So far those two days only the former prices of 10c and 15c will prevail. However, the Harold Lloyd comedy has double that amount of entertainment value.

"See America Thirst," a delicious cocktail of pure merriment featuring Harry Langdon, "The Summerville" and "Bessie" Love opens Sunday at the Lomita for a two day run. This is one picture you should not miss. Another fine production with Loretta Young and Conway Tearle, titled, "The Truth About Youth," plays tonight and tomorrow at the popular showhouse. "Inside the Lines" is a dramatic British army talkie featuring Betty Compson, Ralph Forbes and Montagu Love. This is at the Lomita theater Saturday only.

Big Features Are Due At Warner Bros., S. P.

Some of the year's biggest pictures are due at Warner Bros. San Pedro theater for the month of February.

Starting with "A Soldier's Plaything," which features Harry Langdon, the inimitable comedian, in his first feature length talking comedy, then comes Howard Hughes' $4,000,000 epic, "Hell's Angels," which required four years to make and is said to be the most lavish picture of its kind ever made.

Following this is Charles Bickford and Evelyn Knapp in James Oliver Curwood's most famous story of the great Northwest "River's End."

Then comes Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey in their latest laugh riot, "Hook, Line and Sinker," to be followed by Sutton Van's immortal classic of immortals, "Outward Bound," with Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Helen Chandler and Leslie Howard in the leading roles.

Sailors Rob Man of $5 in Riviera Tract

The first holdup to be reported in this vicinity for several months, despite the crime wave in Los Angeles, occurred Monday night in the Hollywood Riviera, according to local police.

Two sailors, thought to have been from Coast Guard Base 17, held up and robbed A. A. Hlatt, Los Angeles, of $5 but did not search his companion, R. R. Nestor. The bandits, armed with a revolver, were in a sedan driven by a third man.

Huston Makes Success With Sound Advent

With the advent of sound to the screen it was predicted that many stage stars would become equally great luminaries on the screen. This proved to be untrue for few made the transfer successfully. One of this limited number was Walter Huston, star of Columbia Pictures powerful romantic prison drama, "The Criminal Code," showing at the Fox Redondo theater Friday and Saturday.

"Just Imagine" Opens Here on Tuesday Night

The inimitable comedy team of El Brendel and Marjorie White, which has virtually run away with every picture in which they have been paired, are prominently featured in the second big DeSylva-Brown and Henderson Fox movie-tone musical comedy, "Just Imagine," acclaimed for each of these hilarious mirth makers.

Others in the large cast are Maureen O'Sullivan, John Garrick, Frank Albertson, Kenneth Thomson, Hobart Bosworth, Wilfred Lucas, Mischka Auer, Ivan Linow and Sidney DeGray. Also directed this hit and Seymour Felix staged the dance numbers. It is to begin next Tuesday at the Torrance theater to run for three days.

FOX PLAZA'S PROGRAM IS OUTSTANDING

Richard Cromwell in "To!able David" is the attraction playing Friday and Saturday at the Fox Plaza. The talking version of this famous story is said to surpass the silent one made by Richard Barthelmess a few years ago. A Hal Roach comedy entitled, "High Gear," is also on the program, and for Saturday only, Chapter 11 of "The Indians Are Coming."

For Sunday only, Jeanette MacDonald in "Oh, for a Man," is to be the main dish. The title of this picture is somewhat misleading inasmuch as the picture itself is purely situation comedy drama from start to finish. A Metro comedy, "Marry or Else," is also on the bill of fare.

Monday and Tuesday brings that sterling performer, Walter Huston in "The Criminal Code." Few actors ever reach the station that Huston has achieved in his ability to play any role well. In "The Criminal Code," he takes the part of a hard-boiled prison warden and his performance has aroused such praise from well known movie critics. A cartoon, "Sky Skraping," and a Paramount act, "New Rhythm," are also on the program.

Wednesday and Thursday, George Bancroft in "Scandal Sheet" offers the inside workings of a big newspaper office with plenty of thrills when the big scoop breaks. A Sennett comedy, "Racketeers," and "Strange As It Seems," No. 2, are also offered.

Friday and Saturday, February 6 and 7, El Brendel in "Just Imagine," will give local theatergoers a peep into the year of 1950.
