

MEMORIAL DAY THEME WILL BE DISCUSSED

Special music and a special concert will be the drawing power of the Methodist church Sunday. "Memorial Day, I Have Kept the Faith," will be discussed by Rev. Young. The Apostle Paul believed in spreading true patriotism and asked himself a personal question, "I have kept the Faith." The city is welcome to hear this message.

Sunday night subject: "Is the Church Falling, Is Religion Declining? If So, Why?" This opportunity for facts comes to you, come and bring your misinformed non-churchgoers so they will know what the church is or is not doing.

Park Essay Contest On At High School

"Why An Industrial City Needs Parks and Playgrounds" is the title of an essay contest being held at the high school, under the supervision of Principal Herbert S. Wood and faculty members of the English department. The essays, which are limited to 250 words, will be judged by the English teachers and seven cash prizes donated by the Chamber of Commerce will be awarded. There will be a $3 first prize; $2, second, and five one dollar awards. The first and second prize winning essays will be published by the Herald June 5.

MEMORIAL SERVICE TO BE GIVEN AT CHURCH HERE

A special Memorial Day service in memory of the boys who have "gone West" and in honor of those who are living, will be held at the Torrance Christian church next Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock. The Alfred E. Paul orchestra of 30 instruments will play several numbers. At the 11 a. m. service, Edwin Jones, boy baritone of Pasadena, will sing. This young man, only 15 years of age, has devoted much time to radio and concert work.

ON EASTERN VISIT

Mrs. A. P. Stevenson of Post avenue left Sunday for a month's visit with her mother in Centerville, Iowa. Dr. Stevenson and the two daughters remained in Torrance.
