Miss Marjorie Clark Is Bride Sunday Afternoon

The wedding of Miss Marjorie Agnes Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Clark, and Frank Russell of Van Nuys, was solemnized at a charming ceremony at the First Christian church Sunday afternoon, with Rev. R. V. Roelofs officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a fitted wedding gown of egg shell satin and a close-fitting lace cap. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and larkspur with maiden hair fern.

Mrs. Merle Boulos of Los Angeles attended the bride as matron of honor and wore an all-over gown of apple green with hat and slippers in a contrasting shade. She carried pale pink gladioli. The bridesmaid was Miss Jennie Roche of Los Angeles who was beautifully costumed in a yellow lace gown and carried American Beauty gladioli.

Milton Bell of Pasadena served Mr. Russell as best man, while William McChesney of Bakersfield, ushered. Bridal music was played by Mrs. Baker Smith as guests assembled. Mrs. Jane Roelofs Brinley sang, "O Sweet Mystery of Life," "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me."

Mr. and Mrs. Russell left immediately on a motor trip to Canada. Upon their return they will make their home at Van Nuys where Mr. Russell is manager of the Woolworth store. Mrs. Russell was beautifully attired in a going-away ensemble of brown chiffon velvet with Empress Eugenie hat and contrasting accessories and wore a corsage of rose buds and fern.

W. R. C. LUNCHEON
ENJOYED YESTERDAY

The home of Mrs. Charles E. Kelton at Portola Apartments, was the setting for a delightful luncheon and get-together Wednesday when more than 50 members of the Grand Army of the Republic Auxiliary and their friends gathered at noon. The rooms were decorated with graceful baskets of pink zinnias. At a table having a center piece of rose geranium and fern, flanked with candles, covers were placed for Mrs. Etta Johnson, Mrs. Susan Hart, Mrs. Mira Leakey, Mrs. Carrie Slocum, Mrs. Grace Beshel, Mrs. Julia Miner, Mrs. T. Pluge, and Mrs. G. Case, all of Hawthorne, whose birthdays were in August. Mrs. Etta Johnson, past senior aide of W. R. C. No. 135, Hawthorne, was the speaker. Following luncheon, a Japanese pie was drawn. A door prize was awarded to Mrs. Paul Vonderheide.

Outside guests included Mrs. Rose Berry of Long Beach, W. R. C. Corps; Mrs. Anna Moss and Miss Bonnie Moss of Hollywood; Mrs. T. J. Hughes of Phoenix, Arizona; Mrs. Mamie Connors of Chicago; Mrs. Caroline Pether and Mrs. Frances Dean of Los Angeles; Miss Hazel Keller and Mrs. P. Vonderheide.

AUXILIARY CARD
PARTY GIVEN

More than 70 members of the American Legion Auxiliary, and their friends, attended a benefit bridge party given at American Legion clubhouse Tuesday evening. Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. R. J. Deininger and Clinton E. Thaxter, and consolation to Mrs. W. C. Dolley and Elmer Patterson. Pinchle honors were awarded to Mrs. Nancy Hurt and A. W. Greiner. Proceeds from this affair will go toward purchasing uniforms for the auxiliary drill team.

P. E. CHEERIO CLUB
TO HAVE PICNIC

Members of the P. E. Cheerio Club, their husbands and children, are invited to attend a social meeting and picnic supper at Redondo Park Friday evening, August 21. Everyone is requested to provide a basket with food for her own group.

REUNION OF FRIENDS
INSPIRES PARTY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton E. Thaxter on Torrance boulevard was the scene of a delightfully intimate reunion of out-of-town friends when they entertained Saturday evening. Bridge furnished diversion for the group and honors for high score were awarded to Miss Margaret Knapp and Robert Gamage. Invited were Mrs. P. M. Price of San Gabriel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gamage of Santa Barbara, Miss Margaret Knapp and William Mortland of Fresno. Asters and dallas in profusion added to the attractiveness of the party. Refreshments were served.

MANHATTAN BEACH RATE
MAY REMAIN AS IS

It is expected that Manhattan Beach's 1931-32 tax rate will be about $1.26, according to reports received from that city today. The council is still working on the budget and is not expected to announce the exact rate until Monday.

Sulu Ruler

No one accuses this former U. S. Army officer, J. R. Fugate, of having a soft job as governor of Sulu province in the Philippines. However, Gov. Fugate, who is spending a brief vacation in San Francisco, says that the former warlike tendencies of the fierce Moro tribes have somewhat abated. Agriculture, fishing and constructive tasks under American guidance have superseded native warfare to a great extent.

Problem of Alondra Park Will Be Probed

The park is within Los Angeles city territory, but adjoins Torrance at Riverside-Redondo boulevard at Cypress avenue. It is the only available acreage for a park in the southwest portion of Los Angeles, and while it is not in county territory, it is contiguous to such area.

The Torrance chamber endorsed the Los Angeles Junior Chamber's proposal and voted to ask the city council to approve the plan as far as possible.
