No Subsidy of Night Ball Games Until Present Season Is Over, Chamber Tells Backers of Field

Night ball games at the illuminated field will continue under the present system of management without a subsidy from the Chamber of Commerce until the end of the season. This was decided by the directors of the chamber Monday afternoon after Ed Tansey, manager of the Red Jackets and one of the five citizens who built the grandstand, had asked the chamber to pay off the balance due on the structure and take over the direction of the field.

Tansey produced a financial statement showing that on August 10, the committee of five who contracted to assume all bills for the field after the lights had been installed by the chamber had a deficit of $318.35 starting them in the face. He declared that the gate receipts have not been up to expectations and as the season is rapidly drawing to a close, the five backers will be forced to bear a bad loss.

Suggest Benefit Game
Because of the keen interest in night baseball here, the directorate of the chamber were of the opinion that the games were of high civic value but they were loath to take over any debts of management now. The only action taken was to postpone any decision on the matter until the season was over and then discuss the possible deficit. It was suggested that a benefit game be arranged between Tansey's Red Jackets and the American Legion Vets to raise funds for clearing part of the debt.

The financial statement introduced by Tansey was prepared by George Probert, another member of the "quietest backing" field. It showed that the accounts payable, after the grandstand was constructed, the field laid out and the light bills added, totalled $630.85. Of this sum, $139.50 went for equipment, labor and umpires' fees. The total receipts of all local games up to and including August 10 were $861.75, of which the Red Jackets games collected $262.44, the local league games, $54.31, and the entrance fees for local teams totalled $15.

"Looking 'Em Over"

By SIDE LINER

If there ever was a reason for a moratorium—George Probert, Paul Vonderhe, Ed Tansey, Earl Conner and Bill Morris have one. They would like to declare a "postponement" on a $400 bill that appears to grow larger and larger as time goes on. The "bad news" is the deficit they are facing in the night baseball season.

Everything was rosy when the season started. The names five agreed to underwrite the construction of the grandstand and current monthly expenses. Then Ole Man Depression crept up on 'em and slapped 'em back about four C's.

If the fans who flock to the games would be a little more generous with their contributions—things wouldn't be so tough and Torrance's first night-baseball season might leave a better taste in that quintet's collective mouths when it halts—some four or five weeks hence.

THREE PITCHERS FAIL TO KEEP LOMITA FROM WIN
LOMITA.—Huntington Park Elks put in three pitchers Sunday but the local team hit them all, while the Elks couldn't find McCord, pitching for Lomita, at all. McCord, who played with Lomita for the first time Sunday, pitched a wonderful game and Lomita fans will watch him in future games. It was a good game Sunday, in spite of the score, 11 to 2.

Legion's Hardball Team Wins Again

Continuing their winning streak, the American Legion hardball baseball team defeated the Japanese All-Stars on the High school diamond here last Sunday afternoon, 5 to 4. Oetkins striking a fine game for the veterans, pitching out 14 Nippons. Steger was catcher for the local team. The Legion's batterymen provided the features of the game when they both poled out triples.

Manager "Mugsy" Butler is looking for bigger and better competition for future games, claiming that the Legion regular ball team has defeated everything in the nature of a hardball outfit in this district. He "points with pride" to the fact that seven out of the nine regulars on the Legion team are veterans of the A. E. F., and that they are playing an exceptionally fine brand of ball.

REDONDO ALL-STARS ARE BEATEN BY RED JACKETS

By defeating the Redondo All-Stars (composed of outstanding players on the 20-30 Club and Lions' Club league-leading teams in the beach city) 5 to 2, the Red Jackets provided local fans with an exceptionally fast game here Monday night. Young Pete Harries pitched his consistent game, striking out nine men. Foltz, Redondo hurler, whiffed four Red Jackets. Seifert's home run for Redondo in the seventh was a feature, as was L. McBride's work at shortstop.

PILLROLLERS WIN

By adding three runs in the tenth, the Torrance Pharmacy beat the Bible Class in an overtime game here last Thursday night, 8 to 5. The Pharmacists still retain their top position in the City League.

DEFEAT WESTMINSTER

Westminster's night ball team lead Tansey's Red Jackets, 2 to 1, here Friday night until the eighth inning when Leonard and Lauer scored for the locals to end the game, 5 to 2. Westminster proved it had a fast-working aggregation of indoor players and a return game is pending.

BUILDERS OF CALIFORNIA

Fresh Meats for everyone

.. thanks to Refrigeration

COOLED by tons of salted ice, refrigerator cars speed fresh meats to every town and hamlet. But for this modern method, many communities would still depend on salt pork and barreled beef!

Meat packing companies maintain vast systems of distribution in this state—pay five million dollars in annual wages—buy approximately 60 million dollars' worth of California livestock every year.

Credit, extended by Bank of America, helps to provide a year-around cash market for livestock producers.

In distributing meats, the packers also make constructive use of this Bank's statewide service.

Through Bank of America branches in all parts of the state, they accumulate funds collected from dealers.

The Bank promptly forwards these funds to any designated point. Thus large sums that would otherwise remain in transit are released for productive use.

This is one of many economies that enable the packers to conduct their business on a small fraction of the consumer's dollar.

Your banking requirements may be less complex. But whether you desire the most complete commercial facilities, or a sound, convenient depository for savings, Bank of America is equipped to serve you well.

7 of the 8 largest meat packing companies operating in California are depositors in Bank of America
