"Bounty" Is Given Okay

In an effort to break an unfortunate deadlock that is tying up flood control work in the San Gabriel canyon, a project that will cost about $22,000,000 and employ work to hundreds of men, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce is lending the movement to recognize the county's payment of $125,000 "bounty" to the San Gabriel riparian claimants who are holding out for a $125,000 payment.

The county's offer of $100,000 is being turned down by the claimants, who insist on the higher figure. Because the work is of such importance to the entire county, the Los Angeles chamber is endeavoring to obtain public recognition of such "bounty" extra payment and asked the local Chamber of Commerce to lend its approval to the move. This was done at Monday afternoon's meeting of the local organization's board of directors.

Andrews WALL HEATERS

While we are equipped to furnish any type of heating equipment, we especially recommend Andrews Wall Heaters. They are easy to install in old as well as new houses and do not take up valuable floor space.

Unlike radiant heaters, the opposite side of the room is heated as well as the space in front of the heater. Pure air is drawn in from the outside, heated and circulated to all parts of the room.

More Wild Flower Planting Urged By Councilman Bell

The one next to their home, and plant it to wild flowers. They will be well repaid by the beauty they create. I personally will be glad to send them a leaflet telling how this may best be done and where seeds may be obtained. The Chamber of Commerce also now has a supply of these leaflets which may be had for the asking.

"Seeds May Become Free"

"I believe that Torrance will not be found wanting in the matter of beauty when the wild flowers bloom later in the year, we will be among the leaders.

"Several experimental lots were planted over one year ago. These bloomed exceptionally well and the seeds were allowed to ripen. All seeds were removed and the seeds harvested and saved for planting this year. If possible this practice will be followed this year and it is hoped that seeds will in this way be available in sufficient quantity so that they may be supplied free of cost another year to those who want to plant their own lots.

"Inasmuch as several people have called me up asking when they would have a chance to do my bit, and have also called on our Chamber of Commerce seeking the same information, I wish you would give the above information the publicity it deserves. From former experiences I judge you will agree with the 100 per cent. Bell's letter concludes.

Father of Local Merchant Victim of Accident Here

Intersection about 50 feet. Mr. Schwartzbach stepped directly in front of the car from the curb, Edwards reported. Eyewitnesses to the accident were Mr. and Mrs. Otis Cottinians, of Ventura, the officer said.

The investigating officer declared that the night was yet clear at the time of the accident and the pavement dry. The lighting at the intersection was not broad enough to include the place where it occurred, Edwards said.

Lived Here 9 Years

Mr. Schwartzbach, who was born in Austria, came to California in 1913. He was a widower and had made his home with his son, Ed, for the past nine years. Funeral arrangements will be made this afternoon and the services will probably be held at Anaheim where another son and a daughter reside.

Survivors are: Four sons, Alfred of Long Beach, Joseph of Vista, Rudolph of Anaheim, and Ed of this city; and four daughters, Mrs. Helen Van Hagen of Westwood, Mrs. Emma Berghofer of Anaheim, Mrs. Pauline Dixon of Storm Lake, Iowa, and Mrs. Frieda Trainor of Ward, South Dakota.

at fox redondo Modern Screen Dramas Are On Screen This Week

Modern screen productions, up-to-the-minute with 1932 fashions, tempo and story power—that's the description of the Fox Redondo's bill for the coming week. Starting with "The Tip-Off," Saturday only, the Fox Redondo will present a program of four feature productions with casts you like. Eddie Quillen and Robert Armstrong play the leads in that ray story of racing life, "The Tip-Off."

Norma Shearer shares starring honors with Robert Montgomery in "Private Lives," Sunday and Monday. These two young people are cast in a drama of modern events, story of after-married life, the continuation and enlargement of a great, though often misplaced affection.

Stepping Sisters

"Stepping Sisters" is a picture you can't say enough about. Comedy combines with thrills to make it a talkie you'll want to see Tuesday or Wednesday.

Then on Thursday and Friday comes that surprising tale that was filmed from the Liberty Magazine story, "Corsair," with Chester Morris in the role of that bold, bad buccanner of the 20th century.

Dog Fight Brings On Argument and One Reconciliation

The love of a man for his dog is well, ask Bob McCaffery or Nelson Reeves, old time residents and cronies in Torrance. The story of their affection for their respective canine companions involves a battle royal between the two pets, a somewhat heated argument between their owners and finally a reconciliation between—but read on.

Dog McCaffery met Dog Reeve as McCaffery and Reeve got together one day last week for a little quiet talk about the weather, Christmas and this new year. The canines' meeting was not so quiet—in fact, they barked and went to it without benefit of "sitting" or the song. The two men grabbed each other's pet and in the melee both struggling dogs bit their holders.

The double injuries brought prompt retaliation on the part of the bitten men to exposed parts of their respective biters. Then came the climax: Both men objected to each other's punishment of his pet and action, best described as verbal calisthenics, ensued.

Reports from the joint battleground have it that before the two old friends had seen the folly of their argument—the dogs had agreed to agree and unblatantly, amble off to see if that white cat was still hanging around waiting for trouble.

at torrance

Jackie Cooper, the phenomenal towheaded boy who teamed so effectively with wistful and brunette Robert Coogan in the first Percy Crosby story to reach the screen, "Skippy," co-stars again with Coogan in a new Shantytown adventure for the Crosby successor, "Sooky," which opens a three-day run at the Torrance Theatre, Tuesday.

Paramount, which produced the first Crosby hit, in its successor wisely has maintained as much of the original cast and technical staff as possible.

In addition to Cooper as "Skip" and Coogan as "Sooky," five other members of the "Skippy" cast carry on in roles which they created. They are Jackie Searl as "Skinner," William Robertson as "Dr. Skinner," Ed Bennett as "Mrs. Skinner," Helen Jerome Eddy as "Mrs. Wayne," and Guy Oliver as "Mr. Moggs."

The story centers chiefly in the efforts of Skippy and Sooky to build their own cadet corps after they have decided the Boone Boys in the fashionable neighborhood are too snooty and need a ribbing. Their ruses, tricks, frolics and goat turns, with and at the expense of fathers, mothers, dogs and little pets and trinkets, constitute a luscious slice of typical boyhood.

The conclusion is emotionally potent.

All-City High School Band Concert, Jan. 8

The All-City High School band, with representatives from high schools throughout the city, will be presented in a program by the various boys' musical organizations at Polytechnic High school auditorium on Friday evening, January 8. Also on the program, there will be vocal numbers by a boys' glee club, to be chosen from one of the larger high schools.

Complimentary tickets for the concert may be secured from Junior and senior high school music department heads and from the secretary of the music division, 808 Braun Building. The general public is invited to attend, free of charge, although it will be necessary to present admission tickets.

Doin's of th'

By DUETTE HILL

Buss just got a swell perfume letter from a girl way back East. He made a hit with 'er when she was visitin' out here last year, 'n she wants 'im to give up cowpunchin' 'n leave us.

"Shooka! You loco hombres," says Buss, "Jes listen to this:—

"Why! I am just a cowboy, pitted by some who say That a cowhand's life is lonely, and they wouldn't live that way."

"N then, I sit and pity them, for the things that they have missed. Why! I am really livin' while there they just exist."

"I see the stars of mornings, before the break of day. An' smell the grass that's damp from frost, that the cattle eat for hay. My nag humps up in the middle, an' feelin' good, he thinks he might."

Just love to leave me sittin' there to see it come daylight."

"I hear the coyotes yehin', and I see a streak of red 'N all the livin' things out there are up and out of bed. The calves are gettin' their break-fasts as I ride up o'er the divide. A bunch of horses nicker and trot off to one side."

"And after a little racin' we all decide it's best To take the trail that leads to camp, and head out towards the west."

So you see there's so much livin' and my life's so human and free. I could sit and tell you a million things, why I'd rather a cowboy be."
