Clippers made sail-ing histôry in the early days and operators of the old ship. They were the pride of ambitious ship-owners. Today there are but few in actual service—steam power he Lottie Bennett as she en-d the harbor and below and seas.

Times' Newswoman Gives Our Hostess Story In Column

Story in Column Recognition of Mrs. Phoebe Mil-burn's Meighborly services here was given our city hostega by Alma Whitaker, Los Atigeles Times newswoman, in her Sunday column, "Bugar and Spice." The Times writer paragraphs: "There is a little lady samed Phoebe Milburn, living at Tor-rance for many years, who has constituted hereal's fond new melighbor. Shid obtains the mames and addresses of any people moving into the town, calls and gives them all sorts of useful alc. She tells them all about the school nearest them for their children, explains should stores, can licenses, ehurches, etc.-all those count-less things one has to learn so laboriously in a new town." But Alma was allstilly in error when she wrote that our Mr Milburn "constituted "heread ford new neighbor" she is of ficially 'City Hostes, being an ourded that tille by the Chambe of Commerce. Do we hear Mis Whitaker saying "Grammercy", for this bit of addenda?

And We Certainly Like Candy, Too! Harry A. Young, city em-ploye, and proprietor of the Young's Market, 2517 Carson street, presented the Herald staff with a sample of his' skill as a candy maker this week. The sample was a sort of a glorified pecan roll, made up of coccenut, figs, cherries, moided together and wrapped in a costing of caramel and nuta. It is a blend that pleases the sys and palate. Young supplied a great many of his feined at Christmas with the candy, and complimented this office with some too.
