

Ben Hill Pledges to Fight Mattoon Act If Re-elected

If re-elected to the state assembly, Ben Hill, incumbent, promises to introduce a bill to kill the vicious Mattoon street assessment act. There are many other problems for the legislature to solve, which vitally affect the welfare of every man, woman and child in the state; and I feel that I am competent to deal with these problems," Mr. Hill stated.

will save millions of dollars to home and property owners. He proposed and fought for a shorter work day and week, for the benefit of the wage earner and the unemployed, and as an economic relief measure. He sponsored and fought for more economic and simplified court procedure. He fought for the interests of the fishing industries, and the conservation and protection of the state's fish and game. He opposed unnecessary appropriations, and continuously fought for economy in state government.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DOINGS

The Los Angeles harbor commission was host to the Torrance elementary school teachers Navy day. They sponsored a boat ride around the harbor and Terminal Island and pointed out the recent developments of interest.

After the sight-seeing trip around the bay an informal dinner party was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Holland at 1355 West 18th street, San Pedro. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Wm. Bell, Jr., M. A. Russell, Lesson Godwin, Harry Sweet, Geo. H. Alvord; Mesdames Sylvia Lane Nelson, Merriam, Armeta P. Bond, Gertrude Haydon, Bessie Haskins, Grace Riness, Alice J. Boehme, Bessie Swisher, Arthur Husted, Sody, Nellie Bradford, Mabel Peterson, Juliet Young, Helen Dalton, Lila Kean Deleissogues, Eunice Baer, Nellie K. Ryan, Hilda Powell, Jennings, Emma Blake; the Misses Alma Bliss, Ruth Relyea, Cora Holt, Louvenia Bandinot, Madeline Murphy, Grace Burnham, Benora Knupp, Vivian Young, Marjorie Bond, Alma Griffin and Virginia Bell; also Messrs. Richard Mogle and Neil Lynch.

The P. T. A. membership contest between the grade rooms closed October 31. Mrs. Husted's room secured the greatest number of members and will have the pleasure of having the P. T. A. party Friday.

Miss Grace Dering, orchestra supervisor, visited the Torrance elementary school October 31. She found the orchestra doing satisfactory work.

DURHAM, N. H.—(U.P.)—The police dog mascot of a University of New Hampshire fraternity slept soundly while thieves robbed the house, but would not let Police Chief Louis Boyden enter when he arrived to investigate.

—at Narbonne High School

Students and many other friends of Orville Gidley, woodshop teacher at Narbonne, were shocked to learn of his sudden death Thursday, October 20. Although he had been ill for almost two weeks, the seriousness of his condition had not been realized. Funeral services were held Saturday at 10:00 a. m. at the Edwards Mortuary in Los Angeles and were attended by many members of the Narbonne faculty.

During the more than 15 years that Mr. Gidley taught in Lomita—both at Narbonne and the old Lomita school—he had won a secure place in the affections of the students by his kindness and insistence on fair play.

Six Narbonne students will participate in High School Day at the Broadway Department store in Los Angeles. They were chosen by Miss Mason from her salesmanship class and will receive practical experience along this line when they go to the Broadway, November 10. Those chosen were Robert Stock, Franklin Smealley, Geneva Backus, Pauline Powell, Lois Haslam and Virginia Shock.

Four boys were recently admitted to membership in the Vigilantes, boys' honor organization at Narbonne. This brings the total membership to 12. The new members are Carl Williams and Ralph Altman, A12's; Dick Bylin and Sheppard Coward, A11's. The old members include James Gannon, Mickey Mulken, Elmer Holman, Robert Stock, Bob Brumpton, Wilfred Walker, Wellourn Jeter and Mike Yelovich.

Five new Jane Addams' girls were chosen to fill the places of the girls who graduated last semester. The new members of this girls' service club are Betty Myerscough, Velaine Flint and Marie Parsons, B12's; Madeline M. Mackay and Mildred Robertson, A11's. They were initiated by having to wear hair ribbons and to carry their books and a doll in a bucket.

To arouse interest in the Community Chest in the neighboring elementary schools, members of the B10 oral English class at Narbonne presented a short play, "Open Your Heart and Swell Your Chest," Tuesday, November 1, under the direction of Miss Holloway.

The play was given at the Harbor City, Lomita, Orange street, and Walteria elementary schools. The cast was as follows: A solicitor, Art Carrick; the Spirit of Charity, Rosemary King; an old lady from a Home, Virginia Mertz; a cripple from the children's Hospital, Wilbur Maddy; Salvation Army lass, Esther Peterson; Bud, a solicitor, Earl Sterling.

Committees have been appointed for the junior play, "Stray Cats," which will be presented at Narbonne Friday night, December 2. Mr. Hunt is in charge of the advertising, assisted by Alton Bergstrom, LeRoy Backlund and Walter Hoffman.

Miss Mason is in charge of the ticket selling, assisted by two of the junior advisors, Miss Mutch and Miss Chadwick, and a student committee made up of Geneva Strub, Carl Starkey and Gene Twa.

Miss Stiff, another junior advisor, heads the costume committee. Other members are Helen Gough, Merrill Pankey, Helen Hall and Harriet Pink.

Mr. Willebrandt is supervising the stage sets, being assisted by his stagecraft class. This year instead of putting wall paper on

Let's Be Comfortable

A modern natural gas floor furnace is the ideal heating appliance for the Southern California bungalow. It is easily and inexpensively installed in practically any home, takes no room space, and is decidedly economical to operate. A turn of a key, any time, starts warm, fresh air flooding into every corner. There is no delay --- no waiting.

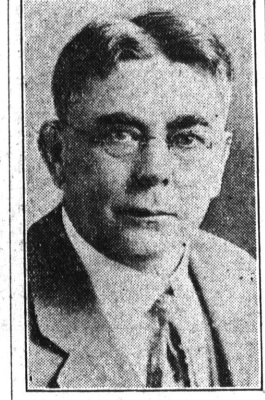

See these modern heating appliances in the display of your dealer or gas company, and look for the Blue Star Seal of the American Gas Association Testing Laboratory.

Congress in this district. Many of the most ardent supporters of President Hoover in this community have expressed themselves openly in favor of Charley Colden for Congress, because they have known him for many years and have learned that he is honest, fearless and capable. His laudable service as president of the Los Angeles harbor commission and as councilman from the harbor district won for him the confidence and respect of citizens in this district regardless of political affiliations. A large number of voters realize the futility of sending a Republican to a Democratic congress, and admit that the election of Charles J. Colden is the only practical method of securing prompt and considerate action on matters which affect Torrance and the harbor district.

Election Assured

The 17th congressional district, of which Torrance is a part, has a registered Democratic majority of over 7000 voters. This party lead, coupled with the support of many registered Republicans, virtually assures the election of Colden next Tuesday, those close to the political situation in this district predict.
