Dartmouth Cup Goes to Narbonne Champs For the Second Time

Two representatives of the Dartmouth Club of Southern California visited Narbonne high school, Los Angeles, Monday afternoon to present the school with a handsome silver trophy cup awarded each year to the Marine League football team which combined to the required degree athletic prowess and scholastic attainments.

The Dartmouth Club awards a cup to the winners in each of the five Southern California high school leagues, and the qualifications on which the award is based are a combination of athletic and scholastic.

Standing in athletic competition is added to the rating in their studies achieved by members of the team to form the basis of the award and it is not always the football champion team which wins this coveted cup.

Narbonne has won the trophy for the second year and will become the permanent owners of this cup after winning it for the third time. The presentation was made at an honor assembly Monday when all students of the senior high school who had earned their letters or other awards during the year were called up to receive them.

Marketeters In Tough Battle to Down Merchants

Ray Townsend's Torrance Merchants lost to the L. A. City Markets Sunday afternoon by the narrow margin of one run, 12-11, after a hard game in which errors on the part of the Merchants and heavy hitting by the visitors played their parts.

The Marketeters were away to a lead at the end of the fourth inning, but steady play kept the Merchants in the game and brought them almost to a level with their opponents. Torrance was on the short end of a 11-1 score at the end of the sixth, but they pounded Meritt for four runs in the seventh and repeated at the expense of Meritt in the eighth and the big lead faded almost but not quite away.

One run off Conroy for the Marketeters in the lucky seventh was all that saved the day for the visitors. Daveport was touched for about 14 blows during the six innings he stayed on the mound for Torrance.

Next Sunday the Merchants will play the J.H. Wall team on the city park grounds.

Four Home Runs Aid Bluebirds to Down Poets

Tuesday night's contest between the Bluebirds and the Whittier Poets was unique in baseball history in that out of the 12 combined hits registered by the teams, six were homers, with Torrance getting four out of the six.

L. Nova, who is a fast crowding batter, led off the bench with his mighty slugging ability, crowned one in the first inning after two were out. Forney held the spotlight in the second inning, and Scott pushed him out of the way in the fifth for his second circuit swing, making four runs gathered by the Birds on homers. The Birds' other run came in the fourth on a double by Paul Nava, who scored on Forney's long hit. Forney went to third on Watson's single and the next two were out, ending the inning.

Jerber scored the Poet's first run in the second on a hit sacrifice and a single. Porter got a homer in the third and Daveport, in the fourth. Only 29 batters faced Nava during the game.

Saints' New Hurler Fails To Halt Birds

Thirteenth straight game in the bag last Friday night. Second new hurler for Santa Ana, had plenty of speed and control Friday night but the Bluebirds scored out of reach just the same, riding on a flock of 16 hits to a 7-6 victory. Not a hit reached first on a pass, and only one on an error which came in the first inning and failed to develop into a run.

The Saints' best inning was the sixth when four hits and an error counted for four runs, after one was down. Wilcox whiffed and Secord was thrown out at second on a beautiful peg from Ables in right to Scott for the third out as he was trying to stretch his single into a ticket for two bases. This put the Saints in the lead, 4-1, which the Birds canceled in the seventh on four hits and three runs.

Coming up in the ninth, Corral, hitting for Secord, struck out. Hill walked and went to second on Demmy's single. Merrill slid out to center and Daley tripled, scoring Hill and Demmy. Ballard slid out to Paul Nava, leaving Daley stranded at third. Two runs, score 4-4.

In the third half, Corral pitched for Secord. Louis Nava hit the first ball in by whiffed and the second for a homer, thus ending the day, and striking out the Bluebirds' 12th straight win.

Redondo Hosts At Navy Boxing Bouts Tonight

It is expected that a large representation of fight fans from Torrance and vicinity will be on deck tonight in Redondo, when a program of navy bouts will be staged under the auspices of the South Bay Business Association, which is a newly affiliated arm of the Chamber of Commerce.

The card will consist of six hot battles between the gladiators of the U. S. S. Maryland and those of the Tennessee, and will be under navy supervision, as a part of regular navy activities. They are designed as an appetizer for the forthcoming Navy Day program in Redondo scheduled for the Fourth of July, and great pains have been taken to make this card a standout from opening going to final count.

The new boys' gym at Redondo Union high school has been secured for the event tonight, located on Irena street, and will be found to be an ideal setting for an event of this kind, with ample seating capacity and marvelous ventilation. Boy Scouts will be on hand on all streets leading to the arena in order that visitors may easily find the location; the card will be full of action, and the price will be so easy on the purse that the hopes of the Redondo civic organizations sponsoring the event for a full turnout from this vicinity should be fulfilled. A portion of the receipts of tonight's show will be turned over to the Navy Relief, in accordance with navy custom.

Texaco Oilers Too Slippery For Cleaners

Long Beach visitors win heavy slugging game Thursday. Texaco of Long Beach turned out to be too slippery for Frank's Dry Cleaners Thursday night and won 13-11. Foster started on the mound for Frank's and lasted four rounds. He was wild as a hawk, passed six men and hit two during his turn in the box, but was fairly effective in the tight spots and struck out six batters. He left the game with the score 1-0 in favor of the visitors and was relieved by Holman who lasted two frames.

Holman was steady enough but the visitors held his style so well that they gathered six hits and seven runs off him and Holman retired in favor of Gleason.

After getting off to a bad start when six more hits and four more runs were chalked up Gleason settled down and kept the visitors until the ninth when Sanchez's homer added another tally.

Frank's best innings were the fourth, sixth and seventh, when he pitched for extra runs. Heavy hitting for extra runs was the rule on each side.

Lomita Pads Percentage By Beating Browns

Muddy holds visitors to lone tally registered in eighth. The St. Louis Browns Junior was amazingly outmanned Sunday when Walt Morris' Lomita pitchers padded their percentage with a decisive victory, 5-1, before a large crowd at fans at the Lomita ball park.

Only seven hits were gathered off Morris and McDonald for the Carpenter, 2b. 4 2 2; Brown, 1b. 2 0 2; Hill, cf. 1 0 1; McDonald, p. 1 0 1; Gleason, 2b. 1 0 1; Foster, p. 2 0 2; one of the visitors reached first on a pass and one man was hit by a pitched ball in Van Tress' inning and had to retire from the game. Van Tress played a whole game for the Merchants, with a homer, a three-base hit, a stolen base, four runs, two assists and no errors to his credit in the six innings.

Brown, Lomita, left fielder, sprained his ankle in the third inning and had to retire from the game. According to his attending physician he will be around again in a few days as the injury was not serious.

The Merchants will play the Los Angeles team next Sunday at the home grounds, and expect to have the services of Ted Greeney hitting in the outfield for this game. All the fans in attendance as he has been playing ball heroically for a long time, where he was one of the favorites with the late Ed Tanney's well-known Torrance Blues.

Daring Riders In Twenty Motorcycle Events Next Sunday

With the Gardena Valley American Legion's motorcycle races entering their third week, interest in this new, fast, short-track is rapidly increasing.

Six breath-taking tumbles last Sunday, kept the spectators on their feet during every event. A broken collar bone was the only bad result.

Sunday, June 25, the new track will feature two match races, between Manuel Trupillo and Wally Wakefield, whose spectacular finish in the fifth race last Sunday, raises the question as to which of these riders will finish first. Then Emmett Mosman will be pitted against Jack Long, both of these boys being crowd pleasers with their sensational manner of handling their motors.

Twenty events, with a flock of California's most daring riders, will appear at the Gardena Legion Motor Bowl, 175th and Vermont, Sunday at 2:00 p. m.
