Lanz-McInerney Nuptial Is Surprise To Friends Here

Mr. Bert W. Lanz, general manager of the Columbia Steel Company at Torrance, and Miss Annabelle McInerney of Chicago, surprised their friends with the announcement of their marriage last week. The ceremony took place Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Yuma, Arizona, and was performed by Judge Freeman, who has officiated at the weddings of many celebrated motion picture stars. Attendants of the bride and groom were the son and daughter of Judge and Mrs. Freeman.

After a brief honeymoon aboard the groom's yacht, Sea-Bee, at Catalina, Mr. and Mrs. Lanz returned this week to make their home with Mr. Lanz's parents at 1418 Engracia avenue.

American Legion Auxiliary News

Mrs. Lon Ralston and Mrs. Robert Lowellen represented Bert S. Crossland unit at the child welfare bridge in Maywood Legion hall Tuesday afternoon. Members of the whole 19th district joined in making the affair an outstanding success. Owing to the enormous crowd who attended the affair, prizes were awarded by drawing numbers. Each of the Torrance representatives secured a lovely prize.

Regular business meeting, Monday evening, April 16. Membership wind-up, Sunday, April 15. Southern dinner tonight at Woman's Club clubhouse.

Distinguished Guests Attend A. L. A. Party

Two hundred and fifty members of the American Legion Auxiliary, representing units of the 19th district, gathered at the American Legion hall, Carson street, for their quarterly meeting Thursday evening. Mary Starkey, president of the district, presided at the meeting.

Ernestine Aylward, state president of the American Legion Auxiliary, attended the meeting and lauded the units of the district for their splendid work. She spoke briefly of veteran legislation recently enacted in Washington.

Other distinguished guests included Beatrice Trumbull, president of fourth area American Legion Auxiliary; Monica Forster, state rehabilitation chairman; Pauline Ellison, member of state finance board, and Steve Cope, commander of the 19th district American Legion. Martha Decker, state distinguished guest chairman, presented the guests who spoke briefly. Mrs. Decker then announced that California is to be honored by a visit from our national president, Mrs. Ray F. Blester. Mrs. Blester will be in Los Angeles at the Patriotic hall, Figueroa street, May 17. A luncheon will be given in her honor and she will speak on the afternoon program. Mrs. Blester possesses a dynamic personality and is a speaker of ability.

Prior to the regular meeting Thursday evening, a short memorial service was conducted under the direction of the district chaplain, assisted by Babe Schmitt, district sergeant-at-arms, and members of Whittier drill team. Beside the service, the chairman of the district, urged all members to co-operate in the annual poppy sale prior to memorial day.

Hostesses for the meeting included Mesdames Maude Deiningner, Lucille Lowellen, Roxie Sleeth, Olive Lee, May Howe, Gertrude Ralston, Hallie Doan and Virginia Scott.

Young Radio Singer Weds Torrance Girl

An event which must have smashed many feminine hearts both in the San Francisco and Los Angeles areas was the marriage on Monday, April 2, at noon, of Jimmy Newill, young radio soloist, son of Mrs. J. W. Newill of 558 Ramona avenue, this city. The girl in the case is, or was, Miss Ethel Snye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snye of Torrance.

The wedding occurred at Jimmie's apartment in the St. Francis hotel where Gus Arnhem and his orchestra with the young Hawthorne boy as his premier soloist, are playing an extended engagement. Following the ceremony, the hotel management gave a wedding dinner in the hotel for the newly-wedded, and afterwards Gus Arnhem held a reception in his apartment in the hotel for Jimmie and his bride, at which orchestra members and many prominent people were present and offered congratulations to the young couple.

Mrs. Newill, Sr., was present for the wedding and all of the following festivities, enjoying a pleasurable thrill from the attentions which were showered by many notables of San Francisco social life upon her son and his bride.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Will left Monday afternoon for Del Monte where they spent a honeymoon of a day, returning to San Francisco Tuesday. They are making their home in an apartment at the St. Francis.

San Francisco newspapers carried extensive stories of the wedding and the events which followed, together with pictures of the principals.

The marriage of Jimmie and Miss Snye was the outgrowth of a high school romance, the two having met while he was a student at Gardena high school, and she at Torrance high. As yet, Mrs. Newill is a stenographer and was employed in Los Angeles until a month ago—Hawthorne Advertiser.

KEYSTONE CLUB NOTES
Keystone Women's Club members held their regular meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. George Nahmens on Carson street. After luncheon a splendid program was presented, with Mrs. James Crumrine as chairman.

Mrs. Frances Everett of the University Book Club, reviewed several of the late books. In addition were "Modern Tragedy" by Phyllis Bentley, "The Proselets" by Susan Ertz, "House of Exiles" by Nora Wallin, and "Matters of the Heart" by Louis Adamic.

Miss Mary Hillman of Long Beach gave two delightful readings, "The Little Hero" and Edgar Guest's poem, "Pretending Not to See." Little Neva June Lowen presented several songs and dance numbers and was applauded enthusiastically.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected at this meeting. Mrs. C. E. Farahman was elected president; Mrs. John Hilpert, first vice president; Mrs. S. C. Sault, second vice president; Mrs. Charles Forest, recording secretary; Mrs. Frank Sullivan, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. E. Banks, treasurer, and Mrs. C. Bailey, auditor.
