A. L. A. Southern Dinner Season's Smart Affair

Dressed in gowns of the sunny Southland, their hair powdered, past presidents of the Bert S. Crossland Unit 170, American Legion Auxiliary, were charming hostesses at the dinner given by the auxiliary in the Woman's Club clubhouse, 1422 Engracia avenue, Thursday evening. Members of the auxiliary who served the dinner were attire of dark origin, and sultan makeup.

Two hundred persons attended the dinner which was deliciously Southern in every detail. Tables were attractively decorated with cotton blossoms and white tapers in ancient candelabras.

Entertainment during the dinner was furnished by three little ladies who appeared in George White's Scandals, as Jean-dolla, Joyce Entchel of Los Angeles, acted as mistress of ceremonies and presented Neva June Lowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lowen, 904 Beech avenue, and Barbara

DALTONS HOSTS TO YOUNGER SET

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dalton, with Mr. Dalton's sister, Mrs. Elsie Bubar, of Vancouver, entertained members of the younger set with a week-end party at the Dalton ranch home near Little Rock.

The party left Torrance at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, arriving at the ranch in time for lunch. After a hearty dinner the group attended the dance in Little Rock. They arrived home Sunday evening.

KEYSTONE CLUB FETES RETIRING PRESIDENT

Informal and a lovely gesture was the tea given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Crumrine, Keystone, by members of the Keystone Woman's Club executive board in honor of their retiring president, Mrs. Thomas Cowan. Thirty ladies attended the affair and presented Mrs. Cowan with a gift from the group.

ATTEND PARTY IN HUNTINGTON BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kasper, 1736 Gramery avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Riggs, 1630 Beech avenue, attended a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Koppl in Huntington Beach, Saturday evening.

MOTHERS' AUXILIARY TO MEET

Scout Mothers' Auxiliary to Troop No. 5, Boy Scouts of America, will hold their regular business and social meeting at the home of Mrs. G. Gossloux, 1922 222nd street, Monday, April 23, at 7:30 p. m.

Auto Club Plans Outing Show

Designed to intrigue outdoor enthusiasts is the above scene which, except for the young lady campers, will be typical of the many exhibits in the Automobile Club of Southern California's first annual free Campers' Outing Show, to be held at the club's headquarters, 1422 Engracia avenue, on April 21-22.

DISTRICT CONVENTION

Attendance at the fifteenth annual convention of the Los Angeles District, Business and Professional Women's club, measured 150 delegates to the convention and probably three times that number of guests at the annual banquet served Saturday night at the Vista del Arroyo Hotel, Pasadena.

Baron Hans Nordewin, von Koerber, of the University of Southern California, was the speaker of the evening. His talk on "Symbols of Tibet" was deeply interesting. Baron von Koerber lived among Tibetans for four years, perhaps the only European who has ever been accorded such a privilege, and his information regarding that isolated country and its people was gained at first hand.

Miss Winifred Frye, president of the California Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, spoke during luncheon hour on Saturday on "The Federation's Responsibility Toward Education."

Election of district officers for 1934-35 resulted in the choice of Mrs. Anne Leidenicker of Los Angeles, for president; Georgya Holley, of Long Beach, vice president. Installation of officers will be held at Long Beach on June 9.

Mrs. Norma Ruth Sherwood Fritsche, of the Hawthorne club, winner of last year's music contest, was awarded first place again this year. Hawthorne also won first place in the contest conducted during the year on purchases of emblematic material.

Those who attended as delegates from Torrance were Mrs. Juliet M. Young, president of the Bay District section; Mrs. Laila P. Bowen, president of the Torrance club; Miss Beatrice Hughes and Miss Lute Fraser.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BANQUET

The ladies of the Christian Mothers' Association, of the annual Mother and Daughter banquet, which will be given during the week preceding May 13. The exact date has not yet been fixed pending arrangements with a speaker for the occasion but will be announced later. All those interested are asked to watch for the date, and to make their reservations early.

MONTHLY SOCIAL

Torrance Lodge No. 33, A. O. U. W., held its monthly social Thursday. Fifteen tables were set for bridge, pinocle and five hundred. Prizes were won by Mrs. J. B. Miller, Mrs. McFarland, Mr. T. H. Higgins, T. J. Wilkes, all of Torrance, and Mrs. Wakeley of Whittier.

P. T. A. Meeting At Sacramento

Large delegations from many Southern California cities are expected to attend the meeting of the Parent Teachers Association to be held at Sacramento, May 1 to 4. It was announced here today by Lawson Overman, district passenger agent, Southern Pacific Lines.

Attendance at the meeting is being stimulated by the low identification certificate excursion fares authorized by Southern Pacific for members of the body of 85 per cent of the oneway fare for the round trip.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS ATTEND STAR MEETING

Job's Daughters presented a review of their floor work at the regular meeting of Torrance Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, in the Masonic temple Thursday evening. Their work, beautifully executed, was praised by all Star members.

Mrs. Alta Hudson, program chairman of the evening, presented a splendid program. Pupils from Los Angeles School of Dancing, who have appeared in R. K. O., favored the gathering with dance and acrobatic numbers. Laurella Lancaster gave two pleasing selections on the accordion.

MRS. E. DUNBAR FETED ON BIRTHDAY

A cleverly arranged party was that given at the home of Mrs. E. Dunbar, 1743 Gramery avenue, Sunday evening, in honor of her birthday.

The affair, arranged by Mrs. Dunbar's Eastern Star capsule friend, was a complete surprise. Returning from a dinner with friends in Hollywood, Mrs. Dunbar had no idea that 20 anxious guests awaited her.

W. B. A. PLANS MAY DAY PARTY

Mrs. John Weiss, 716 Border avenue, entertained members of the Woman's Benefit Association at her home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Etta Patterson, former district managing deputy, and Jessie Reeve, past president of the association, were special visitors.

Plans for a May Day party, to which all sister lodges and state officers are to be invited, were completed. The affair will be held in Torrance Woman's Club clubhouse, Tuesday evening, May 1.

Miss McCoy Honored At Club Linen Shower

Twenty-five members of the National Business and Professional Women's Club attended a delightful linen shower given for Miss Theo McCoy at the home of the president, Mrs. Laila P. Bowen, 1327 Cota avenue, Tuesday evening. Miss McCoy received a number of handsome gifts. Her marriage to Arthur Thistle of Lomita will be solemnized on May 10.

The guests were entertained during the early evening at luncheon and refreshments of strawberry shortcake and coffee were served at 10 o'clock. A surprise feature of the evening was the announcement of the coming marriage of another member of the club, Miss Edna Schlichter to Bert Fisher, which will occur on June 14.

YOUR EYES and Your Glasses

Weekly Questions and Answers of Interest to Everyone
By Dr. C. L. Ingold, Local Optometrist

Question: (This question came to me through the mail) What will happen if my eye troubles are not corrected?

Answer: I will name some of the penalties: Eye fatigue, irritability, indigestion, sleepiness when reading, headaches, inflammation of the lids, sties, lowered visual acuteness and vertigo. Not saying anything about possible accidents due to faulty vision and power of mental concentration. Any one of these may be the price you pay for carelessness concerning your eyes. The eyes take huge toll of your nerve energy so that eye fatigue neglected makes you inefficient and slow thinking. In an age where efficiency is prized, a yearly examination is a necessity.

Screen Favorites Play At Benefit Affair

Triolar and Alpine Band Orchestra of the Welner Club of Los Angeles, who have appeared in so many of the German pictures of late, furnished music for dancing and an evening of real entertainment for the 300 persons who attended the benefit dance party honoring Mrs. Joseph Brissinger, 2189 Torrance boulevard, Wednesday evening.

The affair, arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leitner, was a success socially and financially. Mr. and Mrs. Friesel of Lennox, sang and appeared in several of their delightful folk dances. This couple also appear in the German pictures. Mr. Enterman, drummer in the band, sang and yodeled several numbers to the delight of all present. Mr. Ledl, leader of the band, said that the Welner Club, himself and orchestra members, were happy to donate their services to so worthy a cause. Mrs. Flora Waters, 1951 Carson street, donated the hall for the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Mading, Lonita fortists, sent a huge basket of flowers, a gift to the honoree. Mr. and Mrs. Friesel of Lennox, donated the tickets. The entire Southland was represented at the affair and the proceeds presented to Mrs. Brissinger. Mrs. Brissinger, her face wreathed in smiles, related the story to the editor and expressed her sincere thanks to each and everyone who had a part in the venture of good will. Mrs. Brissinger is convalescing from an illness of nine months, during which time one of her legs was amputated.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA IN CONCERT SATURDAY

San Pedro Civic Symphony Orchestra of 40 musicians, directed by Robert Restie, nationally-known conductor, will give a concert Saturday evening, April 23, at the Richard Henry Dana auditorium. The personnel of this orchestra represents the entire harbor district, and their purpose is to bring good music and well-known artistic talent to this locality.

Mrs. Jean Houghton, soprano, will be the vocal soloist. Ambrose Russo, young San Pedro boy violinist, will play a concerto with the orchestra. Many distinguished guests from other communities are expected to attend.
