

Home Wrecker Shot Down On Theater Stage

Snatches of three love lyrics will be heard in Ruth Chatterton's latest starring vehicle for First National, "Journal of a Crime," which comes to the Plaza Theatre at Hawthorne on Sunday and Monday, May 13-14. Many of the more dramatic scenes of the picture take place in a Parisian theatre, in which Adolphe Menjou, playwright and Miss Chatterton's husband, is putting on a show with Claire Dodd in the role of the star.

It is while Miss Dodd is singing during a rehearsal that Miss Chatterton shoots and kills her from behind the wings for wrecking her home. Miss Dodd is possessed of a charming voice and renders part of an operetta with telling effect when the shot rings out and stills her voice.

"Journal of a Crime" is based on the thrilling drama by Jacques Deval and is a study of the effect of a murder on the murderers. William Keighley directed the picture from the screen play by F. Hugh Herbert and Charles Kenyon.

"The Trumpet Blows" At Torrance Theatre, Sunday and Monday

George Raft is seen above in one of the gripping scenes from Paramount's "The Trumpet Blows," which comes to the Torrance Theatre, Sunday and Monday, May 13 and 14. The story is one of violent contrasts, with a theme of love between people of intense passions and temperaments. As angry as a lightning-bolt, Raft plays the most tempestuous love story since "Blood and Sand," that's what critics say of "The Trumpet Blows." It is popular opinion that George Raft has inherited the mantle of Rudolph Valentino. Adolphe Menjou also plays a leading role.

"As the Earth Turns," with Jean Muir and Donald Woods, is booked as a companion picture at the Torrance Theatre, Sunday and Monday.

Zasu and Slim Are Cooing Pair In "Love Birds"

A. Parsons, Kansas, girl who made good in the movies is Zasu Pitts, coming to the Plaza Theatre at Hawthorne, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, May 15, 16 and 17, in "Love Birds," the rollicking Universal comedy in which she is co-starred with Slim Summerville. Born on January 3, 1900, Zasu's parents moved to Santa Cruz, California, when she was very young, and it was in the western city that she received her schooling. Her name is a combination of the first and last syllables of the names of her aunts, Eliza and Susan—ZaSu. Miss Pitts made her screen debut at 18 in Mary Pickford's "The Little Princess," and has since become established as the screen's outstanding comedienne, although von Stroheim believes she could be a great tragedienne, as witness her work in "The Wedding March."

NEW FIELD, Me. (U.P.)—One of the prized relics of this village is a pair of stays worn by Horace Greeley as a baby. Until 1885 they were owned by a woman at Monros Mills, and prior to that, by Mrs. A. H. Spaulding, of Nottingham, N. H., who had laced them around Baby Horace many times.
