

SOCIETY DISPATCH

Miss Fordice Bride of Glen Robinson

An improvised miniature chapel built in the living room of the L. L. Fordice home, 1720 Martina avenue, and made from fern, sweet peas and gladiolus, formed the background for the marriage of their daughter, Kathryn Fordice, to Glen Robinson, Friday evening. The service was performed by Rev. B. H. Lingenfelter at 8 p. m. in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends.

HERE and THERE with the GIRL SCOUTS By EVA MIZE

The Girl Scouts entertained in honor of their mothers at their last meeting. Following a short business meeting there was a program given. Dorleen Scrivener played the Hawaiian guitar. Mrs. Sly of Gardena played the mandolin and violin, accompanied by Loraine Hill. Loraine Hill was mistress of ceremonies. Every girl in the troop had some part in plans and preparations.

At the party the mothers planned a benefit card party to be held at Scout house, El Prado avenue, Friday, May 18, at 1 p. m. The public is invited to come and support this worthy project. Bridge and 500 will be played and refreshments will be served. Tickets may be purchased from Girl Scouts or at the door for 25 cents.

REDONDO GIRL MARRIES TORRANCE MAN

Miss Ethel May Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Young, of Redondo Beach, was married to William H. Brenner of Torrance in the Hollywood Riviera clubhouse, Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Harold E. Doty, pastor of the Redondo Beach First Baptist church, read the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family and friends of the couple.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an afternoon gown of French blue with white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink rose buds and gardenias. Mrs. Blanche Libby played the wedding march and "I Love You Truly."

Following the reception, dinner was served at the clubhouse. Couples were placed for the bride and groom, Rev. and Mrs. Harold E. Doty, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Young, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. C. Nagel, Mrs. Blanche Libby, Mrs. Ina Crall, Messrs. Paul Ames and Harold Newkirk.

WEEK-END IN ELSINORE

Chester Conklin Weds Invalid

A book-like romance was culminated in Hollywood recently when Chester Conklin, movie comedian, and Margherita Rossa, invalid, were wed. Conklin met his bride while giving a performance for shut-ins. The bride has been crippled for 23 years. The couple is pictured above with Bishop Irving R. Cooper, who performed the marriage ceremony.

Paris Styles

By MARY KNIGHT. United Press Staff Correspondent. PARIS (U.P.)—The Races, attended by our Smart SET, are becoming the exponents of fashion as well as those interested primarily in horse flesh. The opening of Longchamp therefore, brought out a goodly attendance.

For capes and scarfs color was carried prominently over the arm thus exhibiting the delicate line of the new frock beneath to better advantage. Straw hats blossomed forth without fear of being spoiled. Prevailing colors were blue, the gamut of the family from navy to the sky itself, with bright touches in accessories of red, green and in ever present white.

Helmi's horizon blue fox was the choice of several. Longchamp's brilliant emerald green scarfs were also noticed. One particularly stunning costume in blues featured a French blue three-quarter coat and skirt with lighter blue silk blouse and darker blue kid gloves, purse and shoes. The sailor straw hat matched the blouse, the collar of which turned back over the coat and formed a soft chin-bow in front with streamers to the waist.

TODAY'S FASHION TIP

Paris fancies find blue the winner for smart colors; much black and white accessories of red and green with beige outfits.

FATHER-SON BANQUET, MAY 21

Mrs. Jack Harrington is in charge of the affair and all persons desiring transportation or tables may secure same by calling 612.

NEW OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

Miss Beatrice Hughes, Consolidated Lumber Company secretary, who was elected president of the National Business and Professional Women of Torrance on Monday, May 7, was installed in office Tuesday evening at the regular dinner meeting held at the Christian church parlors.

Three tall candles and one half their size represented the three and a half years of the club's existence. As she lighted these, Mrs. Alkire invited the past presidents representing each to tell of the achievements of her term of service. Mrs. Margaret Dohrlick, president for the first year and a half, Mrs. Juliet Young and Mrs. Laila Bowen responded.

Candles lighted in turn from the small candle representing the organization of the club, were handed to the new group which takes over the leadership, Miss Hughes, president; Miss Lute Pruser, vice president; Mrs. Gladys Antle, Pangborn, recording secretary; Miss Margaret Riehart, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Ruth Haggard, treasurer. The four subordinate officers lighted candles on the tables from which members lighted their own small tapers in token of a united effort to promote friendship and mutual understanding.

Mother's Day Observed at Church Banquet

Mother's Day was fittingly observed at the Methodist church Friday evening when 200 mothers and daughters gathered for the annual mother-daughter banquet. Flowers decorated the church and vestibule, Maypoles decorated each table and dolls in crepe paper dresses of pastel shades served as favors.
