BRIDAL SHOWER FOR MISS LOTAN

Mrs. Clyde A. Totten and Mrs. W. C. Andrus were co-hostesses recently at a bridal shower given at Mrs. Totten's home for their cousin, Miss Polly Lotan, superintendent of the Valley hospital at Downey. Decorations were in pink and white and the refreshments carried the same color motif. Miss Lotan received a number of lovely gifts. Her marriage to G. Harvey Elder, of Los Angeles, will take place on June 2, and after a two-weeks stay at Catalina they will make their home in Long Beach.

Interesting Program Closes P. T. A. Year

Marking the close of a most successful year, officers of the elementary school Parent Teachers Association with the principal and teachers of the school set for their annual luncheon in the school auditorium Tuesday.

Yellow and white formed the table decorations and the luncheon, which was most delicious, was served by Mrs. Bowen, her niece, Miss Louise Bowen, and girls from the A-6 grade. Covers were placed for William Bell, Jr., Mrs. J. O. Bishop, president of the group; Mrs. L. A. Stump, of Lomita, president of San Pedro-Lomita Council Parent Teachers Association; Mrs. Lyle Louise Husted, Mrs. Tom Watson, Miss Madeline Murphy, Mrs. A. E. Keiser, Mrs. Juliet M. Young, Mrs. M. American Legion Auxiliary News

Saturday, May 26, is poppy day. Be sure to wear a poppy. Past presidents of Bert S. Crossland Unit 170, American Legion Auxiliary, are planning a benefit card party, Monday evening, June 18. Reservations for this affair must be made with members of the past presidents' party, as only a limited number of tables will be sold.

Our Juniors

Our Juniors will not meet during the summer months.

KEYSTONE WOMEN HOLD GARDEN MEETING

The lovely garden at the home of Mrs. George Koeller, corner of 23rd and Grace streets, formed the setting for an all-day meeting of the Keystone Women's Club Wednesday.

Business affairs were conducted and after a tour of the garden luncheon was served. Following the luncheon officers were installed in a most effective manner by Mrs. Thomas Squires of Long Beach, past district chairman of homemaking. With the American flag in the background and before a wishing well, the following officers were installed: Mrs. C. E. Harshman, club president; Mrs. John Hilbert, first vice president; Mrs. S. C. Sauer, second vice president; Mrs. Chas. Forest, recording secretary; Mrs. E. W. Banks, treasurer; Mrs. Thos. Cowan, federation secretary; Mrs. Cowan, federation president, was presented with a past president's pin. Mrs. George Nalimens, ways and means chairman, was presented with a linen set in appreciation of her splendid work during the year; Mrs. Lucy Myers, district garden chairman, was the guest speaker.

HONOR RETIRING OFFICER AND ELECT NEW

Mrs. A. R. Jones was elected president of the Methodist Woman's Aid Society, at their meeting in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon. Other officers elected at this meeting were Mrs. W. F. Burgener, first vice president; Mrs. Dye Turner, second vice president; Mrs. R. F. Hogue, third vice president; Mrs. Jack Keefe, fourth vice president; Mrs. Homer Morgan, recording secretary; Mrs. Robt. Bartlett, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Eugene Graham, treasurer; Mrs. Earl Robinson, finance officer.

Following the business session, which was conducted by the retiring president, Mrs. Jack Keefe, members of the society gave a going-away shower in Mrs. Keefe's honor. She will leave June 22 to spend the summer with her mother and sisters in Minnesota and Montana.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET

Thursday night, 8:30 o'clock, at the Methodist church, is the occasion of the big Father and Son Banquet. Elaborate preparations are under way to make this one of the finest and most interesting programs of the entire year. Many features are being planned that will be of special interest to the boys and men. The speaker of the evening will be Dr. Clyde Ford, newly appointed, deputy superintendent of Los Angeles city schools. Mayor Ludlow will represent the city of Torrance on the program. The committee hopes to have around 200 men and boys sit down to dinner for this unusual evening. All men and boys interested are invited. It is suggested that men having no sons of their own, invite some boy for the evening.

SANTA BARBARA VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Whyte, 1620 Post avenue, have as their house guests this week, Mrs. Whyte's sister, Mrs. Fields Benton Arthur, and daughter, Janet, of Santa Barbara. Mr. Arthur was a week-end visitor at the Whyte home.

ATTEND RED CROSS ANNUAL STUDIO TEA

Mrs. Mildred Evans and Mrs. Pearl Steppy attended the Studio Tea in Los Angeles, Tuesday. This tea is an annual affair at which every branch of the Red Cross in the district makes its report. Rabbi Magin was the afternoon speaker.

LUNCHEON GUESTS

Mrs. James Crumrine of Key-stone, had as her luncheon guests Friday, Mrs. F. H. McMahon of Glendale, and Mrs. Lola Barlow of Pasadena. This group of ladies are the committee in charge of entertainment at the Baylor College alumni meeting in Pasadena, June 29.

MRS. DYE HOSTESS TO CLUB MEMBERS

Mrs. Bert Dye, 1611 Cota avenue, entertained members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club at her home Thursday. Prizes for high scores at bridge were awarded to Mrs. J. B. Shaw and Mrs. A. W. Meisner. A consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. F. H. Clark. Others who attended the affair included Mesdames H. S. McManus, W. C. Dolley, Ralph Hatton, J. E. Haggard, A. F. Meisner, May McKinley, J. O. Moore and A. P. Stevenson.
