Keeping Up With Torrance High

That the Hawaiian theme will be carried out at the Junior Prom was definitely decided at the last junior class meeting.

The wedding, the fifth of a series of plays presented by the dramatic class this semester, was given Wednesday, May 22, in the tent.

The annual Beach Festival, which will take place this week-end in Los Angeles, will be attended by Mrs. Elschen and as many students as wish to accompany her.

Some of the teachers attended a meeting at Trinity auditorium Tuesday at which Miss Jessie Gray, president of the N. E. A., spoke.

Showing the interest that the board of education is taking in the Torrance high activities period plan, the visual education department will take moving pictures of the various activities carried on at school.

Joe Miles was given inspection and received his pass to the Torrance Theatre. Nine members of Troop 4 spent the week-end of May 11, 12 and 13, at Camp Arthur Letts.

Extra Outlets Help to Eyes

By increasing the number of wall and floor plug-ins, additional comfort and convenience can be obtained.

In the front room an extra outlet or two can change the whole aspect of that room at night; better lights offer lighting efficiency and this is sadly neglected in a great majority of homes.

Sam Levy Reduces Prices of All Shoes In Great Clearance Sale

In a determined effort to effect a quick reduction of his exceptionally large stock of high-grade footwear, Sam Levy, pioneer department store at 1311 Sartori avenue, announces a Clearance Sale of men's, women's and children's shoes, beginning Friday morning.

Worthwhile reductions are offered on every pair of shoes in the entire store, including the celebrated Enna Jettick shoes for women and Florsheim shoes for men.

Between the hours of 9 and 11 a. m. Friday and Saturday, a group of women's shoes, pumps and oxfords will be sold at 88 cents a pair.

Paris Styles

By MARY KNIGHT United Press Staff Correspondent PARIS—Summer has come. Motoballs and our favorite fall and winter clothes have retired gracefully into special closets, trunks and boxes.

Schlaparelli showed us some adorable collar and cuff sets she has completed for her formal summer "little showing" made of straw! Purse to match, and some more of those very perky little hats, crocheted into shapes you'd never have given a hat credit for getting into.

Gloves now, instead of being sold in the usual groups in the hole-leaf manner possible, are perhaps trying to go the new stiffened, well-ventilated, crocheted and knitted gloves of raffia are among the latest hand coverings for hot days when mittens must be worn more for effect than comfort.

James Nell, 808 1/2 Amapola, an employe of the Columbia Steel, is receiving treatment for the fracture of both legs below the knee. The injuries were sustained in an accident, May 18.

Mr. Arthur L. Wood, 204 Strand, Redondo Beach, entered the hospital May 21 for observation and medical treatment.

President Roosevelt was sent a cordial invitation to visit Los Angeles while on his way to or from the Hawaiian Islands this summer. The invitation was extended by the Advertising Club of Los Angeles and 207 other county organizations, including the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club, and other organizations of which Torrance citizens are members.

WOMEN SOCIETY TWO MEMBERS ARE SHOWERED

Miss Edna Mullin, 1323 Cota avenue, was hostess Thursday evening, May 17, at a shower given for two members of the National Business and Professional Women's Club, which was attended by a large group of the club members.

Miss Lillian Haig, who became the bride on Friday, May 18, of B. E. Lewis, was the recipient of a number of lovely articles of lingerie, and Mrs. Lalla Bowen, past president of the club, accepted gifts on behalf of the young woman who recently became a member of the Bowen family.

The evening was spent at bridge and bingo. Delicious refreshments were served after the presentation of the gifts, and Madame Teala Billini entertained the group with several request piano numbers. The affair was a surprise to both honorees as each had been told that the other was to be the honored guest.

MISS LILLIAN HAIG IS A BRIDE

Miss Lillian Haig, daughter of F. R. Haig and member of the firm of Haig & Haig, photographers, became the bride last Friday afternoon, May 18, of Bernard B. Lewis, employe of the Pacific Perforating Company in Torrance. The wedding took place in Los Angeles, witnessed by Miss Mary Haig, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Pat Dillinger of Torrance. The young couple left by automobile to spend their honeymoon at Big Bear and are expected to return Sunday to make their home in Torrance.

Register Children For Kindergarten

Children who will be five years old before next December 11, are eligible to enter kindergarten classes when school opens on September 11, according to announcement made today by kindergarten teachers. Parents who expect to enter their children in these classes are requested to send in their names by June 3 as a large attendance is expected this fall.

at Narbonne High School

A tea will be given May 31 in the Narbonne library after school by the senior A girls and their class advisers, Miss Chadwick and Miss Mutch. The purpose will be to discuss the commencement dresses of the girls.

A big, two-day flower show and exhibit, to be held Thursday and Friday afternoons, May 31 and June 1, in the girls' gymnasium, is being sponsored by the Narbonne Future Farmers of America under the direction of Mr. Fuller. "It cannot be overstressed," stated Mr. Fuller, "that the flower show is essentially for townspeople although students may enter exhibits if they wish. All are urged to bring their exhibits of flowers, cacti, succulents, fruits and vegetables."

Dr. Elizabeth Woods and Dr. Featherstone of the Los Angeles school department, and R. H. Stephenson of Lomita will officiate as judges. Exhibits may be entered singly, in bunches, or in any manner which the contestant thinks is most attractive. Three prizes will be given for the best entries in each division. Boys will be at the gymnasium doors in the mornings to receive contributions, and it is stated that excellent care will be taken of them before and during the show.

Replace Your Screens And Paint Up Home

A new coat of paint, or replacing the screens, are two of the improvements that will add greatly to the appearance of your present property. A run-down condition naturally detracts from the original beauty and will cause a house that would ordinarily last a life time to deteriorate in a comparatively short time.

Timely Repairs Save Larger Cost Later

Making it a habit to check your overstuffed furniture at regular intervals will save many a large repair bill that could have been avoided. Overstuffed pieces are more or less expensive and undoubtedly warrant the expenditure of a few dollars yearly to protect your investment as well as increase the beauty of the living room.
