

DOCTOR PUNCHES FOUR
 PROVO, Utah. (U.P.)—Pummeling a single punching bag is an art, but it is complicated to keep two pounding in rhythm at the same time, and a notable achievement to battle three. But Dr. G. E. Sandgren has accomplished the rare knack of rattling a set of four simultaneously.

BARN BLOWN 300 FEET
 ANDOVER, N. B. (U.P.)—They have some pretty stiff breezes around Andover sometimes. For instance, during a recent severe rain, wind and electrical storm, a large barn belonging to Nell Bryson was uprooted and blown 300 feet away. Several telephone poles in its way were knocked down.

Lee Stamps of McKinley Inn, visited over the week-end with his parents in Lancaster, California.

'Sunny Jim' Comes Home

Under the great dome of the San Francisco City Hall, of which he used to boast so proudly, California's governor, "Sunny Jim" Rolph, lies in state. The casket bearing the remains of the governor is shown as it arrived at the City Hall, where thousands gathered to see "Jimmy" come home.

Movie Dance Team To Present 'Carioca' As Special Feature

Lucille Hall and her dancing partner, who appeared in the picture, "Flying Down to Rio," will give an exhibition of the original "Carioca" dance at the popular Bal Tabarin Gardens this Saturday, June 9. The "Carioca" is considered one of the most difficult terechorean routines of all the new special dances. This particular team gained much attention with their work in the above mentioned picture and will do the same steps and gyrations as were seen on the screen.

Lucille Hall, member of the team, is working at the present time on another movie production, appearing again as a specialty dancer. You can see this much-talked-of "Carioca" at close quarters this Saturday, and see it really done properly. The "Bal Tabarin" is located in Moneta at 15513 Western avenue.

Youth Slays Mother and Brother

Louis Rude Payne, 21, right, confessed to the murder of his mother and younger brother. The nude bodies of his mother, Mrs. Carrie L. Payne, 46, and his brother, Robert, 15, were found in the Paynes' pretentious Hollywood home. Payne walked into a police station and confessed the murder.

TROOP 4
 Court of honor and board of review was held Tuesday evening at Scout hall, with E. P. Moore presiding, assisted by Commissioner W. T. Jones. Badges for Troop 4 Scouts were awarded to Dick Clutter, one; Neil Cramer, three; Bob Cramer, one; Douglas Yorke, one, and Lee Burns, two. Scoutmaster Jacob's announced that the Mothers' Auxiliary would meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Smith, 2267 Maricopa street. This was the first outdoor meeting of the season. It was held on the Scout grounds around a campfire.

Gun Rejected As Clue to Murder

A gun which L. B. Kelsey, of 1405 Marcella street, Torrance, found, and which he thought might have been used in the mysterious killing of Dr. Leonard Sleever, Pasadena dentist, last December 13, has been rejected as a clue in the murder, by police. Kelsey took the gun to the police and stated that he found it on Vermont avenue the same morning that Dr. Sleever was murdered.
