Catholic Rally In Navy Field, San Pedro, Sun.

Representatives From Every Parish in Diocese Expected To Be Present

With representatives from every parish in the diocese of Los Angeles and San Diego expected, preparations are completed to handle a crowd of 50,000 persons at the Holy Name Society Rally in Navy Field, 3200 Pacific avenue, San Pedro, Sunday afternoon, June 17.

The rally will mark the 60th anniversary of the founding of the Holy Name Society, the oldest and most highly privileged society for men and boys in the Catholic church.

Massed banners and American flags of 200 Holy Name parish branches will be in the procession that will open the rally at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Right Rev. Msgr. John McCarthy, V. F., administrator of the diocese, will lead the opening prayer. Rev. Vincent Flynn of San Pedro and Dr. W. E. Guindinger, president of San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, are scheduled to deliver the addresses of welcome.

Rev. Charles E. Leahy, S. J., will talk on St. Aloysius of Gonzaga, patron of youth, to whom the rally is dedicated. Senor J. David Orozco will speak in Spanish.

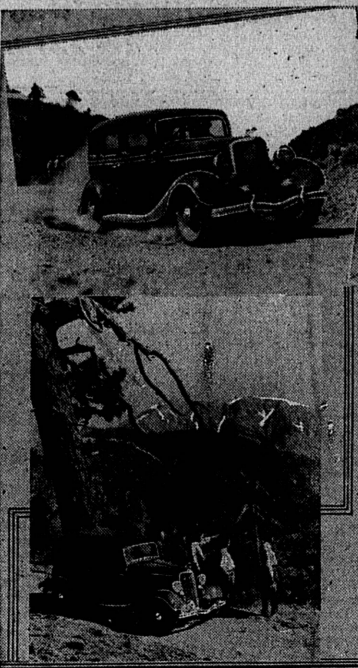

A feature of the program will be the awarding of trophies to the several divisional championship baseball teams of the Holy Name Athletic Association by Rev. P. J. Concannon, diocesan director.

Every Catholic youth organization in Southern California will be represented. Hundreds of masses and all the pastors will join in the ceremonies. Solemn benediction and renewal of the Holy Name pledge will be given.

William L. Morrison, one of the outstanding leaders of the Holy Name Society in the west, will deliver the address of the day on the pledge which the Holy Name members take against profanity, blasphemy, obscene speech and perjury.

Right Rev. Msgr. John McCarthy, V. F., will convey a special message from His Excellency, Most Rev. Bishop John J. Cantwell, D. D., and Rev. J. McLaughlin, C.S.R., redemptorist missionary of Whittier, will speak on the sesquicentennial of Fray Junipero Serra. The 160th Infantry band and well-known male soloists will give a special musical program.

STOCK FORD V-8 CLIMBS 5500 Ft. IN HIGH GEAR

Top Right: At Wrightwood, checking time of test climb Ford V-8 which was elevated over 15.3 miles grade at rate of 5.2 feet a second in high gear.
Lower Left: At end of run, Inspiration Point, Blue Ridge, 15.3 miles from Cajon Junction, the starting point.

A stock Ford V-8 sedan recently negotiated in high gear the tortuous up-hill climb of 15.3 miles from Cajon Junction to Inspiration Point on the summit of Blue Ridge, according to Schultz & Peckham, local Ford dealers. In this distance the highway rises from 3100 feet to 8600 feet above sea level and no stock car ever did this in high gear before.

In discussing the high-gear test-climb, Austin Elmore, who drove the car said, "The Ford V-8 used no oil whatsoever on the trip. That is, we did not have to replenish our oil supply after we finished. I believe this high-gear climb demonstrated conclusively that the Ford V-8 actually has dependability, roadability, durability, practicability."

"I find that the Ford V-8 transverse springs make it possible to negotiate hazardous mountain climbs with the greatest safety, ease and comfort. There are fewer working parts in the transverse spring than in some of the other types of cars—hence an increased safety factor over mountain roads."

Austin Elmore, nationally known automotive test engineer, made the run May 20, at 2:30 p. m. before thousands who thronged the highway from start to finish. The road was controlled during the climb by U. S. forest rangers, Los Angeles county playground officials and members of the staff of Wrightwood resort. District U. S. Forest Ranger John Kaye acted as timer and Paul O'Shea, U. S. forest ranger number 25, officiated as traffic control officer. Elmore's time for the 15.3 miles was officially set at 16 minutes and 53 seconds.

This particular mountain climb was selected because of the long gradual ascent for the first 13 miles and the sudden elevation for the remaining two plus. The grade for the 13 miles averages between 7 and 12 per cent with many stretches of 14 and 16 per cent. The remaining two miles of the run rise at the rate of 19 per cent of a tricky hair-pin turn.

In the mid-afternoon, when the climb was made, the atmosphere was at its lightest thus making the sudden elevation a greater test of the Ford V-8's carburetion and climbing qualities in high gear.

Delinquency In School Taxes Is Greatly Reduced

Less Than 13 Percent Uncollected in Los Angeles District

Tax delinquency in the Los Angeles city school district, which serves Torrance, Lomita, Harbor City, Gardena and adjacent areas, is only 12.58 per cent for the elementary district and 12.61 per cent for the high school district, statistics showed today.

Some of the elementary districts throughout the county have 1933-34 tax delinquencies as high as 30, 40 and one goes as high as 50 per cent. This is Las Virgenes, where the levy is but $461 and collections $230. The charge for the Los Angeles elementary district last year was $5,592,308, while collections totaled $7,422,457.

The charge for the high school district was $6,785,000, of which $5,529,000 was paid in. Delinquency for the Los Angeles junior college district also was 12.61 per cent. In the Long Beach junior college district the delinquency was 18.92 per cent. In Pasadena it was 12.42 per cent, and in Glendale 16 per cent.

Junior college tuition was 15.52 per cent delinquent.

Keeping Up With Torrance High

The senior English test, the most important requirement of senior high school, was given Tuesday, June 12. All junior A students must take and pass the test before they are admitted to senior home rooms. They were given a number of topics to choose from and were required to write a 500-word composition on one of them without any outside reference or aid. Students were given as much time as they wished to write. Any paper with a sentence error cannot pass a student, and he must take the test as many times as necessary until he writes a passing composition.

The Episcopal church recently gave a dinner to the Torrance high boys who helped with the landscaping of the church grounds. Dr. Shlider gave an interesting talk on the development of the class. The guests were S. E. Merrill, the teacher; Cornelius Peet, John Schroeder, Paul Drury, Chuck Williams, Sherman Allen, Martin Kalina and Dan Howe.

Members of the Future Farmers Club had a barbecue last week and elected their officers for next semester. The new officers are: Carl Faxman, president; William Schlipper, vice president; Clarence Day, secretary; Elliot Woenberg, treasurer; Leonard Harris, sergeant-at-arms; and Albert Winkler, yell leader.
