

MANY TOKENS OF CONFIDENCE AND LOYALTY

Judge and Clerk Thankful

JUDGE ESTHER I. DENNIS, and BERTHA WILCOX, Clerk of Justice Court, say, "We are elated to learn of the opening of the Torrance National Bank, because we realize the great good it will mean to the entire community. We also wish to express our sincere appreciation for the many courtesies extended in the past, and hasten to assure the new officers of the bank that they can depend upon our whole-hearted support in the future."

Credit Due Post and Deininger

"Torrance National Bank, Torrance, California. Gentlemen: "May I take this opportunity to congratulate you on the re-organization of your institution? "Great credit is due Wallace Post, Bob Deininger and their committee for the faithfulness and perseverance they have displayed in sticking by their ship and bringing it safely through the storm. "The people of Torrance sincerely rejoice in your success. You have proven yourselves to your many friends; and I believe they stand ready to get behind you and make this one of the best local banks in Southern California. "Very truly yours, "J. C. SMITH."

Solved Many Problems

"James W. Post, President, Torrance National Bank, Dear Wallace, "Congratulations on the accomplishment of the long and difficult task in which you have been engaged. You deserve, and I am sure will receive, the continued support of the community in the new institution, which I am sure will be an even greater service to the community in these trying times than the old bank was in the past. "The old bank solved many hard problems always to the betterment of the city of Torrance and I am sure that the new bank will be able to continue the good work in the future. "Good wishes, "TORRANCE C. WELCH."

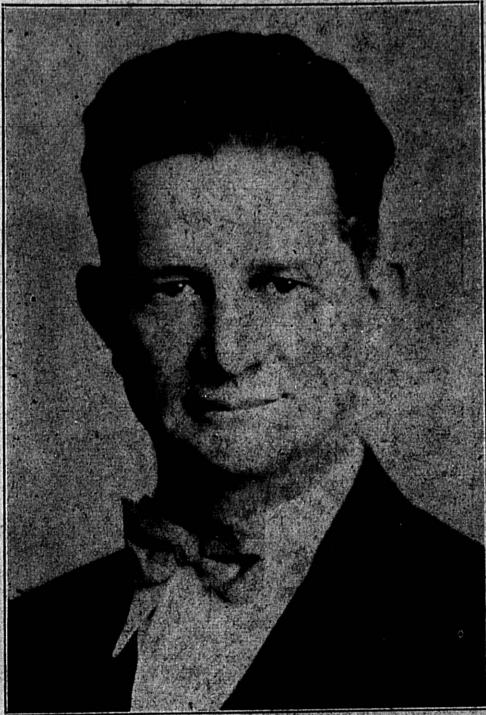

Courtesy and Friendliness

E. F. DeBRA, DeBRA RADIO CO., says, "Our most sincere congratulations to the Torrance National Bank. We appreciate the courteous and friendly relations extended to us since 1923 and we extend now our heartiest wish for future success."

Woman's Club to Support

TORRANCE WOMAN'S CLUB, ALDA HUDSON, President, says, "We wish to express our faith in you and the staff of employes as well as directors. We assure you of our continued patronage."

"Calling All Bets"

POSTMASTER C. EARL CONNER and FORMER MAYOR OF TORRANCE

Expresses his unflinching faith in the community and its pioneer bank with the following message: "Calling all bets! And I remember a few who said the bank would never open. I bet that it would! How could it be otherwise with the fine group of community-minded citizens. "More power!—and much success to Wallace Post and the officers, depositors and friends of the Torrance National Bank."

Lomita Resident

CHARLES M. SMITH, Lomita, says, "Congratulations to you, Wallace. May the people have the same confidence in you for the future as they have had in the past."

Brings Favorable Comment

L. J. GILMEISTER, Secretary, TORRANCE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, says, "The re-opening of the Torrance National Bank has prompted much favorable comment by representatives of civic organizations throughout Los Angeles county, which is bound to be beneficial to all interests in Torrance."

Industry Congratulates

INTERNATIONAL DERRICK & EQUIPMENT COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA, R. C. YOUNG, Treasurer, says, "We wish to offer congratulations to the directors and officers of the Torrance National Bank and our good wishes for their success."

Legion Auxiliary Praises

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY, JEAN PATTERSON, President, says, "Congratulations to the personnel of the Torrance National Bank. Our confidence in you is and has been 100 per cent. Be assured of our continued co-operation."

Penney Co. Manager

FRANK BUFFINGTON, manager of the J. C. Penney Company, said today, "May the success that crowned the efforts of the officials of the First National Bank in their efforts to re-open the bank, continue and spread throughout this community of ours."

Old Resident

FRED HANSEN, pioneer resident and civic leader, in a letter to J. W. Post, says, "As a resident and business man in Torrance for the past 14 years, it certainly is a happy occasion to offer my congratulations upon the opening of the Torrance National Bank. I am certainly with you 100%."

Firestone Manager Commends Fighters

DOUGLAS B. COLLINS, manager of the Firestone Service Stores in Torrance, said today, "Naturally we are proud to be among the many to welcome the re-opening of our community bank. I think the spirit shown by the personnel who kept on fighting when the future looked very dark was very commendable."

Harbor District Chamber Leader

W. RUFUS PACE, past president of the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce and prominent civic leader in Torrance, says, "I am certainly glad to see the Torrance National Bank open and feel that it will be of great benefit to this community."

Confidence In Future

R. R. SMITH, former city councilman and executive of the National Supply Company, says, "Mr. J. W. Post,—As one who has always been interested in this community's welfare and development, I feel you should be congratulated upon the successful opening of one of our oldest institutions, and around which the city of Torrance has been built. We have entire confidence in its future and can assure you of our continued support."

Unselfish Efforts

RAY C. YOUNG, says, "Dear Wallace,—Allow me to congratulate you on the opening of the new bank. Not only myself but every business man in Torrance appreciates how untiring your efforts have been in re-organizing and re-opening the new bank. "It is indeed a pleasure to have a friend who has shown as you have that you not only have your own interests at heart but largely your efforts have been to protect the interests of others. "I certainly extend my best wishes for your success."

The Publisher and Staff

of the

Torrance Herald
and Lomita News

Extend Their Sincere Congratulations

to the

Torrance National Bank

And Pledge Their Continued
Support to This Fine
Old Torrance
Institution

The Torrance Chamber of Commerce

Offers Its Sincere

GOOD WISHES

To The Officers, Directors,
Stockholders and Depositors

of the

Torrance National Bank

BANKS are an important artery through which flow the life blood of Industry and Commerce; and the opening of the Torrance National Bank naturally will effect increased facilities for the development of Commerce and Industry in the community.